Toilet outside Towson courthouse creates bomb scare

By Yeganeh June Torbati

THE BALTIMORE SUN

Part of central Towson came to a standstill Monday morning — for a toilet.

The porcelain toilet — festooned with newspaper clippings, an electronic transmitter and a cell phone — was left outside the historic Baltimore County courthouse about 8 a.m., triggering a police reaction that included a bomb-sniffing dog and a small robot.

Workers from nearby businesses streamed out to watch as police closed nearby streets, including the 400 block of Washington Ave., near the intersection with Pennsylvania Avenue.

Michael Minervini, who works at the M&T Bank branch on Washington Avenue, said employees were confused and worried as they watched police investigate the package and the robot approach the toilet. "Certainly, any time you put a mysterious package or item or whatever around a government building, you're

Justices uphold Westboro 'speech'

First Amendment cited; Kan. church picketed Marine's funeral in Md.

By Tricia Bishop
THE BALTIMORE SUN

In a dispute that began at a Marine's funeral in Westminster, the Supreme Court ruled 8-1 Wednesday that the First Amendment allows the Westboro Baptist Church to peacefully picket military funerals with its hate-filled, antigay messages.

"Speech is powerful. It can stir people to action, move them to tears of both joy and sorrow, and—as it did here—inflict great pain," Chief Justice John G. Roberts Jr.

wrote in the majority opinion.

"On the facts before us, we cannot retreat to that pain by punishing the speaker," he continued. "As a Nation we have chosen a different course—to protect even hurtful speech on public issues to ensure that we do not stifle public debate."

The ruling, issued a day before the anniversary of Lance Cpl. Matthew Snyder's death, was a bitter disappointment for the Marine's father, Albert Snyder, who sued the Topeka, Kan., church for picketing his son's funeral in 2006, alleging intentional infliction of emotional distress. But the ruling was expected by free-speech advocates, who found themselves in the uncomfortable position of having to align with a group that protests against gays, Roman Catholics, Jews and others.

"It's an opinion that supports very fundamental First Amendment principles," said Timothy Zick, a professor at William & Mary Law School in Williamsburg, Va. He joined other law professors in submitting a legal brief to the high court supporting See COURT, Page II

BALTIMORE COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS
INTRA-DEPARTMENT CORRESPONDENCE

DATE: April 12, 2011

TO: Duane G. Davis, Sr., #391806

2C-13-Lower

FROM:

James P. O'Neill
Director

SUBJECT: Complaints

Pursuant to your numerous complaints that you have recently filed, please be advised I will attempt to answer your concerns. I must reiterate that there are no papers in your property that you have not already received. You are not entitled to see a court order to effect your transfer to Spring Grove, and you were returned here when Spring Grove staff thought it was appropriate.

Any media interviews with pre-trial inmates are subject to approval from your legal counsel, so these sessions will not be approved until I hear from your counsel.

As a correctional entity, we had nothing to do with the charges that brought you to this institution. You are certainly entitled to write a book while in here and make movies upon your release, but while you are here, you are entitled to the same privileges and restrictions that other inmates have. The classification counselor assigned to 2C can assist you with some light social work duties, but your charges, T.V. interviews, whistle blower status, Spring Grove treatment, etc., and other issues not related to your incarceration here will not be addressed.

Good luck during the remainder of your stay. Hopefully, this correspondence will clarify our role, as with a population of 1400 inmates, we will not be able to continue a weekly dialogue.

Within the Penitentiary, Blacks have created an Extension
Of the Ghetto

In today's fast and highly technical society, there are many movements on the horizon that lead us to focus on equality for different groups that make up society. In dealing with the issue of equality, Black Nationalism can and should be used to offset the powers of domination within the capitalist society. The key to the success of the black struggle must, in my opinion, be centered on the use of mass movement to achieve equality.

Mass movement, from my interpretation, is the pulling together of people of the same nationality, political ideas, economical status and similar social values. A national consciousness must also arise from within the movement in order to strengthen the community, the black community in particular. Total involvement from all of the different classes of blacks is needed. We also need to strengthen bonds and alliances with other oppressed people within the U.S. and abroad. As Afro-Americans, we cannot negate our responsibility to our African brothers and sisters. Our struggle is that of the two worlds mentioned.

Capitalism is the main force in the oppression of Afro-Americans. The subjugation of Afro-Americans is the key to success of capitalism.

Black labor and other oppressed laborers within the U.S. have been exploited for centuries. These exploited workers would be the best fighters for a new nationalism. They are concentrated in the major industrial and urban centers on which the entire economy rests. Therefore, they possess the power to break the holds of capitalism. However, this has not happened because of the capitalists ability to create a division within the exploited labor market. As long as the persistent conflicts continue, unification will be unattainable.

Black Nationalism would require that Afro-Americans have complete control over their economics, politics, culture, education, and every other sphere the influence within the black community. 1 This would create security for the black nation within America and also constitute a power base to uniformly dilute the power structure of capitalism. To dilute the power structure, blacks would also have to become self-sufficient in the market place, produce and consume products within their community and refuse to purchase and patronize white establishments. The end result putting the revenue back into their own community. This would stem chaos amongst the capitalist society. Capitalists' would then be stuck with unmarketable goods.

With the establishment of this type of power base, blacks could create a national black consciousness, thus setting into motion the framework needed to produce a mass movement. Mass movements and the unification of oppressed races, is the biggest fear of the capitalist society. If the oppressed races become unified, they could create a very unique and solid workforce to bargain for more concessions within the workplace. They would need not fear the use of strike breakers because they would not exist. This unification could also be to their advantage within the economic sphere, by forming a new dollar power.

For the Capitalist to overcome their fears of such a reality, the capitalist society would either have to destroy or assassinate the leaders of these movements. This has been the case in the past.

First we saw the deportation of Marcus Garvey. Garvey envisioned a mass exodus of Black Americans back to Africa. This move would have established America and disrupted the labor market. One must realize that a mass exodus would not only have taken away the black people in the labor market, but also the black dollars from American banks, thus being redirected into African banks. It would also take away black money in the market place because the movement supported self- sufficiency. Capitalist would be stuck with goods and a disproportionate market.

Then there was the murder of Malcolm X. Malcolm was a militant Black Muslim that wanted nothing to do with white society. He advocated the use of force to insure his constitutional and civil rights. He was a threat to the capitalist society because he could not be controlled or bribed by them. He had the ability to use the mass movement to insure the success of his movement directed at the separation, with his condolence for the use of violence. This was seen as a revolution that was bound to destroy the imperial and capitalistic structure within America. We have been without revolution for almost 100 years, and Malcolm X was on the verge to start one.

Another example is the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. was a civil rights advocate that stressed non-violence as a means to gain civil, political and economic equality. His ability to use the mass movement is unparalleled by any other social reformist in American history. Capitalist feared him because he had the ability to amass all American oppressed citizens; black, white, Asian, Puerto Ricans, and Native Americans. This created a political ability to have mass numbers of people to boycott business establishments and consumer service centers, threatened the economic base of capitalism. He had the ability to flood a market or collapse it. His death was the lose of the black movement in America, but the joy of capitalism within American society.

As a result of each of these events, the black struggle was stifled. Lost and left to wonder in time, and submit ourselves to economic, social, and political exploitation. I feel that if another leader of the mass movement would arise today, his death would destroy America, capitalism and all else along with it. Blacks are tried of having their leaders killed and their dreams of equality killed with them. If this happened, I feel that there would be a national revolt not oly in the black community but also in the work place within social institutions such as schools, police departments, etc. There would be no limit to the turmoil that would be created from the death of another leader.

Racism is another obstacle that black nationalism has to overcome in order to become the savior of the oppressed masses within this nation. The racist oppressions of black, Chicanos, Puerto Ricans, Mexicans, Asians, and Native Americans, as nationalist, is rooted in the political economic and social structures of U.S. capitalism. The racist ideology flowing from concrete racists oppressions is so important to the ongoing struggle against capitalism and that the end to capitalism is necessary to deal the final lethal blow to racism.

Black nationalism is geared toward the struggle against racism. Racism is as old as America itself. One can call it an institution. In my opinion, racism is childish and idiotic. I see no reason to dislike someone because of the color of their skin or the native language they may speak. I feel that the dislike comes from the individuals inability to love.

If we as black people expect black nationalism to work for everyone, white people in this country must be willing to accept black leadership. Black leadership is needed to insure that black peoples' rights are protected. Racism still exists, but blacks need the right to protect themselves from the racists attacks bore upon them.

Supporters of Shorty

We, the undersigned, are supporters of Duane Gerald Davis (Shorty). We have known Shorty for some time, and have found him to be a successful and well respected member of the Baltimore, Maryland area community, as well as a successful, hard-working, and honest businessman.

We are requesting that all State and Local officials in and around the City of Zion, Illinois conduct a complete and impartial investigation of the death of Shorty's son, Gerrell Davis in December of 2006. We also request that all and any records regarding this investigation, and any other legal proceedings involving Shorty be made fully public under the "Freedom of Information" act.

We also are imploring any appropriate officials in the State of Maryland to assist Shorty in his effort to achieve complete justice in Illinois.

Reservist wins job bias case

Justices extend reach of U.S. discrimination laws

WASHINGTON — The Supreme Court on Tuesday extended the reach of the federal laws against job discrimination, ruling that employees are protected from illegal bias not just from a top decision maker, but from other supervisors as well.

The justices said the crucial issue is whether illegal bias was a "motivating factor" in the decision to fire an employee. Companies and public agencies are not shielded from liability, they said, simply because the supervisor who made the decision to fire a worker did so for valid reasons.

"An employer's authority to reward, punish or dismiss is often allocated among multiple agents," said Justice Antonin Scalia.

The decision restores a $57,640 jury verdict for Vincent Staub, an Army reservist fired as a medical technician at Proctor Hospital in Peoria, Ill. He contended two supervisors were biased because he was

They said he put a "strain on the department," and others had "to bend over backward to cover" for him.

The complaints reached the hospital's vice president for human resources. She looked into comments that Staub was "abrupt" with others and was sometimes missing from his work location. She decided to dismiss him.

Staub sued, relying on a law that forbids discrimination against employees because of their military duties. The U.S. 7th Circuit Court of Appeals in Chicago threw out the verdict. Then-U.S. Solicitor General Elena Kagan had urged the court to adopt the broader interpretation of the workplace discrimination laws. They did so 8-0, with Kagan not participating.

Also Tuesday, the justices heard arguments in a closely watched case involving child-abuse investigations at school, taking sharp exception to the notion that a search warrant or a parent's consent is required before a child can be questioned by a child care worker or a police officer.

Dear Gov O'Malley

I hope this letter reaches you. This is my 3rd attempt to be heard. You answered my 1st letter in Nov. of 2006. I was going to hold an auction to raise money to start a non-profit organization in Baltimore. Remember "GET SHORTY" I have a response letter from you encouraging my contribution to the community. I showed you various individuals of which I have worked for and help raise hundreds of thousands of dollar within the state of Maryland. John Hopkins ,Johnny Unitas, Pets on Wheels, Heart Feast, just to name a few. I also have a letter from David Irwin I know you know him. Also enclosed in this letter are copies of letters from various members of the Con. and Sen. from Maryland and Illinois. So please take this letter seriously this is an important issue to the people in the inner City of Baltimore and the Ghettos across this nation.

The issue of Equal Protection under the law and numerous other civil and constitutional right are routinely and constantly denied. Ask your fellow Gov. of Louisiana about the Jena 6 Project or the rape and torture of the Black woman in West Virginia. Our government is failing to protect its underclass and poor. Baltimore City has one of the Highest murder rates in America. This is Genocide right in our face and nobody is trying to stop it. The News Media only in flames the negative stereotype of the black male figure. Just look at the description Geraldo used to describe the O.J ordeal.

This letter is written for you to come to my defense. You can consider me the Dred Scott decision of 2007.I want to know if I am a Free Black Man in America. Maryland is the Free State and Illinois is the Slavery State. This is a true story and a Judicial and Legislative Littness test. We the people are not getting the benefits or protection of which or Constitution was created. WE the people, for the people, by the people. We people in the Ghetto have been excluded from these protections and equal justice. Always if not often guilty before the trial. And ear marked for the Dept of Correction. Where do we fit in? America is celebrating 400 years.

I am a tax paying citizen and a Pillar of my community. I deserve better treatment from my government. I pay over $30,000 a year in taxes,

Who will be the losers?

Some local and state politicians want to stop putting official notices in local newspapers and instead post them on their own websites. But what about the people who don't have Internet access, or just don't want to use the Internet? According to the U.S. Census Bureau:

Only 35% of Americans over the age of 65 use the Internet.

Only 42% of Hispanics use it.

Only 50% of African Americans use it.

If you don't use the Internet, how will you find out what the government is doing? Do politicians have something to hide from you?

Politicians like to talk about transparency, but some are proposing an idea that would make it harder for citizens to find out what government is doing. Public notices let you learn about important issues – such as a hearing on a road widening, a new trash transfer station or a new jail. If you want to keep legal notices in newspapers where they belong, contact the Maryland-

but the State of Illinois has taken my right to vote away from me for over 20 years. This is a violation of The Bill of Rights Taxation without representation. Since you are my Governor you are the man I need to resolve this issue. Between you and the Governor of Illinois this shouldn't be a problem for long. I am making a Documentary. You can ask Mr. Cardin. He has offered help, but declined to appear on my video. Now I am at your front door. If you choose to ignore me I plan on putting any future taxes in escrow until or unless the clarity of my social status is cleared up. Then I'm going to attempt to encourage all Americans not to pay their taxes and put it in escrow until the Government does right for its entire people. We have become a class cast type of society. We have lost our Democracy. I'm here to expose the system for what it has become. And remind you where we came from. Where do we fit in this CELEBRATION?

I hope to hear from you this is going to become very public your response is required but not needed. You inactions will only give validity to the obvious. Your actions on my behalf will show Democracy has a glimmer of hope. I am my brothers Keeper. Are you? Enclosed are people that believe in my struggle. They are the voters that back me. You know some of these people personally. They have contributed to you campaigned. So have I. Go to Shorty_9@yahoo.com. This is our story. The Ghetto needs to be heard. Shorty is here to say what needs to be said and do what needs to be done. Martin showed me how. Malcolm gave the inspiration. The Constitution gives me the RIGHT. I am asking you for my FREEDOM. ## Shorty's

This is not a Black Plan. This is an all inclusive racial movement. I am attempting to stir our social consciousness to the degree of creating positive actions in our communities and nation. The main focus of my program is to teach the young social, economic, political, medical and environmental responsibility. These tools can make them more prepared for life. Times have changed; our children are exposed to more of life than they deserve to see. In some cases they become life's victims. Someone needs to attempt to create a life bridge for their future.

This is my plan...and ours.

Social: Life skills through interaction with other cultures so they can realize that color is the only difference between the races. Racism is taught. It is not in your DNA. Religious and cultural interaction create young and fresh ideas. Children are our future. A stronger and more knowledgeable foundation needs to be created. Bring about better housing and education with safer neighborhoods.

Economic: Develop skills that are marketable. Use their talent to the fullest. Give our youth a taste of life with a real job internship through the government and private sectors. From apple pickers to zoo keeper and all in-between. A partnership with various working classes to lead them through the obstacles they have encounter along the way. Help them to develop financial intelligence. Have them create goals and then finish them.

Political: Create a mock government to mirror our own. This will enable them to better understand the process. Voter registration, shadowing various government officials from the city, state and US Congress/Senate when possible. Think of laws that affect their daily lives and set forth a process of change. Schools, penal systems, health care, etc. Put democracy to a test. Teach them organization.

Medical: Health Care. Some mental health counseling is needed for individuals dealing with inner city problems. Drugs, gangs, guns and death just to name a few. HIV awareness. Teenage pregnancy. Childcare services. Adult and child 24 hour care. We need the medical profession to donate time and services. Mentors are needed to encourage the youth to aspire to higher goals.

Environment: We need to start taking care of neighborhoods. Garage, waste, and pollution. Start awareness training to teach us the little things to help us make the big changes. Gain knowledge in Global Warming and the impact it will have in our lifetime. Not just our neighborhood, but also our ecosystem. Our food chain should be re-evaluated. Eating healthy and smart.

Members are Needed

Ages 6 to 106. We need total involvement. The elderly can teach the young and the young can teach the elderly. Your past helps you on your path to the future. Forget your past and you are destined to be lost.

For any organization to exist or function, money is needed for its creation and existence. Members are the foundation for its growth success. Suggested dues are as follows:

Children's Donation (by grade) per Month

1st - 3.00	7th - 9.00
2nd - 4.00	8th - 10.00
3rd - 5.00	9th - 11.00
4th - 6.00	10th - 12.00
5th - 7.00	11th - 13.00
6th - 8.00	12th - 14.00

Adult Donation per Month

18-21 / 20.00	39-42 / 45.00
22-25 / 25.00	43-46 / 50.00
26-29 / 30.00	47-50 / 55.00
30-33 / 35.00	51-54 / 60.00
34-38 / 40.00	55-64 / 65.00
65 and up / 25.00

The pledges are important. We need to have a monetary base. I would implore the federal, state, county and city levels of government to make matching funds available to support the programs needed to achieve the goals of SHORTY'S.

Also, we would tap into various foundations and companies that share our views, values and goals.

Education: Our goal is to make general and secondary education available to all. Involvement from the community and government is pivotal. Turn No Child Left Behind into a reality. Education is not just limited to the scholastic levels, but skilled trades and services.

We need to prepare our children to become adults - mentally, socially and physically. The value of the dollar has been distorted. Living for today has to be turned into thoughts of tomorrow.

Dreams are needed to replace the nightmares our children deal with on a daily basis.

O'Malley plays leading role as governors confer in D.C.

Md. Democrat heads up cybersecurity panel, party's talks with Obama

By Julie Bykowicz

THE BALTIMORE SUN

WASHINGTON — At a gathering of governors, Gov. Martin O'Malley led a panel Sunday on cybersecurity, calling attacks on state and federal databases "one of the nation's great emerging threats."

The Democratic governor is co-chairman of the National Governors Association's homeland security and public safety committee, sharing the role with Republican Arizona Gov. Jan Brewer.

As chairman of the Democratic Governors Association, O'Malley had a prominent role throughout the weekend-long National Governors Association meeting, which included sessions on Medicaid, the economy and education. O'Malley hosted a fundraiser Saturday night for the party's governor and led their Friday discussion with President Barack Obama.

At the cybersecurity panel, experts said states need to do more to protect the sensitive data they possess, including voter registration, driver's license and tax information. Three-quarters of the states have reported being some kind of security breach in recent years, said Will Pelgrin, chairman of the Multi-State Information Sharing and Analysis Center.

Brewer said state leaders have a responsibility to prevent "anyone who would fall into the hands of cyber-do us harm."

About a year ago, O'Malley announced the "CyberMaryland" initiative as a way to promote businesses, academic institutions and government agencies that are involved in information security. Maryland has 250,000 technology sector jobs, O'Malley said.

Governors typically use their national conference as a way to share strategies and work toward consensus on problems they all face. All governors were invited Sunday night to a black-tie dinner at the White House. O'Malley planned to attend with his wife, Katie O'Malley, the governor's spokeswoman.

Friction with labor unions and budget deficits made the usually nonpartisan gathering more partisan in tone. On Friday, O'Malley squared off with Texas Gov. Rick Perry over state spending issues at a debate hosted by the website Politico.

At a lively discussion Sunday about health care, Republican and Democratic governors alike lamented the spiraling costs of Medicaid and its impact on state budgets. But many of the Republicans in the room argued that states would be able to tackle their Medicaid-driven deficits only if Obama's federal health care reform is scrapped.

Wisconsin Gov. Scott Walker joined the group via a videotaped message and a conference call. The Republican governor was supposed to lead the panel, but fierce debate between his administration and public-sector unions over his plan to largely end collective bargaining kept him in his home state.

"Medicaid is a significant part of the budget deficit," Walker said, calling the health program for low-income people "unsustainable."

Many of the governors and policy analysts said a key to solving the crisis is to move away from a system that centered on payment for medical procedures and toward one that provides incentives for wellness care and disease prevention. O'Malley said Maryland has made some advances in that area.

Ten hospitals, he said, have voluntarily "stepped up" preventive care and share in the cost savings that come from fewer emergency medical procedures.

O'Malley said listening to stories about Texas' outsized budget crisis and Michigan's double-digit unemployment figures provide perspective on the challenges Maryland faces in the aftermath of the national recession.

"It's clear that we're coming through this in advance of many other states," O'Malley said in an interview. "There's nothing like coming to a meeting of the nation's governors to make you appreciate Maryland."

In a Facebook world, don't count on privacy

Dan Rodricks

The American Civil Liberties Union of Maryland brings us the matter of Robert Collins, a 29-year-old corrections officer who says he was required to give up his Facebook password when he re-applied for his job after a leave of absence. He also says an investigator checked out his Facebook page and, oh my, what an egregious invasion of privacy that was.

The ACLU complained to Maryland's secretary of public safety and told the press all about the Collins matter. Predictably, the public safety secretary, Gary Maynard, suspended the practice of asking job applicants for Facebook passwords and called for a review of the matter.

In an official statement, the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services denied that it demands social media information from applicants. "If an applicant does not provide this information, it is not held against them and the interview process moves forward," the statement said.

But in a letter to the ACLU, Mr. Maynard defended the practice as a means of rooting out the threat of gangs in state prisons.

That's a legitimate concern. Last summer, a prison guard was among 15 people indicted by a federal grand jury for either belonging to the violent Black Guerrilla Family or helping the gang smuggle drugs and cell phones into Maryland prisons. Maryland, with more than 21,000 inmates in 24 prisons and pre-release centers, must ensure that the people it hires meet high levels of trust and do not pose security risks. Background checks have been standard practice for a long time.

But, of course, with every new age and every advance of technology comes a new realm of personal activity. There are two relevant questions here: Where we draw the line between the employer's right to know and the prospective employee's right to privacy? And, can there really be guaranteed privacy in the cyberworld?

As any Facebooker who has tried to "friend" a stranger or old friend knows, you can't get in the door unless they want you there. So, unless Gary Maynard sent a "friend request" to everyone who applied for a job at the Division of Correction — and that requested was granted — neither the public safety secretary nor his investigators would be able to see an applicant's social network. That might explain why an investigator, having been instructed to check Facebook pages of job applicants, asked Mr. Collins for his password.

Less incendiary would have been a simple request by the investigator to be Mr. Collins' "friend" for 24 hours. At the end of that period, Mr. Collins could have just "defriended" the investigator. The investigator only would have seen what Mr. Collins' real Facebook friends see — and unless Mr. Collins' friends included members of BGF, he probably had nothing to worry about.

Howls! Jeers! As soon as I write that, I hear a half billion Facebook users screaming: "Employers have no business looking at our pages! Mark Zuckerberg is God, and the movie about him should have won more Oscars! Facebook has privacy settings for a reason, and this is one of them! We have every right to post ridiculous photographs on Facebook without worrying that they might show up in a folder at our next job interview!"

And, look, I agree with those sentiments (including about the movie). But I think they are unrealistic.

There seem to be two understandings of Facebook's place in the world:

Some users see it as a social utility that merely extends their area of their private lives, opening up digital territory for the storage of personal photographs, thoughts and narratives. Allowing a prospective employer into that space would be like inviting him into your bedroom closet or handing him a diary or journal.

Others see Facebook as a social utility that extends our lives into a public space. Sure, Mark Zuckerberg built privacy settings into it, but Facebook still seems to be a massive town square that millions use (including the revolutionaries in the Arab world). There's a presumption of privacy, but for all we know, it's just an illusion of privacy. You get what you pay for.

So, while I think it's too much to ask Robert Collins to give up his Facebook password — or even to "friend" an agent of the state for 24 hours — his Facebook page is fair game for anyone, including and especially a prospective employer with legitimate security concerns, who can find his way to it. Facebookers beware.

Drug firms to pay $421M in fraud cases

Price inflation at taxpayer expense was running joke, Justice Department says

By Andrew Zajac

TRIBUNE WASHINGTON BUREAU

Abbott Laboratories and two other pharmaceutical firms agreed to pay more than $21 million to settle claims of defrauding Medicare and Medicaid in the latest in a string of nine- and ten-figure health care fraud settlements announced by the Justice Department.

The drug companies charged one set of prices to doctors and pharmacies but reported another set of inflated figures that were used as benchmarks by government insurers reimbursing health providers.

The spread, or difference, amounted to kickbacks to the companies' customers, according to Assistant Attorney General Tony West.

The practice of inflating the benchmark, known as the average wholesale price, was so widespread, that its acronym, AWP, was said by industry insiders to mean "ain't what's paid," West said, adding that "the only purchasers who paid the inflated, reported drug price were you, the American taxpayers."

Since January 2009, health care settlements have accounted for more than $5

Abbott, of North Chicago, Ill., agreed to pay $126.5 million to settle accusations that it charged the government inflated prices. An Abbott spokesman said the company believes "that we have complied with all laws and regulations" and settled the case to avoid "the uncertainty associated with continued litigation."

Abbott also paid $614 million in 2003 to end a federal investigation of the company's marketing practices and Medicaid and Medicare reimbursements. In 2001, TAP Pharmaceutical Products, of Lake Forest, Ill., an Abbott joint venture, agreed to pay $875 million and plead guilty to a criminal charge of conspiring with doctors to overbill Medicare.

Tuesday's penalties, like several other recent large health care fraud settlements, arose from whistle-blower suits filed under the False Claims Act. The complaints were brought by Ven-A-Care of the Florida Keys, a Key West pharmacy that has won more than a dozen other whistle-blower suits, according to Taxpayers Against Fraud.

Successful whistle-blowers collect a share of the settlement, ranging from 15 to 25 percent. In the current set of cases, Ven-A-Care is in line to collect $88.4 million.

City schools to get CO detectors

All 200 schools will have the alarms within a month, officials promise

Baltimore will place carbon monoxide detectors in all of its approximately 200 schools over the next month after two potentially deadly exposures occurred at the same school, officials announced Wednesday.

The first 35 battery-powered detectors, which wholesale for $15 each, will be installed within a week at schools that have the same type of oven equipment identified as the source of Tuesday's exposure at Dickie Hill Elementary/Middle School.

"The safety of our children comes first," city schools spokeswoman Edie House-Foster said.

The plan materialized Wednesday in conversations among officials from the school system, the Mayor's Office of Emergency Management and the city fire marshal.

Mayor Stephanie Rawlings-Blake supports installing the detectors in schools, according to her spokesman, Ryan O'Doherty. Speaking Wednesday at the Board of Estimates, she expressed a desire for the school system to work with the Fire Department.

Everyone involved. Sheriff Fisher Judge Turnbull<sup>③</sup> and Mr Shallenberger are gonna have to tell the Jury our history. And how long they've known about my toilet art. # Baptist pastor alleges harassment by police

Claims he was detained twice within 15 minutes

By Peter Hermann

THE BALTIMORE SUN

He's known for leading the Trail of Tears walk — tours of recent killings — as part of his Gardner Community ministry in Bolton Hill and part of a push by Southern Baptist congregations into Baltimore. Joel Kurz's work take him to the city's most depressed, most dangerous, most drug-ridden neighborhoods. It also has drawn the attention of Baltimore police.

Officers don't quite know what to do with a 29-year-old white guy who keeps appearing on street corners, and he says they sometimes confuse his ministering with something more sinister — they accuse him of locking to buy drugs.

"I walk down Pennsylvania Avenue a lot," Kurz said, referring to the west-side street that has one of the city's most thriving drug trades. "I've been stopped and questioned, and rightly so. The officers have done it in very respectful ways. They explain why they stopped me, and that they're going to ask me questions. I think they should do that."

But then there's what happened last week.

On Feb. 15, Kurz said, he was stopped twice by two different groups of officers while in his car on Park Heights Avenue in Northwest Baltimore. Both times, he said, he was treated rudely and made to feel like a criminal.

His offense?

Kurz wasn't wearing a seat belt. "My biggest problem is that they treat you like a criminal before they've discovered anything," Kurz said. "They have no reason to believe that I did anything wrong." On the first stop, he said he was ordered from his car and told to sit on a curb while the officers searched his vehicle.

Kurz wrote about his experience on a blog titled "Thugs with Badges," and he complained to the Police Department's Internal Affairs Division. A police spokesman confirmed that an investigation is under way.

A Baltimore police spokesman declined to comment on the incidents involving Kurz because of the investigation.

On Feb. 15, Kurz said, he was picking up a ma'am as we put the handcuffs on." He referred the complaint to the Northwest District station, where the officers are based, and gave the pastor the number for Internal Affairs.

The pastor is part of a new wave of church startups designed to turn around a decline in membership, expanding from the rural South into urban areas in the Northeast, helping out at soup kitchens and holding services, according to an article published two years ago in The Baltimore Sun.

Members held the first Trail of Tears march in May 2009, visiting the sites of five killings. Kurz said they do one such walk once every six months. At each site, they place a rose and say a prayer.

Kurz placed this addendum on his blog: "I have been extremely pleased and encouraged thus far with the department's seemingly effective response."

The governors' speeches: rising to the challenge (in other states)

Marta H.
Mossburg

Myth may be the "kudzu of history," as Stacy Schiff writes in her 2010 biography, "Cleopatra: A Life." But truth matters — and the words that express it.

Actor Colin Firth just won an Oscar for portraying King George VI in "The King's Speech," a man who overcame a debilitating stutter to fulfill his duty to country during war.

Martin Luther King Jr.'s April 16, 1963, "Letter from a Birmingham Jail" passionately argued for equal justice under the law in simple, exact prose, igniting the civil rights movement and inspiring generations to create a more inclusive "City on a Hill."

"Mr. Gorbachev, open this gate! Mr. Gorbachev, tear down this wall!" will always echo in my mind when I think of President Ronald Reagan. Those living in Berlin on June 12, 1987, when he delivered that speech at the Brandenburg Gate, will not forget it. Two years later, the Berlin Wall opened, and it was destroyed altogether in 1990 with the collapse of communism.

To read and to listen to the words cited above is to be transported to a higher vision of self, state and country. They were conceived at moments not dissimilar to one we share now, plagued by great turmoil at home and abroad.

Great leaders arise, Phoenix-like, from the ashes in these times. Winston Churchill spent eight years in the wilderness before being called to lead England during World War II. Harriet Tubman, who was born a slave in Dorchester County in 1822 (and whose statue may soon grace the U.S. Capitol), risked her life in Civil War times to bring dozens of captives to freedom through the Underground Railroad, later leading the civil rights and women's suffrage movements.

Republicans hope for a president to appear in the clashes pitting public labor unions, taxpayers who fund their wages, benefits and political campaigns, and financial reali-

Section: Request To:  Dental

At the very least, they are getting rousing, visionary speeches, often delivered with verve. New Jersey Gov. Chris Christie verbally boxes with residents of his state, recording his rounds on YouTube. As he told one reporter, "Nobody in New Jersey is going to have to wonder where I am on an issue." Harley-riding Indiana Gov. Mitch Daniels recently delivered a speech at the Conservative Political Action Conference that commentator George Will described as an "elegant presentation of conservatism for grown-ups."

I liked this line the best: "Our main task is not to see that people of great wealth add to it but that those without much money have a greater chance to earn some."

Wisconsin Gov. Scott Walker talks to that state's residents as if he were lost in the woods, surrounded by members of his former Boy Scout troop. His words are plain and his tone optimistic, despite the circumstances. In his state of the state speech, he said, "During the present downturn, Wisconsin's proud tradition of responsible budgeting gave way to repeated raids on segregated funds, excessive borrowing for operations and an addiction to one-time federal dollars. These are no longer options, and their use has only delayed and worsened the difficult decisions we must now make. ... Each time it looked like we might falter and lose our way, we turned our back to our Constitution's call for frugality and moderation and marched forward."

His use of the word "forward" is probably the only common thread he shares with Gov. Martin O'Malley, whose greatness will be limited by his happy surrender of Maryland to the federal government. To return to "Cleopatra: A Life," Mr. O'Malley is one of the many forgettable client kings of Rome.

It shows in his speeches, which lobotomize instead of inspire. They are filled with vague calls to create "One Maryland" and rely on meaningless words and phrases, including "progress," "right choices" and "spurring innovation." In his state of the state speech this year, he told Marylanders, "The best option for our most important priorities is to defend them by level-funding them."

Really? It's deflating to copy those words. They reflect a man caught in the mire of politics, not one rising to history's prerogatives.

Worse, they help to delay making choices to resolve Maryland's ongoing budget deficit and obscure the logical outcome of his policies: chronically higher taxes. Ultimately, they will put Maryland on the sidelines of history as Messrs. Christie, Daniels and Walker rewrite it.

Baltimore man held in toilet caper

near Towson courthouse

By Nick Madigan

A man with a history of railing at political figures of all ideological stripes has been charged with leaving a fake "destructive device" — a toilet equipped with electric gadgets that police feared was a bomb — outside a former courthouse in Towson.

Duane G. Davis, 51, was being held without bail at the Baltimore County Detention Center. He is to appear in court March 4.

The discovery of the toilet Monday morning outside the stone building that houses County Council chambers and administrative offices prompted a shutdown of streets and response by a bomb squad. The device was found to be harmless.

Davis' Facebook and MySpace pages bear denunciations of political figures he sees as corrupt, and he seems to view his encounters with law enforcement as emblematic of overbearing, racist societies. "This is America and we suffer the same oppression as the People of Egypt," he wrote Sunday on his Facebook page.

His alleged targeting of the county building might have been a response to an order by County Sheriff R. Jay Fisher to have him escorted out of the courthouse on Bosley Avenue, a block west of the building where the toilet was found. Davis called the order "a blatant violation of the 1964 Civil Rights Act."

In a Facebook posting on April 18, Davis wrote that he had sent "videos and countless letters" to Baltimore County Circuit Judge John G. Turnbull II, who acts as the court's administrative judge, asking for an "opiate." "His reply to my request was denial of access to the Baltimore County Courthouse," Davis wrote.

Duane G. Davis

A probable-cause affidavit filed Monday after his arrest says photos of Davis were attached to the toilet with his address in the 1400 block of Lochner Road in Northeast Baltimore. One note called on officials in Illinois to investigate the death of Davis' son, Gerrell, as he broke into a house there in 2006.

Davis was charged with two counts under state laws tailored to address items that might be bombs or could appear to be toxic or dangerous. The first accuses Davis of making a false statement about a destructive device, meaning that the act of leaving the toilet gave the false impression of creating a dangerous situation. The second count refers to the toilet and its gadgets, under a law that forbids the placement of any item "construed to represent a destructive device with the intent to terrorize, frighten, intimidate, threaten or harass."

In a Facebook posting Monday before his arrest, he wrote that in the American judicial system, "blacks have no rights" and that the United States is "a nation of cowards, liars and thieves." In another, Davis — who describes himself as a youth advocate and community activist in Randallstown — claims to want to give up his citizenship. He appears to invite offers for film and book deals: "I name names and dare America to give me a public trial with all my witnesses. Movie, book and a trial."

On his MySpace page, Davis, who calls himself Shorty, described his heroes as Jesus Christ, the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., Malcolm X and Marcus Garvey. He acknowledged using toilets as political statements on previous occasions, and one remained Tuesday outside the city Board of Education headquarters on North Avenue.

"Jesus had a cross," Davis wrote in a posting. "Martin had a dream. Malcolm had a gun. Shorty got a toilet, but we all have our things to deal with."

In Egypt, treading the path of civil rights

By David A. Super

These opportunities come once in a generation, social movements whose cause is so manifestly just, and whose potential is so transformative, that they rise above the clutter of ordinary politics. The civil rights movement led by Martin Luther King, Cesar Chavez and others inspired a generation as it overcame Klansmen, brutal sheriffs and growers' thugs. Two decades later, we watched in awe as the brave people of Eastern Europe brought down one repressive communist dictatorship after another. Over the past three weeks, millions of Egyptians matched the bravery of these visionaries.

These movements have a palpable continuity. The civil rights movement refuted Soviet propaganda that free societies are incapable of social justice. Likewise, the people of Tunisia, Egypt and other Middle Eastern countries find inspiration in the popular revolutions that brought down communism. But they are also heirs of King and Chavez. As ubiquitous as the slogans against the regime have been calls of "Peaceful!" and calls for giving voice to the poor and unemployed.

The contrast between Egyptians' jubilation over President Hosni Mubarak's departure and the trepidations expressed in the U.S. and elsewhere is disappointing. Some seem eager to see the military preserve the oppressive regime that former generals Mubarak and Vice President Omar Suleiman led. This would be tragic. Parallels from the civil rights movement and Eastern Europe's liberation suggest these fears are unfounded.

Opponents of each movement similarly dismissed them with prejudice posing as sophistication. Supposed sober heads painted African-Americans and farmworkers as cheerful simpletons content in their exploitation, rising up only because of nefarious "outside agitators." These same kinds of assumptions led some to see farmworkers as puppets of "activist priests" and others to question whether Eastern Europeans were capable of maintaining stable democracies.

Today, we hear eerily similar warnings about Arabs' supposed need for an iron fist to stave off chaos. And today's experts insist that the overwhelmingly secular democracy movement is a mere tool of Egypt's 20 percent Islamist minority. No one would stand to lose more in an Islamist tyranny than Egypt's Coptic Christians, yet they have joined in the uprising. Seeing Christians form a protective human chain around Muslim clerics at Friday prayers in Tahrir Square had to inspire anyone who remembers the Freedom Riders and the Protestants and Jews who stood with largely Catholic farmworkers' thugs.

Kenilworth

Prob

ers against growth

Just as the Polish resistance sought safety in the shadow of Catholic churches, Egypt's Muslim Brotherhood has maintained networks through mosques while the regime's dreaded Mukhabarat arrested, tortured and killed secular activists operating elsewhere. Poland is probably as devoutly Catholic as Egypt is Muslim, yet after the dictatorship fell, the church became influential but by no means dominant in Polish politics. The best way to put Egypt on a course to Islamic domination would be to leave the regime in place long enough to round up and eliminate the secular opposition.

Dental

dures will have a $4.00 charge will be l staff member on a d

Some crassly opposed the farmworkers because higher wages might increase food prices. So, too, some would sacrifice Egyptians to a brutal dictatorship to protect Israel. This view is as foolish as it is craven. To distract Egyptians from corruption, economic mismanagement and repression, the regime has vilified Jews (and Americans). The Egyptian state sharply restricts freedom of the press but happily publishes "The Protocols of the Elders of Zion," the notorious fraud that has spawned generations of anti-Jewish violence. We cannot promote Israel's long-term security by supporting a regime that incites violence against foreign journalists by suggesting they are Jewish spies.

Growers hired thugs to assault peaceful farmworkers and then sought injunctions against picketing to "restore order." Similarly, the Egyptian regime that claims it is indispensable to maintaining order withdrew the police from neighborhoods and sent them to brutalize peaceful protesters, freed masses of common criminals while arresting journalists, and sponsored mobs throwing firebombs near the Egyptian Museum's priceless antiquities. It converted that museum into a Mukhabarat torture center.

Recent history is instructive. President George H.W. Bush urged Iraqi Shiites to rise up for freedom and then stood by as Saddam Hussein slaughtered them. President Bill Clinton ignored pleas from pro-Western Bosnian democrats until massive ethnic cleansing had discredited them. President George W. Bush launched a Middle Eastern "freedom agenda," then abandoned the activists who came forward in response. President Barack Obama's bold 2009 address at Cairo University inspired many of Tahrir Square's demonstrators.

Redeeming that speech's promise, and restoring our credibility with the most important freedom movement of our time, requires unusually public and direct action. The administration must speak with a new clarity in insisting on a broad-based transitional government and dismantlement of the emergency laws that gave the secret police free reign. Doing any less would squander our moral capital, vindicate our most cynical detractors and discredit our civil rights movement's worthy successors. It would waste a rare, remarkable opportunity to advance our interests and our values at once.

Court: Victim's statement OK

Scalia criticizes ruling on 'hearsay' comments

WASHINGTON — The Supreme Court ruled Monday that a shooting victim's statement to police at a crime scene can be used in court, even if the victim later dies and cannot testify at a trial.

The 6-2 decision retreats somewhat from recent rulings by the high court that held that the Constitution strictly forbids prosecutors from using "hearsay" statements to the police unless the witness testifies. The Sixth Amendment says an accused person has a right to be "confronted with the witnesses against him."

Justice Antonin Scalia has been the court's foremost champion of the view that this right to confront accusers should be strictly followed.

With Scalia in dissent, the justices announced a different rule for cases in which police deal with "an ongoing emergency." If officers arrive at a crime scene, they can ask a victim or witnesses about what happened and later testify in court as to what was said, the court said.

Justice Sonia Sotomayor said there is a difference between dealing with an emergency and investigating a crime. If the officers are investigating an earlier crime and ask questions of witnesses, those statements cannot be used unless the witness testifies.

The case began when Detroit police responded to a call that a man had been shot in the parking lot of a gas station. The victim, Anthony Covington, said he had been shot by "Rick." Covington was taken to a hospital and later died.

Police also found blood on the back porch of Richard Bryant's home. An officer testified that the victim identified "Rick," and Bryant was convicted of murder. But the Michigan Supreme Court overturned Bryant's conviction.

The Supreme Court reversed that decision in Michigan v. Bryant and said the victim's statement could be used.

In a high-voltage dissent, Scalia said the decision "distorts" the Constitution and "leaves it in shambles."

Foot patrolmen in Southeastern District being sent to Northeast

Shift in the force

To compensate for the arrest and suspension of officers in the Northeast District, officers from a special unit in the Southeast District were reassigned, sparking fears in the Southeast that a diminished police presence will mean an increase in crime.

Towing scheme had hidden cost in higher fees and premiums

By Peter Hermann
THE BALTIMORE SUN

The alleged extortion scheme outlined by federal prosecutors this week seemed to benefit both auto accident victims, who avoided paying towing fees and insurance deductibles, and Baltimore police officers, who got kickbacks for making referrals to a car repair shop.

But insurance industry representatives warn that the money accident victims saved on the front end of this arrangement will be made up later with higher premiums. Inflated towing and storage fees are the second-most common type of fraudulent claim, according to the National Insurance Crime Bureau.

Insurance companies are "going to recapture their money from somewhere," said Frank Scafidi, a spokesman for the bureau, which conducts investigations for 1,100 insurance firms. He said the companies will recoup their losses "in the form of higher premiums. See SCHEME, page 8

To compensate for the arrest or suspension of more than two dozen officers in an alleged towing company scam, Baltimore police will pull uniformed officers away from an initiative that contributed to a profound reduction in violent crime in the Southeastern District.

A team of mostly rookies hired with federal stimulus funds last year, which had been used for foot patrols in areas including downtown and a high-crime corridor in the Southeast, will be reassigned to squad cars in the Northeast, where a large number of the implicated city police officers worked.

Residents of the Southeast say they fear an uptick in violence because of the move, but police officials said the scope of the alleged fraud has left them little choice.

"The last thing the commissioner wanted to do was get rid of foot patrols. Part of improving our customer service rating is getting cops out of cars," said Anthony Guglielmi, the department's chief spokesman. "But we're not going to tolerate corruption. If it means we can't have a special unit to do foot posts temporarily, so be it."

The Northeast District was already struggling. See REASSIGNMENTS, page 10

Our view: The scandal involving police and a towing company is a blot on the integrity of the force; Bealefeld will need to work hard to restore public trust

In the confusing moments after an accident that disables your car, you're likely to welcome a police officer's offer of help. The last thing on your mind is that he or she is breaking the law.

On Wednesday, it became apparent that some Baltimore police officers have been secretly enriching themselves and the tow companies that paid them under the table for years — until this week, when city Police Commissioner Frederick H. Bealefeld III and Maryland U.S. Attorney Rod J. Rosenstein announced the arrest of 17 officers charged with taking kickbacks from a towing company that was not authorized to do business with the city. The arrests exposed an elaborate extortion scheme in which Majestic Auto Repair of Rosedale paid officers up to $300 for every vehicle they steered to the company.

The most disturbing thing about the indictments is the scope and brazenness of the ~~alleged~~ <sup>amicable</sup> conduct they revealed. So far, at least 30 officers have either been indicted or suspended as a result of a two-year investigation by the Baltimore City Police Department, the U.S. Attorney's Office and the FBI that began in 2009. If so many officers are suspected of directly ~~knowing~~ <sup>knowing</sup> in on unsuspecting motorists, how many others in the department must have known what was going on and chose to ignore it rather than blow the whistle on their colleagues?

Commissioner Bealefeld and Mayor Stephanie Rawlings-Blake were right to denounce the conspirators' alleged wrongdoing as a blot on the integrity of the entire force. The public can't be expected to trust the police to uphold the law when the department's own members violate it so flagrantly. If an unscrupulous tow truck company can bribe officers to illegally send business its way, what else are officers willing to do for the right price? The corruption breeds contempt for the vast majority of officers who work hard and do their jobs honestly.

Unfortunately, scandals involving previous tow company operators and city police officers are nothing new in Baltimore. Allegations of bribery and kickbacks aimed at prying exorbitant sums out of luckless motorists have dogged the city for decades. (Though it's not yet clear in this case whether the motorists came out financially worse for the wear.) Each time, calls for tightening supervisory and internal-security procedures at the police department to prevent such episodes from recurring went unheeded. And despite repeated changes in the law over the years regarding how the towing business is regulated, the problem has stubbornly persisted.

Mr. Bealefeld is to be commended for thinking hard about how to use this week's arrests to send an unmistakable message that no officer is above the law and that the kind of official malfeasance his officers are accused of will not be tolerated.

KENNETH K. LAM/BALTIMORE SUN

Police Commissioner Frederick H. Bealefeld III (right) needs to make an example of the four officers.

But he cannot let the matter end there. The wiretapped conversations between the officers — who called themselves the “untouchables group” — and Majestic Auto Repair owner Hernan Alexís Moreno Mejía showed them to be much more interested in lining their pockets than stopping crime. The FBI intercepted a series of text messages between Mr. Mejía and one of the officers, Jhonn S. Corona, as he was at the scene of a shooting and possible homicide. It’s damaging enough to the department for people to wonder whether officers supposedly helping them at the scene of an accident are really working to enrich themselves. It’s even worse if personal enrichment comes ahead of investigating crime.

Mr. Bealefeld's active cooperation in the federal case so far — it actually started as a departmental investigation — suggests that he will help in any way he can to assist in the prosecutions. Sending policemen who break the law to jail will send a powerful message. But in the meantime, Mr. Bealefeld needs to continue to make an example of these officers to the rest of the department so they — and the city as a whole — know that police officers' job is to serve the public, not themselves.

We can't handle the truth

The problem with WikiLeaks is that unvarnished honesty can sometimes be dangerous

By Matthew O'shan

When I was a young man, I loved Moliere's "The Misanthrope."

Alceste, the hero (or rather, comic antihero) of the play, fed up with the artifice and false manners of 17th century Paris, resolves to tell everyone exactly what he thinks, whether or not the truth-telling serves his own interests.

Which, of course, it never does, the lesson being that for people to get along—and for society to function—one can't simply blurt out what one thinks without regard for the consequences.

This is true in all relationships, even the most intimate. We may count on our spouses to level with us when no one else will, but a certain amount of discretion is required to keep even happily married people from killing each other. "Honey, does this make me look fat?" is a question that no one really wants answered.

"The Misanthrope" is a young man's play. In the eyes of an adolescent, Alceste's rejection of the falsehood of the world—its "phoniness," as Holden Caulfield would call it three centuries later in "Catcher in the Rye" — is heroic, a refusal to buy into the hypocrisies of grown-up behavior. After all, these hypocrisies, which become second nature to us as we age, are coping strategies for dealing with fundamental imbalances of power.

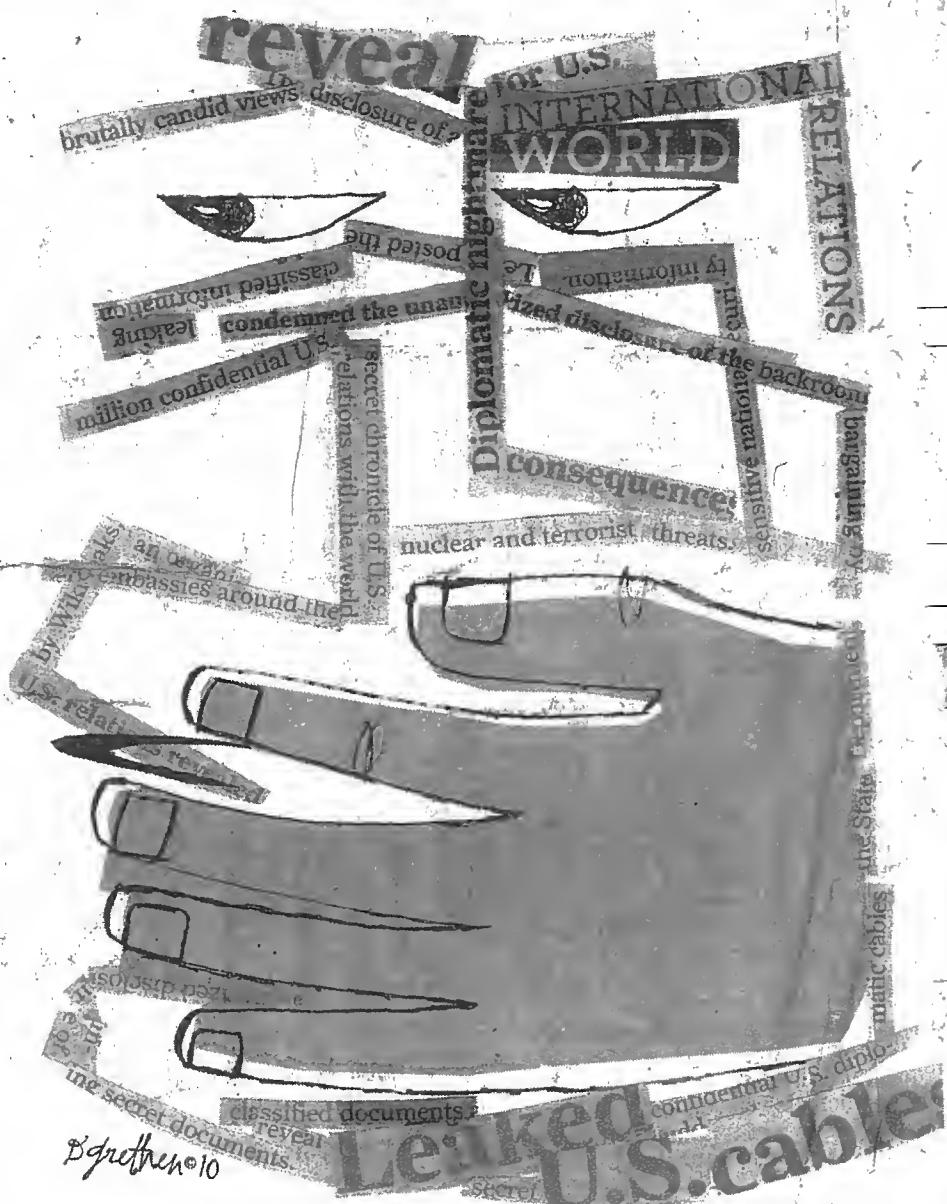

Young people don't like to concede that the world is badly made. With the limitless energy of youth, they see imbalances and injustices as correctable.

Problem is, it just doesn't make sense to tell the boss he's being an idiot, any more than it does to answer "yes" to the fat question. And yet, bosses need to know when they're being foolish, and husbands need to know when their weight is unhealthy.

The answer to this seemingly intractable tug-of-war between untellable truth and need for honesty has been with us for millennia: diplomacy, the art of handling matters without arousing undue hostility. As an adult, I see the wisdom of diplomacy, but as a young man, I preferred to deliver doses of unburnished truth. Truth, like whiskey, was best served neat. The burning sensation that often followed was just the good stuff starting to do its work.

There's a great case to be made for truth-telling, particularly in a democracy, where citizens require the truth in order to act justly. But there are times when the unvarnished truth is ill-advised, harmful, even dangerous. Reporting the location of troops in wartime, for instance. Or exposing the "sausage-making" behind the scenes of international diplomacy.

I've been greatly troubled by the innovation represented by WikiLeaks, the organization that recently released hundreds of thousands of privileged diplomatic communiqués and documents relating to the Iraq and Afghanistan wars — and before that, the shattering video shot ing two employees of Reuters.

WikiLeaks presents itself as a latter-day champion of the free press, the idea being that the world needs a secure venue for truth-tellers and whistle-blowers because traditional media have become as corrupt as the governments and institutions they're supposed to be reporting on.

True, corporate ownership and the entertainment-driven dumbing-down of many traditional news venues have blunted — and, in some cases, even neutered — the media. Where will we get the truth, then, if not from the bloggers and leakers?

then, if not from the bloggers and leakers. But WikiLeaks is not constrained by traditional editorial rules. Its founder, Julian Paul Assange, seems to have a deeper agenda than merely holding up a mirror of truth to society. There's a strong element of mischief in the man's background, as is anti-authority streak is deep. His world-view seems to be shaped by a disgust of governments and institutions, per se, not just bad governments and institutions.

Truth, in the form of mountains of unmediated, sensitive information, is his prescription for what ails the world. But Mr. Assange has been known to massage his sources just as carefully as any producer from the world of "traditional" media (for instance, the video from the Apache helicopter, which was carefully edited for maximum emotional impact).

There's a place for whistle-blowing. But there's also a place for diplomacy — private diplomacy. Robbing the world of this precious tool may be a victory for truth-tellers, but it's a step backward for the nations of man.

Letter outlined man's plans to kill

Cleaven Williams testifies about missive before trial begins today in his wife's death

By Tricia Bishop

THE BALTIMORE SUN

Four days before Cleaven L. Williams Jr. stabbed his wife seven times on a Baltimore street, he wrote a letter outlining plans to kill her, according to testimony he gave in court Monday.

"I figured that I had a [sexually transmitted disease] and I contracted it from my wife," Williams said, explaining that he wrote the undelivered letter because he was upset. "I write a lot, that's my vent."

The admission was made during a hearing held Monday afternoon on whether the letter — found by police in the car he shared with his wife — could be entered into evidence at his trial, which is scheduled to begin with opening statements today. A jury was selected Monday.

Baltimore Circuit Judge Timothy J. Doory will rule on the motion to suppress the letter this morning.

Williams is charged with murder in the death of his wife, Veronica Williams, who received a restraining order against him moments before he attacked her in front of several witnesses on North Avenue on Nov. 17, 2008. She died three days later.

He has claimed in court papers that he's not criminally responsible — Maryland's equivalent of the insanity plea — and suggested Monday that it was a spur-of-the-moment act he can't remember. But the note, in which he talks about killing his wife and describes how he wants their three children raised, could show prior intent, making it key to the state's case.

Prosecutor Kevin Wiggins called it a "confession," a "last will and testament" akin to O.J. Simpson's "If I Did It," the book that hypothetically described his own wife's killing, leading defense attorney Melissa Phinn, to object.

She claims the letter was illegally obtained without a warrant, leaving it up to the state to prove otherwise.

Wiggins put three officers on the witness stand Monday — including the officer who disarmed Williams by shooting him twice that November day — along with one of the victim's cousins, who had helped Veronica Williams leave her husband two weeks before she was killed.

Carlin Robinson testified that her cousin, Veronica Williams, was afraid to go inside her own home, and left Cleaven Williams on Nov. 2. She and her children lived with Robinson for two weeks, before Veronica Williams went to Baltimore to appear before a judge who granted the protective order.

While she was inside, Cleaven Williams had spotted their car, unlocked the door and got inside, he said.

"I figured she was in the courthouse," Williams said, adding that he wanted to talk to his wife.

According to court records, he jumped her. It was about 3 p.m. and Baltimore police Officer Joshua Laycock was just getting off work when he happened on the scene, the officer testified Monday.

"I saw what appeared to be a man on top of someone else, struggling," Laycock said. He said he realized "It was a man who was stabbing a woman repeatedly."

Laycock shot Cleaven Williams with his Taser, then he shot him with his gun, twice, he said, adding that Williams begged to die. "He said, 'Kill me, kill me.'"

On the stand, Williams said he wasn't suicidal and that he hadn't planned to kill Veronica Williams that day, despite the letter left in the car he was driving. He said he wrote the note Nov. 18, when he believed his wife was cheating on him. He was about to call a health clinic to find out whether he had contracted a sexually transmitted disease — which he hadn't — and said he wrote the note as a form of therapy.

He also acknowledged that he was the attacker, however, saying that when he came to, he saw that they were "both lying in the street. ... I realized that I stabbed her."

Former P.G. executive faces new U.S. charges

Prosecutors say Johnson took more than $200,000 in bribes in a wide-ranging corruption conspiracy

By Maria Glod
and Ovetta Wiggins
THE WASHINGTON POST

Former Prince George's County Executive Jack B. Johnson accepted more than $200,000 in bribes and played a central role in a broad corruption conspiracy that involved other county officials, candidates for public office and at least three developers or business leaders, federal officials alleged in new charges filed Monday.

A 31-page indictment filed in U.S. District Court in Greenbelt for the first time charges Johnson with soliciting and accepting bribes. It comes three months after Johnson and his wife, Leslie Johnson, were arrested at their home after they allegedly conspired to hide $79,600 in cash in Leslie Johnson's bra and flush a $100,000 check from a developer down the toilet.

Monday's indictment outlines in detail the scope of the government's corruption probe in Prince George's and alleges how much money Johnson got from developers and what he did in return.

The indictment alleges that the conspiracy lasted from 2003 until November, almost through the entirety of Johnson's eight years in office.

It describes a pay-to-play atmosphere in Prince George's during Johnson's tenure and quotes the former county executive in wiretaps talking about shaking down developers seeking federal housing money, and demanding donations for his wife's campaign for County Council.

Jack Johnson, 61, said Monday in a written statement that "the time to talk is in court and not in the press."

His attorney, Billy Martin, said the indictment "seriously mischaracterizes" Johnson's tenure.

Johnson is the sole person charged in the indictment, but several other public officials and business people are described as co-conspirators. One of them is liquor store owner Amrik Melhi, who in November was charged in a scheme to distribute black-market alcohol and cigarettes.

Late last year, two Prince George's police officers and several others were indicted in the alcohol and cigarette scheme.

In addition, the indictment alleges that Johnson conspired with two unnamed developers and an unnamed candidate for public office.

Johnson, the county's former top prosecutor, is accused of rewarding those who bribed him by steering millions of dollars in federal grant money, influencing the business permitting process and using his authority to get people jobs.

Leslie Johnson, who is awaiting a preliminary hearing set for March on charges of witness tampering and destruction of evidence, has maintained her County Council seat but has been stripped of some responsibilities.

GRANTSVILLE — Bryant Bunch, who came from Prince George's County to attend college here at the far end of the Maryland panhandle, first saw the sign on Interstate 68 while traveling with a carload of friends a few years back.

He remembers their reaction: Does that say what we think it says?

Maxine Broadwater, born and raised on a farm outside Grantsville, and the town's librarian for three decades, recalls the first time she ever gave the name a second thought. It was the early 1990s, and people passing through had stopped at her library to ask about it.

Her thought: Why would that bother anybody?

Those disparate reactions to "Negro Mountain," the name that 18th-century settlers gave to the Garrett County landmark, have found their echo in Annapolis, where a Senate panel will begin debate this week on whether it should be changed.

Several Baltimore lawmakers are pushing to retire "Negro Mountain" as an outdated relic of a less sensitive time. Legislators from Western Maryland, who say the name honors an early African-American hero, want it left alone. A Senate hearing is scheduled for Tuesday.

The debate highlights a divide between rural and urban lawmakers that frequently rears up in the 188-member General Assembly.

"How about they take care of Baltimore's crime and drugs, and leave the mountains to us," said Del. Kevin Kelly, an Allegany County Democrat. He says to rename the mountain would be to rewrite history.

Historians believe Negro Mountain, which crosses the border into Pennsylvania, was named in the 1750s in honor of a black frontiersman who died in the French and Indian War while defending white settlers in a fight with Native Ameri- See MOUNTAIN, page 13

Charter school students form picket line to oppose demolition of building

By Edward Guntz
THE BALTIMORE SUN

Khalil Reid, an African-American student at City Neighbors Charter School, said he has never been denied service at a restaurant because of the color of his skin. He hasn't been turned away at a department store or movie theater either.

But he didn't like finding out that was the case for others years ago.

On Saturday, the sixth-grader was one of 40 City Neighbors students who formed a picket line at the former Read's drug store at Howard and Lexington streets in Baltimore, where African-Americans were denied lunch counter service in the 1950s.

A developer wants to tear down the store to make way for a $150 million development called Lexington Square. Reid and his schoolmates were marching to show support for preservationists and civil rights leaders who are trying to save the building as a landmark in American civil rights history. They want it to be a monument to the people who fought against discrimination by holding a peaceful sit-in there in January 1955, five years before the more-famous lunch counter sit-in in Greensboro, N.C.

"There was a time when we were at able to sit at the lunch counter," Reid said. "I'm here to respect our past, so people won't forget it."

The students were joined by Helena Hicks, 76, one of the college students who took part in the 1955 Read's sit-in, representatives from Morgan State University, the institution Hicks attended; and members of Baltimore Heritage, a preservation advocacy group.

The picket line was the idea of Peter French, a City Neighbors social studies teacher for grades six, seven and eight. For the current trimester, French wanted to teach students about civil disobedience in the Jim Crow era, especially in Baltimore.

After reading newspaper articles about the 1955 sit-in to life so future generations can understand what the Morgan students went through.

"That's what is so good about this," she said. "This may have been a bad experience for me years ago, but it can turn into some thing good if we don't let the story die.

Things will only get better if we make them better."

He thought that teaching students about the building's history and visiting the site would be a perfect way to localize the civil rights issue for them. "We decided to follow in the footsteps of Dr. Hicks, who made our life better," he said. "That's why we're here today."

Besides the picketing effort, which was treated as a voluntary field trip, the students are role-playing to imagine what it was like to be a Morgan student during a sit-in and interviewing people who have taken part in civil rights demonstrations.

"It was a good event and the kids loved it," French said after the protest. Besides, "I don't like being in the classroom."

Watching the students outside Read's Hicks said their picketing has helped bring the 1955 sit-in to life so future generations can understand what the Morgan students went through.

"That's what is so good about this," she said. "This may have been a bad experience for me years ago, but it can turn into some

Who will be the losers?

Some local and state politicians want to stop putting official notices in local newspapers and instead post them on their own websites. But what about the people who don't have Internet access, or just don't want to use the Internet? According to the U.S. Census Bureau:

Only 35% of Americans over the age of 65 use the Internet.

Only 42% of Hispanics use it.

Only 50% of African Americans use it.

If you don't use the Internet, how will you find out what the government is doing? Do politicians have something to hide from you?

Politicians like to talk about transparency, but some are proposing an idea that would make it harder for citizens to find out what government is doing. Public notices let you learn about important issues – such as a hearing on a road widening, a new trash transfer station or a new jail. If you want to keep legal notices in newspapers where they belong, contact the Maryland

Delaware-D.C. Press Association at citizen@mddcpress.com, or call 410-721-4000 ext 12 and leave a message.

The Anne Arundel County NAACP held a show of support Tuesday afternoon for Carl O. Snowden, the head of the state attorney general's civil rights office. The event came on the heels of Snowden's appeal of a drunken-driving conviction.

Several community leaders, including elected officials and the president of the state NAACP, spoke so effusively about him that Snowden, 57, reminded those in attendance that it was "not a eulogy."

His work in the county has included helping to elect black residents to public office, working to pass legislation barring private clubs in the city from discriminating in membership and leading the current drive for what was said to be the first memorial to Coretta Scott King in the state, a memorial garden at Sojourner-Douglass College in Edgewater.

The speakers recalled times Snowden befriended them and organized the black community's civil rights efforts in Annapolis and the county.

"Now, as fate would have it, he needs all the friends he can get his hands on," said George Phelps, 84, who was the first black law enforcement officer in the county.

Reasons offered for the event, attended by about three dozen people, ranged from missing the opportunity to thank Snowden when he was honored at the recent Martin Luther King tribute to wanting to tell the public that he remains a sought-after community leader. His drunken-driving conviction was obliquely mentioned, though afterward some criticized its high-profile nature and outcome.

In November, Snowden was granted probation before judgment for driving while impaired — but it was the second time in less than eight years and was granted after a 2009 change in state law prohibited such a disposition. The Anne Arundel County circuit judge and the prosecutor said they were unaware of the change in the law. On Friday, the judge said that sentence was illegal and found Snowden guilty.

The sentence, three years' probation and a $250 fine, is the same as under the PBJ. Snowden asked that the sentence not be imposed until an appellate ruling.

item, conducted an examination, and disassembled it. This examination revealed the electrical / electronic device to be an older model portable television and that no explosive or other hazards were present. The fashion in which the item was constructed to represent a destructive device, as it contained the cell phone as well as the older model portable television, it was evident that it intended to terrorize or frighten the citizens of Baltimore County.

landbags or in the car. And about half of us have multiple bottles available, just in case. All that pill popping certainly affects our health — and not always for the better. Used correctly, over-the-counter analgesics can help with acute aches and pains. Even more enticing, growing evidence suggests that some of them might also help fight Alzheimer's and Parkinson's disease, as well as heart attacks and some cancers. But there are real risks. It's easy to overuse, with dangers that include stomach upset, organ failure, strokes, even death. The safe upper limits may vary from one person to the next, depending on body size, genes and prior health conditions. For some groups, including serious athletes and people with migraines, new evidence suggests that taking painkillers the wrong way or at the wrong time can do the opposite of what users took them for in the first place — create pain.

As data roll in about both the benefits and risks of over-the-counter painkillers, experts say the only good advice for everyone is to think twice before taking them.

They are powerful drugs that are safe. See PAINKILLERS, page 4

U.S. history teaching gets a C in Maryland

By Liz Bowie
THE BALTIMORE SUN

By the time students get to Matthew Finck's 11th-grade U.S. history class, the Civil War and the assassination of Abraham Lincoln are vague memories, historical facts they haven't heard about since eighth grade.

Beyond a very simplistic view of the causes, "they have no knowledge of the Civil War," Finck said.

The Catonsville High School teacher does a basic review before he begins teaching his course, which covers the period from 1877 to today. But many of those students will never take another course in U.S. history because most colleges don't require them. So their first and last brush with the American Revolution could be in fifth grade.

In advance of Presidents Day weekend, the Thomas B. Fordham Institute published a report that gives Maryland a grade of C for its American history standards and says a generation of students is growing up essentially illiterate about the history of the country.

Maryland was slightly ahead of the national average of D, but the report still found the standards, which form the basis for the curriculum across all school districts, "disjointed and fragmentary" and particularly lacking in the fifth and eighth grades.

In Maryland, American history is broken up into different periods. Students are given a dose of it in fifth and eighth grades and then one year in high school, usually in 10th or 11th grade.

Fifth-graders learn about the Colonial period through the American Revolution; eighth-graders cover the post-Revolutionary period through 1877; high school students take a course that covers 1877 through the post-Cold War era. Only high school students who take Advanced Placement U.S. history cover all time periods.

The Fordham report concludes that kind of emphasis on the later period of American history in high school means that many students don't receive a thorough grounding in the country's early history.

"I do agree splitting history up is detrimental to the kids and they don't have the continuity" they should, Finck said.

Four years ago, a Maryland task force made up of history teachers and professors spent two years reviewing social studies teaching and came up with conclusions similar to the Fordham report's, said Geraldine Hastings, chair of the social studies department at Catonsville, who served on the committee. But those recommendations apparently were never carried out.

Mary Cary, the state's assistant superintendent for instruction, said the state is participating in discussions on the national level about what should be taught in social studies. "We are in the mode of rewriting and revision of our curriculum from kindergarten to 12th grade. Social studies is No. 3," she said. "Next year we will begin to look at that program very critically."

She said she has begun internal discussions in the state Department of Education about the recommendations from the social studies task force.

Social studies teachers have expressed concern in recent weeks that their subject is getting short shrift because students do not have to be tested on it until they take American government in high school. Even that exam may be done away with after this year to save money, a proposal that received mixed reactions. Some teachers see it as cause for celebration because it frees them to be more creative, but others think it diminishes the importance of history.

Teachers also say that when students need extra help on reading and math in elementary and middle school, social studies is one of the subjects that is expendable.

"I think in middle school because of the high-stakes testing, people are definitely looking at language arts and math" more, said Laura Pinto, social studies department chair at Bates Middle School in Anne Arundel County. She said that teachers try to address some of the gaps in their students' knowledge and that Anne Arundel does allot a few days for teachers to review previous history classes.

Fordham did give a few grades of A: South Carolina and the District of Columbia were singled out for having exemplary standards.

Jeremy A. Stern, one of the two authors of the Fordham report, said there was no pattern in how well states did on the review. Neighboring states sometimes had very different approaches. Massachusetts, he said, had very good standards, but it was the only Northeastern state that did. D.C. and South Carolina have very different political leanings, but both had good standards that were free of political bias.

When Fordham did a history report in 2003, the authors found left-wing bias, but they said that has been replaced by a similar type of right-wing bias.

Both authors complained that generally too much emphasis has been placed on themes in teaching history rather than giving students a clear chronological time line. History is often taught in "broader conceptual themes," the report said.

But Hastings said a thematic approach is warranted in some cases, such as teaching students about immigration, adding that she is not in favor of having students simply memorize facts. But Hastings and other social studies teachers agree with the Fordham study's conclusion that too little time and emphasis has been placed on the teaching of history in general.

$225M Medicare fraud bust called biggest ever

Task force arrests 111 people on charges involving bogus claims, kickbacks, ID theft

By Richard A. Serrano
TRIBUNE WASHINGTON BUREAU

WASHINGTON — The federal Medicare fraud task force brought criminal charges Thursday against doctors, nurses and health care company executives — in all, 111 people in nine cities — in what officials billed as the nation's biggest health care fraud bust.

The defendants are accused of cheating the government out of more than $225 million through false-billing schemes that included fraudulent claims, kickback operations, money laundering and identity theft.

The sweep of the case was so massive that it took more than 700 federal agents from the FBI and the Department of Health and Human Services to conduct. In addition, 16 search warrants were served across the country in connection with ongoing investigations.

"Our message is clear," said Assistant Attorney General Lanny Breuer from the Justice Department's Criminal Division. "We are determined to put Medicare fraudsters out of business."

Daniel Levinson, the Health and Human Services inspector general, added: "We will not tolerate criminals lining their pockets at the expense of Medicare patients and taxpayers."

The task force was launched in March 2007, and since then more than 990 people have been charged in false billing schemes covering more than $2.3 billion, with nearly 750 of them convicted, officials said. In addition, in 2010 alone the joint federal, state and local task force recovered $4 billion in fines and other restitution payments on behalf of taxpayers that had been lost to corruption.

The accusations leveled Thursday run the gamut. Some defendants allegedly submitted claims to Medicare for treatments that were medically unnecessary or never provided. Some are accused of recruiting patients for hospitals and doctors, then pocketing cash kickbacks.

Others allegedly set up schemes involving home health care, physical and occupational therapy, nerve conduction tests and prescription medicine.

In Los Angeles, the five defendants are accused of scheming to defraud Medicare of more than $28 million in false claims for medical equipment and home health care. In Chicago, 11 defendants were connected to businesses that allegedly billed Medicare more than $6 million for home health, diagnostic testing and prescription drugs.

Other arrests occurred in Detroit; Brooklyn, N.Y.; Houston; Dallas; Miami; Tampa, Fla.; and Baton Rouge, La.

Breuer said the task force has become more sophisticated, developing many of the cases quickly, some in as little as two months. "We're taking real data in real time and bringing the cases," he said.

rserrano@tribune.com

Attorney General Eric Holder, shown announcing the crack-down Thursday, said the average prison sentence following a task force arrest has been 43 months.

On 02/07/2011 at 0800 hours, Ofc J.L. Chrystal #5536 and Officer Rupp #4957 responded to 400 Washington Ave., 21204 in reference to a suspicious package. Upon arrival, Ofc Chrystal observed a toilet covered in newspaper articles and signs. Ofc Chrystal also observed an unknown electronic device attached to the top of the toilet and a cell phone attached top of the electronic device. Ofc Chrystal immediately backed away from the toilet and notified his supervisor. Several units were called to the scene to shut down vehicular and foot traffic several blocks in each direction of the package. Aviation, K-9, Baltimore County Fire Department, as well as The Hazardous Devices Team (HDT) all responded to the scene.

Upon HDT's arrival on scene BCPD-PC-06 personnel had shut down the central Towson area and either evacuated or ordered people to shelter in place in interest of public safety. BCPD-PC-06 deployed a bomb disposal robot to conduct an initial investigation of the item. BCPD-PC-06 Technicians observed via robotic camera what appeared to be a toilet base, which had relatively large electrical or electronic device attached to it with plastic zip-ties and wires. On top of this device were a cellular telephone and a metal telescoping antenna, which was

Letter from the Birmingham Jail.

Moreover, I am cognizant of the interrelatedness of all communities and states. I cannot sit idly by in Atlanta and not be concerned about what happens in Birmingham. Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere. We are caught in an inescapable network of mutuality, tied in a single garment of destiny. Whatever affects one directly affects all indirectly. Never again can we afford to live with the narrow provincial "outside agitator" idea. Anyone who lives in the United States can never be considered an outsider anywhere in this country.

In any nonviolent campaign there are four basic steps:

① Collection of the facts to determine whether injustices are alive, ② Negotiation, ③ Self-purification; and ④ Direct action. We have gone through all of these steps in Birmingham. There can be no gainsaying of the fact that injustice engulfs this community.

Its unjust treatment of Negroes in the Courts is a Notorious Reality

For years now I have heard the words "Wait!" It rings in the ear of every Negro with a piercing familiarity. This "Wait!" has almost always meant "Never." It has been a tranquilizing thalidomide, relieving the emotional stress for a moment, only to give birth to an ill-formed infant of frustration. We must come to see with the distinguished jurist of yesterday that "Justice too long delayed is justice denied." We have "Waited" for more than 340 years for our Constitutional and God-given Rights.

ATTORNEY CLIENT PRIVILEGE - At the request of Thomas J. Saunders, Esq.

"The Miracle of Shame"

page 213 There comes a time when the cup of endurance runs over, and men are no longer willing to be plunged into an abyss of injustice where they experience the Blackness of corroding despair. I hope, sirs, you can understand our legitimate and unavoidable impatience.

page 214 How can you advocate breaking some laws and obeying others? The answer is found in the fact that there are two types of law: there are just and there are unjust laws. I would agree with St Augustine that "An unjust law is no law at all."

A just law is a man-made code that squares with the moral law or the law of God. An unjust law is a code that is out of harmony with the Moral Law. To put it in the terms of Saint Thomas Aquinas, an unjust law is a human law that is not rooted in eternal and natural law. Any law that uplifts human personality is just. Any law that degrades human page 215 I hope you can see the distinction I am trying to point out. In no sense do I advocate evading or defying the law as the racist segregationists would do. This would lead to anarchy. One who breaks an unjust law must do it openly, lovingly (no hatefully as the white mothers did in New Orleans when they were seen on television screaming "Nigger, nigger nigger,") and with a willingness to accept the penalty. I submit that an individual who breaks a law that conscience tells him is unjust, and willingly accepts the penalty by staying in jail to arouse the conscience of the community over its injustice, is in reality expressing the very highest respect of the law.

Page 219 Oppressed people cannot remain oppressed forever. The urge for freedom will eventually come. This is what happened to the American Negro. Something within has reminded him of his birthright of freedom; something without has reminded him that he can gain it. Consciously and unconsciously, he has been swept on by what the Germans call "Zeitgeist," and with his Black Brothers of Africa, and his Brown and yellow Brothers of Asia, South America and the Caribbean, he is moving with a sense of cosmic urgency towards the Promised Land of Racial Justice.

Bail Review Rights

District Court of Maryland

Your Bail Review is not your trial but is a hearing to determine whether the bail that has been set in your case ought to be changed or whether you ought to be released on your own recognizance under conditions set by the court. Each of you should have received a copy of your statement of charges. If you have not received your charging documents, please tell the Pretrial Representative and the Bail Review Judge and a copy will be provided to you.

You have certain very important rights. Please listen carefully. If you are charged with a felony that cannot be heard in District Court, you have the right to a Preliminary Hearing. Before there can be a Preliminary Hearing, you or your attorney must request the hearing. If you fail to ask for a Preliminary Hearing within 10 days, you will have given up that right. If you choose to have a Preliminary Hearing, the State must show that there is Probable Cause to believe that you committed that felony. You will not be able to testify or call witnesses to testify for you, but you or your attorney will be able to ask questions of the State's witnesses to learn what evidence the State has against you. If Probable Cause is found, your case will be moved to the County Circuit Court. If Probable Cause is not found, the felony charge will be dismissed.

If you are charged with a crime for which the maximum period of incarceration is more than 90 days, you have a right to a jury trial in the County Circuit Court. A jury is composed of 12 persons picked from the motor vehicle and voter rolls of the County. All 12 jurors must find you guilty beyond a reasonable doubt, in order for you to be found guilty. You also have a right to a court trial where a judge will determine whether you are guilty or not guilty. The standard of proof in a court trial is also beyond a reasonable doubt.

Perhaps your most important right is the right to have a lawyer represent you. If you cannot afford to hire a private lawyer, the Public Defender may provide a lawyer to represent you at no cost or a nominal cost if you qualify for their services. The State's Attorney who will be prosecuting your case is a lawyer. The rules of evidence will apply at your trial. If you are not trained in the law and you do not know the rules of evidence, you will find that you are at a disadvantage in attempting to represent yourself. A lawyer can help you in many ways. A lawyer can help you investigate your case and determine if there is a legal defense that you might not know exists. A lawyer can help you question the state's witnesses, call witnesses and question any witnesses that you may have. A lawyer can help you decide whether you should testify or whether you should remain silent. Even if you are found guilty, a lawyer can still help you by arguing to the Judge about the sentence to be imposed and your rights concerning any appeal. These are the advantages to having a lawyer. You may hire any lawyer you choose. If you are unable to hire a private attorney, you may go to the Public Defender's Office to apply for representation. If you remain in jail, you may apply to the Office of the Public Defender for representation. If you make bail or you are released on your own recognizance, you must go in person to the Public Defender's Office immediately upon release or as soon thereafter as possible. When you arrive, you will be given an income verification form. The verification form must be returned to the Public Defender's Office before your trial date so that a determination can be made whether you qualify for representation. If you do nothing between now and the date of your trial to obtain a lawyer, the Judge may find that you have waived your right to a lawyer. If you appear for your trial without a lawyer, the Judge could also find that you have waived your right to a lawyer. In either event, your case will be heard without a lawyer.

Finally, if you are not a citizen of the United States, a conviction of a crime may result in deportation to your country of origin. If you have any questions regarding these rights, please ask the Bail Review Judge when your name is called.

I Acknowledge By My Signature That I Have Heard And Understand These Rights And That I Have Received A Copy Of This Document.

5:00pm Stayed on unit to see TV interview.

7:00pm 2 hrs of WJZ and no Shorty Interview.

7:50 Called TV Station They told me that they are gonna work on the interview. Seems like they are gonna make it an exclusive type feature Story. Showed Dread's father my diary. Gave him the number to the TV Station. Now others push buttons. Told/Left message for My Freeman about giving me an entire copy of video for my lawyer to see as evidence for my 4/5/2011 Court date.

8:15 Sent "Letters" to Chief Public Defender & Circuit Court Clerk.

10:05pm Just finished a 2 pg information letter to my lawyer call it a Night.

3/12/2011

6:50 Just responded to my lawyer's "Letter." Gave him lot of contact information. Going to write my lawyer and ask for my information back.

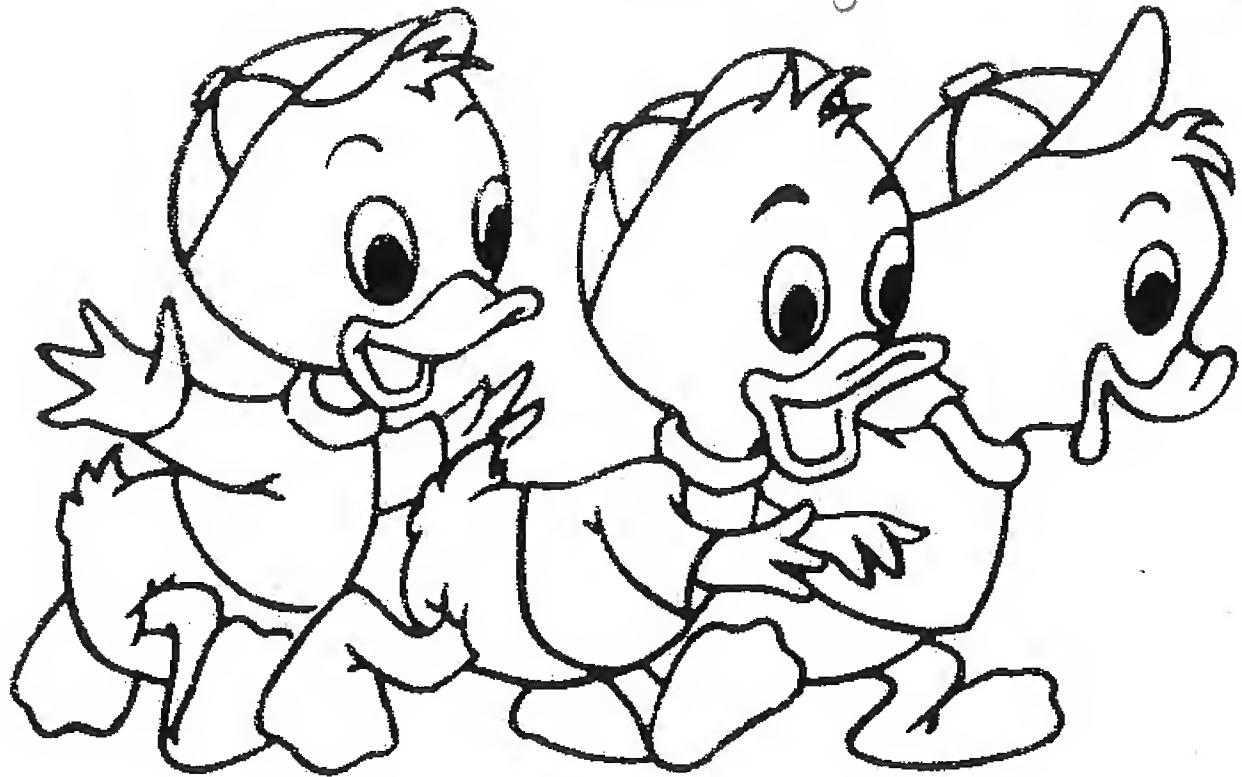

7:20am Wrote States Attorney Waller Judge Booras Bridges & Bailey asked for all my Material Back That they have pertaining to case 07CF4988.

101 Went to time out room patients are getting on my Nerves. They gave Dread some more Medication. They pumping him up with that. Anytime he acts out he gets a dosage. A medical dope stand in the Making. Gonna give his father My diary to make a copy.

1:20 Get a visit from Tom and Arthur Cohen we spoke and they are going to get me a lawyer Pro Bono. Also gonna call Billy Murphy. Today is a good day. I have my Competency Hearing Next Friday. Dr P said I don't belong here and read my article.

9:55pm Just Finished Letter to Congressman Cummings/Roskam Whistle Blowers Act Political and Judicial Corruption. See what happens next.

11:00pm Getting a letter for Baltimore City Council ready I have 2 pages done. Gonna give more in the Morning

3/10/2011

1:20 Am 2 of staff members are sleeping again. Mr Sam and one of Female staff. The Afro American female woke them up when she saw me coming down the hallway. Sleeping isn't part of the job description. And they all refuse to give me a complaint form. Dr P told me the WJZ wants to interview me. So this is gonna be part of my report. They write down the things I say and do so I do the same. Told everyone I was gonna make a Book and a Movie all about my experience. And its gonna be about the Baltimore County Jail and Spring Grove.

6:10am Asked for a Complaint form for the 2nd time from 3rd Shift. Sam and the other staff member. She told me to get it from 1st Shift. Asked 3rd time and she told me she will try to find one. Then Sam slammed the door in my face. Going to bring this issue to Dr P & Dr D. Dr Dressler I was making a documentary about my stay here at Spring Grove. Some staff need Conflict Resolution themselves.

7:40 Helping the Homeless CBS News 1.7 million homeless children in America. I was running a homeless shelter out of my apartment on Lochner Rd. And I contributed to countless non profit organizations across Maryland. My latest was March of Dimes in Nat. Fox 45 sponsored the event. Someone bought me for $400. ask Jennifer Gilbert Fox 45 Stan Saunders WJZ TV.

7:50 1st Shift Troy gave me a complaint form. and they are right in plain sight.

8:30 Just Finished Letter to Baltimore City Council and Mayor. Whistle Blowers dept. Square OSS Mary Pat Clarke.

9:30 Told Staff about my diary let Troy read it. Called Consumer Quality Control Team 410 235-1314 and made a Verbal complaint.

10:30 I got out and a DVD. I am prepared for the Battle. (or) I am in the Court Room.

3:15 I got a lawyer Thomas J Saunders 3600 Clipper Mill Rd Suite 201 I am also going to be interviewed by WJZ TV against his wishes.

4:00pm Things are looking good. The lawyer told me they are trying to link me to other cases about suspicious packages. Everything I do is mailed at post offices and I have nothing to hide. 30

7:25 Phillip called. He's here in Maryland. Gave him my lawyers number. And told him to Respect The House. Going to make copies of the 25 pages of my Jailhouse diary. Getting ready for everything. Making T Shirts. Toilets and a whole lot more. Ready to make my film debut. Question is, are they ready for me?

2:10AM Male Staff member Sleeping on the job again. 3rd Shift is the Gravy train. Get paid to sleep on Job.

2:15 Me and the Staff got in an exchange of words. They let Reggie walk the Halls, but want me and my man to go to bed. Oh boy is real comfortable. Sleeping around the corner. Wanna say something to me. But all we doing is reading the Bible. He's got nightmares and the staff just wants him to go to sleep. What kind of care are they providing. I asked for another complaint form. And she just said she don't know where they are. She needs another job. All she wants to do is medicate my man and let him deal with the nightmares. NFL is gonna apply to 3rd shift. Not for long

7:45 Dread is on energizer mode. They are gonna slow him down. He had nightmares all night long. 90 mph. Nightshift just wanted him to go back to sleep. Sleep only brings more nightmares.

3:00pm Group Dr P. Called me a natural leader. Got the paper for WJZ TV interview. Wrote letter to Judge Pierson & Gov O'Malley put my lawyers address on it. Call Ms Grace Ruesing asking for all my material back. 410 333-4900

4:00pm Got copy of "Letter to President" Obama back from my file. Interview is on Tuesday. Hearing is on Friday. Getting everything ready for

WJZ TV on Tuesday. They can't find my Habeas Corpus or my Pre Coo motion. I'll re-write it Sat or Sun. (31)

7:45 Called Margaret to have Phillip call me.

7:55 Surprise Phillip Showed up. They keep my Noodie and Juice. But that didn't matter I got to see my Son. Told him that the TV station is coming here next week and I need my diary back. He has the 1st 25 pages. He's gonna make 3 copies. Original and one for me and 2 for him. Want to be prepared for Interview. See how much Truth they really tell.

9:15 another letter to Gov O'Malley States Attorney Bernstein, Judge Pierson asking for all my material back. Also FBI Baltimore Office, New Psalmist Baptist Church.

10:00 For 45 News <sup>legal Analyst</sup> "Steve Allen" Jailed See Camera. Blackman from Randallstown video taped Court Proceedings Fox News Friday Needs to be reviewed.

11:30 A new face on 3rd Shift.

1:15 Dread is having Nightmares again. Calmed him down. He keeps reliving the death of his friend.

1:35 Staff member Sacked sleeping in the Bubble. Male staff member posted up by lockers. Don't know where the 3rd Team member is at. Females up using Bathroom and one male patient walking the halls. I called in my complaint yesterday and told Brooks Father about the incident Thursday night. He voiced his concerns because of his sons change in behavior at court on Thursday. Keeping this diary has become a blessing for me and a curse for the hospital staff.

I have asked for a complaint form on 3 separate occasions. 3rd Shift refuses to give me any. Really don't matter because I always have extras on hand. (32)

2:00AM Female Staff member just wake up because patient is walking back and forth in front of nurses station. But she went right back to sleep. Wish I could get a job that pays me to sleep for 6 hrs and work for 2. Must be nice.

2:05 Phone call just wake her up. System needs adjustment. Staff needs to be held accountable or paid less for night shift. She went right back to sleep. Looks like a Bobble Head Doll bobbing her head back and forth. I wish I had my video camera or a video cell phone. I guess my pencil and paper will have to suffice.

1:15 The patient that can control his outburst is cutting loose. This is not the place to be. You could lose your mind here.

2:20 Just finished my 2 page "letter" to States Attorney Bernstein. And now Both Staff members are sleep. Whistle Blowers Act. Hope they cut me a check. Maybe they'll use this on "Locked up MSNBC!" Call it a night. I've got more letters to write before Monday.

1:45 Both worker are sleep. Dred is up and restless. Made him stay in the room and out of the 6:30 Am Dread broke the paddle for ping pong table. Really acting out this morning. I'm tired. Need some sleep. Been watching him all night long. Kept him in the room. (33)

9:00 Staff medicated Dread. He was acting out and I couldn't look out for him.

12:45 Just finished 2 page follow up letter to James P. O'Neill about my 118's. And my 200 form. Want them as evidence. Told him I'm gonna file a class action lawsuit after my case is done. Gave him my lawyers name & address. Dread is still sleeping.

2:30 Phil just called. Made 3 copies of the Diary. Bringing it here for me and my interview. I'm ready for the Battle and I ain't gonna Blind Side them. Dread is still Knocked out. They must of really hit him up. Didn't eat lunch. and ain't really responding to me like he usually does.

2:45 Doing my arts 'Craft.

4:35 They are over medicating the Dread. And the nurses ~~are~~ report it so I am. No one is here to stand up for the patients here. all they do is ~~hope~~ you up. Got him drooling all over himself. Medication ~~an~~ ~~the~~ it. No group. No counseling just making him into a Zombie. Same Nurse is encouraging patients to jump on Donald because he called Reggie a "Nigger".

7:05pm Just finished my weekend projects for Monday Morning Mailings and my Jailhouse diary. Also I put an update on my report I sent to Gov O'Malley in 2007. Secrets will not stop Justice. When Phillip gets me my diary back to me most of my work will be done. Dread is still Knocked out. but him totally drugged or +. I had to argue with the Nurse just to get 2 Tylenols. Go figure.

8:00pm Phillip came back made me my copy of diary. Bought me my hoodie. So I'm ready for the TV interview next week. I have a copy of diary to give to WJZ. Let's see what they do with me now.

If Del. Maggie Macintosh wants to make sure the legislature "does it right" in determining if gas drilling by the hydraulic fracturing method is allowed in Maryland, she should heed the warnings given her committee last week by John Quigley in his testimony describing the wave of problems the practice is causing across Pennsylvania. We know. We have a home there.

Note, too, that Mr. Quigley describes chemically-laden gas that erupted in the Susquehanna River. Remember: that river flows into the Chesapeake.

Montgomery County legislators have the right bill: bar drilling until more is known about the entire process. Pennsylvania didn't do that and is suffering the consequences. We need to learn from their mistakes or we could wind up suffering too.

2:00 AM The female workers were up, but the male was sleeping. Must be nice to have a job that pays you to sleep. Gonna give a copy of my diary to WJZ and let them see my other book God's Miller got in Dec 2007. Everything is complete. Now the Truth will be told.

1:35 pm. 4 "Letters" going out Monday ① Judge Pierson ② Public Def Grace Ruesing ③ States Attorney Bernstein, Gov O'Malley ④ Carl Snowden and one to Director of Balt County Dept of Corrections. James P. O'Neill. Pandoria's Book is gonna be open for the World to See. Put the Martin Luther King Jr Picture in the Envelope. Misery loves company, and as long as I'm locked up, They will be too. Minus the bars "Ignominious" Martin Luther King Taught me how. Thurgood Marshall opened the Doors of the Court. A Trial will end everything and set me free.

9:00pm 3 fights. and the staff did nothing. Don stabbed Willie with a pencil. Been going at it all night. Got visitors right here and I finished my "Letter" to ① Bishop Walter S. Thomas New Psalmist Baptist Church ② Shelley Colker, and my family. Got the TV to myself. 7 letters going out Monday Morning. See what comes up. Winter seed for a Spring harvest.

3/14/2011 1:45 AM Staff Sleep only see 2. One man outside bubble lady inside. Gets Up and at it. Ready for Tuesday. Mail ready to go out. 8:15 Get address for Judge Pierson So I sent 3+9 letters 2 to New Psalmist.

9:35 Got my videos from Theresa now I'm ready for my Interview with WJZ-TV.

11:30 Dr. P. pulled me up about what went on over the Weekend. Gave him a video. to watch about Mia Nichols. Gonna give WJZ- The other one.

2:00pm Just got a call from Ms. Pleasant Balt City Public Defender. She said she's gonna put everything in the Mail as soon as she gets it all together. Should have it by Friday. Everything is coming together. I finished my IQ Test at 11am. Talked to Dr "P" before lunch gave him the run down about the weekend. Asked me what I'm gonna wear for the TV interview on Tuesday. Patient is a virtue.

3:45 Dr "P" just showed me the Conference Room they are going to do the interview in. 10AM Tuesday is my Judgement Day. Going to be the hype for the Movie. Couldn't buy attention like this.

5:30 Two Toned Hair'd lady is getting off the heat calling me out my name. I am not a patient. I am a convict and tossing my stuff on the floor. Make me want to slap the taste out her mouth. Don't disrespect nobody and I refuse to be disrespected. I let her off this earlier. Not gonna just think she can talk to me any kind of way or treat me. Treat her the way she treats me. Like "Shit"

10:00pm Going to Bed. Everyone is buzzin about the TV interview with WJZ-TV. They buffed the floors. Cleared a special office out for me. A closed mouth don't get feed and it don't get heard. I let a staff member read my "Letter" to Commissioner Bealefeld. Haven't decided if I'm gonna send it off or read it to My Block at the interview. Sleep on it.

6:30AM Long Night. Dread acting out all night long. Everyone is pissed. No sleep at all. But the staff got some sleep in. Not as much as they would have liked. I'm ready for my interview. Time for the Truth to be told. Poetic Justice. WJZ 13 did the 1st Story about me. Now let's see how they spin this. They are in a partnership with the Baltimore Sun. Let's gonna see what connects up.

8:05 Just shaved for my interview. Carl is my escort. A Marine taking a Sailor to the Battle.

8:20 Let Carl read the letter to Commissioner Bealefeld. Gonna give the "Letter" to WJZ 13 and ask them to Mail it along with my Jailhouse diary. This one month it

Shortie

I want to start off by saying how sorry I was to here about Gerrell. I got a message on face book that you were in trouble and I went on line to see if it was true. I read everything that was posted on the internet. I saw your video on my space. I wanted you to know that I believe in you. I know that after living next door to you all those years what your children meant to you. I knew you when you were cooking on the grill outside of the apt's. I watch day in and day out the love you had for each one of your children. I knew you had a prison record but what mattered to me was how you were always there for me. You always treated me with respect as did your children. You drove me to work when it snowed and taught me the meaning of the hood. Being Jewish never entered the picture. You were full of love for me as I will always be for you. I wish this world could be the kind of place we all dream of. Where all people all treated the same. Rich, poor, white, black. But I will be 60 this year and I am afraid it will not be in my lifetime. I am very proud to call you my friend Shortie.

I live in San Diego with my cousin Larry. Do you remember him. He remembers you and your ribs. He also thinks very highly of you. I wish I could help in some way other than just letting you know I love you.

Dear Mr President

I could have written you a long letter beggin for my freedom, but I'm a man of Great Pride. I have been writing this Movie since Oct 2, 2006. And just like Martin Luther King Jr. fought against Racism. I chose to pick up where he left off. Instead of Letters from a Birmingham Jail. My Letters came from Ogle County Jail in 2008 and now the Baltimore County Jail in 2011. This is Black History Month. And we as Blacks have been treated as Slaves in the America Judicial system long enough. You and I have a history. Carrie Kasawa sent a letter in 2008 asking for a open investigation. It never happened. Instead I have been beaten, robbed and told that I have no Rights. Well just like Martin I am not going to give up the fight for racial Equality. I am not alone in my struggle. And now you have a Moral & Ethical Obligation to stand up for me and my family. I don't want a Medal. I simply want my freedom

By Yeganeh June Torbati
THE BALTIMORE SUN

Part of central Towson came to a standstill Monday morning — for a toilet.

The porcelain toilet — festooned with newspaper clippings, an electronic transmitter and a cell phone — was left outside the historic Baltimore County courthouse about 8 a.m., triggering a police reaction that included a bomb-sniffing dog and a small robot.

Workers from nearby businesses streamed out to watch as police closed nearby streets, including the 400 block of Washington Ave., near the intersection with Pennsylvania Avenue.

Michael Minervini, who works at the M&T Bank branch on Washington Avenue, said employees were confused and worried as they watched police investigate the package and the robot approach the toilet. 11:30 Called Rob told him to call WJ2 Adam May and tell him about the Movie. Called Margaret told her the same. Going to have my social worker call the Station on my behalf and Public Relations Dept from the Hospital. Should be getting mail from Batt City Public Defender today or Thursday. Going to contact Ruppersburger and Cummings about all the material they have. Dr "P" said I should run for political office. I just want to serve the community. The Voice for the Voiceless. Carl made me some copies of legal papers. (37)

3:40 Dr "P" just pulled me to the side. Said my sister Charly called up here saying I threatened her. I never spoke to her. I only spoke to Theresa. Charly & William are trying to steal the property from my sister Theresa. We as a family told Theresa she gets the property in the event of my Mother's death. William and Charly are fighting over the estate. Phone records show I only got a phone call through. The other was a message, and I only talked to Theresa. I don't talk to or deal with Charly or William. And have no intention to see speak or deal with them when I get out.

4:05 Called my lawyer asked to take a lie detector test to end a lot of things I never threatened my sister or made a bomb threat. I took 3 lie detector test in Illinois on 1/31/2007. Wanna do the same thing now. Gonna get my sister Theresa to call up here and tell the truth - "Family Greed"

4:40 Lawyer Said he's coming out to see me in the next 2 days. Gonna bring video with him. Call Mark later to have Theresa call here and clear this situation up.

8:10pm Just got up had to take a nap. Can't figure out why my sister would lie on me like she did. Haven't had time to grieve my Mother's Death and she kicks me while I'm down. And unable to defend myself. No matter. You can pick your friends you can't pick your family.

8:40pm Just wrote a 1 page "letter" to the FBI Baltimore office for all my material back, complaint form and the Phone # for William Lewis Davis my Brother. He has a USB with everything on it. Photo is Evidence.

8:45 Dread is knocked out. They been drugging him all day long. Damn Shame. He is gonna be in here for a very long time. Asked more courtney less drugs. Book at page 25 So Paula can't say I threatened her.

9:30 Just finished a "letter" to Adam May WJZ TV. Follow up to the interview. Mail them off in the Morning.

3/14/2011 11:15 Went to get Dread out the hallway before Sam has the Nurse to medicate him. 4 people on duty one is sleep.

2:15 Sam is sleep and so is a lady inside the bubble. Told Sam must be nice to get paid to sleep. Has his chair tucked to the left side of the bubble. Going to talk to head of the hospital later today and give them a copy of my diary. Need to have them hold accountable I'm not a sneaky person. I told them what I was gonna do. Gave Adam May WJZ TV the 1st 25 pages. Got a competency hearing Friday. Gonna give them an updated part of my diary. They document us. I document them. And they need to do a better job hiring the staff for 3rd shift. We had a meeting today and most of the patients and staff

2:30 Doctor/ Man in Suit came by James Sup. Saw Sam sleep and did nothing. Check the log. Female that was sleeping jumped up. Now Sam is up and about. Everyone wants to act busy now. Timed and dated. Told Dr P I was going to do this. Sam needs a day job and so does the others. Gonna see what I can do while Tim works. Minor T-h

8:00AM Just mailed my letters. Got the Name & Number of Jean Smith (39) Public Relations Officer for Spring Grove Hospital. Gonna write her a "Letter" later.

10:45 Just sent Dr Helsel & Jean Smith Public Relations Director a letter so they can do something about 3rd Shift and the people just collecting a pay check. Not gonna waste my time in here. Just continuing what I was doing minus the video camera. Got a book and movie out of this experience. Adam May WJZ (3) hasn't run the story yet. And I'm waiting for the mail from Public Defender Reusing.

11:10AM Dr "P" Told me I'll have my evaluation at 9:30AM. Told me to keep everything plain & simple. Not to expand on my answer.

11:20 Phillip called. Said he talked to Adam Mays. Said he can't get all the interviews. Only the segment they show to public. Phillip told them everything he could. Waiting on material from Ms Reusing Balt City Public Defender and State Attorney Bernstein. Sent 8 "Letters" out see who responds.

1:20 I let Carl read pg 38 of my diary. Told him I'm gonna call him as a witness. He was present at the interview and has been reading my "Letter" and Diary. So to say I'm delusional is a copout.

3:00PM They want me to dumb down. Why am I call delusional when I say I want Martin Luther King Jr Job. Or I want to be Malcolm Fredrick Douglas or a leader for the Underclass. I'm gonna dumb down. My Councilor got me the address to Rep Keith Ellison and David Super Civil Rights advocate. Gonna use the contact information this week. Rep Keith Ellison 10207 Longworth Build Washington DC 20515-2305 David Super 410 706-7365

6:15 Problems jumping off. People can't hold their weight.

7:20 Staff can't control patients. Fighting and they did nothing. I need to just lay back and let them do what they do. Mind my own

Need to focus on my Competency hear on Friday. Let staff do their job.

4:40 Sleeping on the Job. African Male Staff Member.

6:35 Prescription Drug abuse is reaching epidemic proportion WJZ News Report. Same thing I was telling you in my diary. Got a lot of patients and inmates dependent on these prescription medication. Why not legalize the illicit drugs.

7:40 Designer Drug 2 CE Mass over dose in Minnesota. CBS Early Morning News.

8:00 Asked my social worker to make me 5 copies of the "Letter" from my lawyer. Gonna send it out to officials to insure they send me back all my material I sent them.

9:20 "Letter" to WJZ. The mail went out. Missed the mail for today. So Monday Morning I'll have a fresh batch.

9:30 I got mail from Ms Reusing. Such a Blessing.

10:00 Interview for mental competency. In and out in 10min

11:00pm Lawyer came to see me. Told me I'll be going back to the County Jail after my report is written and submitted. So the wheels are in motion. I'll write me some "letters" over the weekend. Got all the address I need. Lawyer got his mail today.

2:00 Phillip Called. Theresa called. Told them both I'll be alright.
3/16/01

2:45AM Staff Sleeping again. Refuse to give me their names. Male Staff is constantly sleeping on Job Security & welfare of patients is not their concern. Female Staffed was sleep most of the shift

7:10 Ask 3rd Shift Staffers for their names and for a complaint. Female refused and so did the male. 1st Shift staffer witnessed the exchange.

8:10 Filed my complaint with the Patients Rights advisor, and had nurse sign complaint form. 3rd Shift needs to find another job or do their job better than they do. 1st Shift is the best 2nd is a hit or miss. 2nd Shift is just here to get a paycheck.

11:00pm Called Ray. Tryin to set up a interview here at Spring Grove Hospital to be part of my Movie. They let WJZ run a story. Well I'm gonna see if I can get the same results about the S.A. Sibley crew shooting here.

12:45 Phillip called. He's on the money chase. Wants to work at Corinthians or Diane's Bookin' Best Rio. Said he wanna see Gerald today. Would love to be there. Told them both they are gonna be on my witness list.

* 11:45 African Nurse wants me to leave 3rd Shift alone. Too late. they should learn to treat me with a little more respect. My record here speaks for itself. Are they part of the problem? or part of the Solution. Respect me if I'll respect them. Wanna fight with 3:01 Adam Rutter just called me on the phone. Wants to call the TV stations and ask about the interview. Also wants to come see me next week. He has a radio station and six other people interested in my story.

3:05 Wrote Take a "Letter" and a copy of my Lawyer information. told them we gonna settle this all in court. Told them to get all the videos as well.

9:00pm Donald calling everyone niggers. Threw water in Nurse's face earlier. So I got him to come out of room. Baited him.

10:30 Donald was picking on another patient. Pushed him and the had to call a code 1. Donald is threatening elevators and fire exits everyday. Can't help a man who is so bitter. Hatred in their heart. I didn't break this up that time. We started it. And the staff broke it up.

11:00pm Finished dressing up my envelopes and my lawyers Notice of appearance letters. 4/4 for Monday Morning distribution. (42)

11:05 3rd Shift coming on. Sent my complaint out this morning, got a Newspaper article about the patient that killed another patient last year. Co op living arrangement. Good Idea Bad Idea I think Co op is good. Need to know how to deal with both sides. Need better screening. Sam Burke is on duty wonder how long before he goes to sleep. Usually 2:15am.

3/20/01

5:00am Dread can't sleep. Sam talking crazy try to force him back in the room. Told everyone on the floor. Sup Charge Nurse and the rest of the so called worker to call Dr Helsel and the father of the Dread. Not gonna let them violate his rights. Going to hold all of the accountable.

12:10 Shorty's Legal office just opened up. Whistle Blower Act about Racism Corruption and the Pay to Play Politics involved in the Maryland Dept of Corrections as well as Lake County IL.
Got a lot of Mail going out this week. Drop it like it's "Hot"

12:18 Just called All People Congress 443-409-8964. Left them a 2 min.
Detailed message and the officials to contact to verify the information and allegations. WJZ Adam May.

12:38 Just called David Super Professor at University of Md 410-706-7365 Gave him a 2 minute message. Told him to contact Adam May WJZ TV to see the interview and get the "Jailhouse" Diary. Told them to contact Spring Grove.

1:00pm Just finished my "Letter" to Keith Ellison Rep of State of Min.

3:35 Charge Nurse did a nice things for me today. Got some Tylenol and some peanuts. 1st Shift does their job and more. 2nd does theirs too. But 2nd Shift is shift with the "F".

3:30 Had word with the Nurse that passes 30+ prescriptions. Told (43) Dread not to listen to me and only listen to the self. Last night they tried to give him more medication because he couldn't sleep and walking the halls was disturbing the others. They had Superior here and I told them to call his name. I asked for a complaint form and he's gone and everything is fixed.

3:45 Had a sit down with Thee. Just to let him know what Dread's Sather said. I worked at Dignity for 10 years and I have experience with the psychiatric patients Counseling. So it won't probably be another case.

350 Called Dreads Father -- 4855 left a message. Told him to come to Hospital and the 3855. Dread can't hold a 2 minute conversation. and 4855 has been in and out of the hospital for 2 days. I am holding him in my behalf as we believe him innocent.

5/16/91 Open Crazy Day. Willey fighting about the phone 2. Stole on Shaw while he was in bathroom taking a piss. I'm done with playing with any of these patients. Put Willey on his ass 3 times and he ain't built Ford Tough. He's a 'bulley. Crown Mendon't act like this. Man its hard being the most sane person in the assylum. Got a call from Charlie (not my name), said he's head to ATB via N.C. Gonna get Franks's info for me. Also gonna call him as witness, Monday morning mail. Going hard. Head of Hospital getting me complaint.

2:15 Nurse Sleeping in the Medical unit.

3:45 Sam sleeping and I got Tylenol. Must be nice to sleep 6 hr Work for 2 & get paid for 8. Do the math.

6:15 With Leaks protest Bradley Manning in Virginia. PJ Crowley was fired. Dutch Ruppersberger. Adam May reported. The 8th Amendment of the Constitution forbids cruel and unusual punishment. So what is the difference between Private Manning and my "Toilets" different action in Leaking information but the same results.

8:50 Sent out mail. 3 "Letters" WJZ, Jake, Con Ellison.

9:00 Morning Meeting Bennet George Tho Ngo Dr Petty Dr Kristan Kygala. These are the people that have been evaluating me since 2/25/2011. Gave my social worker some papers to be copied and placed in my files as evidence of my innocence.

2:30pm Just found out they are moving me to a open ward. They are trying to control the damage Shellenberger Created. Won't move me back to the County Jail because they have to put me into population. And I'll be in control of the inmates.

2:40 "The Talk" having a "Early Childhood Investment" Women talking about Childrens Defense Fund. Same thing I've been working for. I can really see the light at the End of the Tunnel now. Ready for court or Jail.

4:00 Surprise Surprise Surprise! Just got a visit from my Son Phillip. We played Chess. Talked. Went to Dinner, and I gave him instructions to put on Facebook. Give me a couple bucks. Really made my day. The visit was really appreciated. Hope he does what I asked. Put WJZ TV on Blast.

7:30pm Adam May called Phillip and left a message about my Interview. Said they are gonna air it at 11pm. Gonna call the Station and see if they can re-air it in the Morning.

7:50 Just wrote William a "Letter" about my situation and asked him to send me the USB and Book if he can find it. (45)

8:00pm Just call WJZ TV. Gonna air the Story at 11pm 5-7am and 6pm. Exclusive Shorty Story.

10:15pm Just finished "Letter" to Frank Conway Circuit Court Clerk to have my material returned. Also Adam May WJZ 13 and Mr J Clinton Kelley in Salt Lake City Utah for a Sundance Film Festival application. Gonna call it a Night. Get up early to see the News.

2:25pm Sam sleeping again. Must be nice.

2:45 Sam talking crazy to Dread. Told him to go to Bed. Told Dread to walk it off. Sam wanna crack hard. Told me if I was on the Spring Grove is gonna have to turn over my complaints and deal with it in the open.

7:45 Went to my room. Got a patient all in my face and I'm trying to avoid a fight. I can only take so much. I kept Willey and Donald from sighting this morning. And now this man is in my face. And I kept Reggie from intimidating him now he wants to Buck up at me.

10:58 Just signed my papers with Nicola my social worker to be moved to Spec unit. Till my Court Date. Talked to Dr P about keeping my complaint in House. So I agreed.

2:00. In out Back and Forth. Supposed to move to spec unit. Have no mental Illness. And they don't know what to do with me. I stopped Don from assaulting Dr "Z". So I hope they put this in my chart.

2:10 Spoke to my lawyer. Wants access to my Facebook and AOL account. Gave him pass words.

3:00 Phillip called told him to repost the WJZ interview on my Facebook page. Or leave now my followers can access the interview. And call lawyer.

New book looks closely at the riots of April 1968

Jacques Kelly

Turday in April 1968. I stood alongside family members and looked out the windows from our home. No ordinary fire was burning in East Baltimore. It was the first night of the rioting that broke out two days after the assassination of the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. The flames seemed out of control and shotted into the air. The next day, Palm Sunday, plumes of smoke crossed the skies.

A few days ago, I received an advance copy of what promises to be the definitive history of that incident. "Baltimore '68: Riots and Rebirth in an American City" is due this summer from Temple University Press. It is a collaboration of University of Baltimore faculty members and staff and is edited by Jessica Elfenbein, Thomas Holloway and Elizabeth Nix.

I was startled by their statement that professional historians had focused far more attention on the 1968 Columbia University student protests as well as the demonstrators at the Democratic Convention in Chicago. The authors state that "during Holy Week 1968, the United States experienced its greatest wave of social unrest since the Civil War." Some 110 cities were hit by riots; Baltimore, Washington and Chicago experienced some of the worst violence.

The book contains passages about the big players: Gen. George Gelston of the Maryland National Guard; Spiro Agnew, then Maryland's governor; Police Commissioner Donald D. Pomerleau; David Gleam, of the Community Relations Commission: "Little Melvin" Williams; and police Maj. William "Box" Harris.

I reacted to the thoughts of a then-student at the University of Baltimore, Joe DiBasi, who went on to represent South Baltimore on the City Council. DiBasi was then in the Maryland National Guard, returning home from a drill session in Parkville. He was 22 and found himself in charge of 12 Guardsmen at North and Pennsylvania avenues. He referred to it as a surreal scene. "You would just look around and say, 'How can this be happening?'" turn to a city neighborhood they had known as home for so many years. "Life as we knew it was over at that point," said Sharon Singer.

Urban renewal schemes were going haywire in Baltimore at this time. I recall walking along Mount Royal Avenue in 1961 and seeing boarded-up houses slated for demolition. It looked like World War II footage of Berlin.

In this regard, the book advances a fresh theory, perhaps a contributory cause, for the riot. Some misguided planners had sold Baltimore a line that it would fall apart if a major interstate highway were not connected through it. "In many ways, the highway plans and the riots were linked. To the people who lived in the neighborhoods slated for clearance, the expressway proposals made it clear their homes and schools and luncheonettes and grocery stores were less important than an exit ramp. Public policy declared over and over again that Baltimore's black neighborhoods were dispensable; in 1968, rioters treated them accordingly," the book says.

Years later, my sisters recounted a personal story. That day, April 6, 1968, several of their classmates were at our family home in Charles Village, including the son of Mayor Thomas J. D'Aleandro III, when the doorbell rang. It was the mayor, who calmly asked that his son return with him that night. None of us had expected any trouble; events proved otherwise.

The book also contains an account of the family of Sidney and Ida Pats, who owned and lived at Downey's Pharmacy on West North Avenue between Bolton and Calow. Their daughters, Sharon Pats Singer and Betty Pats Katzenelson, recalled driving back to their store that day and seeing it in flames. They recounted how they lost the business and did not re-

6:50pm Ms Green Lt. Dixon and Sgt came on the Unit. I asked for Whistle Blowers Act information to report this facility for Human Civil Constitutional Rights Violations. Asked for Prisoners Advocate and Federal Agencies to address treatment of inmates in BCDC. No information was given. Ms Green Dr Tobin can't justify why I am being held in Mental ward. Being held here to keep me out of Population and educating the inmates in this facility about their Rights in the Judicial System. I have the information about Prison Industry- US Dept of Justice Bureau of Federal Prisons - Mid Atlantic Region Junction Business Park 10010 Junction Dr Suite 100 Annapolis Junction Md 20701.

7:50pm Just Finished my "letter" to Adam May. Kill 2 birds with one stone. Told him to forward everything to Dept of Justice Bureau of Federal Prison "Whistle Blowers Act" Gonna write Mr Anazalone just for fun :)

Obama vows equality in Latin American ties

By Peter Nicholas
TRIBUNE WASHINGTON BUREAU

SANTIAGO, Chile — Striking a humble chord, President Barack Obama said Monday that the United States has sometimes taken Latin America for granted and promised a new relationship that did not consign it to the status of "junior partner."

In what was billed as a major speech, Obama laid out a vision for a Latin American-U.S. relationship rooted in a shared belief in democracy, stronger cultural ties and expanded trade.

"I believe that in the Americas today, there are no senior partners and there are no junior partners, there are only equal partners. Of course, equal partnerships, in turn, demand a sense of shared responsibility," said Obama, speaking in a modern art museum near the presidential palace in Santiago.

Obama gave the address hours after arriving at the midpoint of a five-day tour that began with a stop in Brazil and ends Wednesday in El Salvador.

Fifty years ago, John F. Kennedy launched his Alliance for Progress, pumping billions of dollars into Latin American economies. Today, struggling with huge budget deficits at home, an American president is no longer in position to lavish aid on the region and so must rethink the way north and south cooperate in the modern era, aides said.

Obama sought to dispel stereotypes of the United States as an overbearing neighbor. He said the U.S. economy is entwined with that of Latin America. Each needs the other to succeed, he said.

"Latin America is only going to become more important to the United States, especially to our economy," Obama said after a meeting and joint news conference with Chilean President Sebastian Pinera.

"Trade between the United States and Latin America has surged. We buy more of your goods and products than any other country and we invest more in this region than any other country ... In other words, when Latin America is more prosperous, the United States is more prosperous."

Obama seemed to acknowledge that the U.S. faces fierce competition for Latin American markets. Brazil's largest trade partner is China—not the United States.

The history between Chile and the U.S. has had painful moments. In the news conference, a Chilean reporter asked Obama about "open wounds" stemming from the dictatorship of Augusto Pinochet.

Referring to allegations of a U.S. role in the 1973 coup that brought the general to power, the reporter said "many of those wounds have to do with the U.S." He asked if Obama would pledge U.S. assistance in investigating that part of Chile's past.

Poland visit planned

WASHINGTON — When President Barack Obama travels to Europe in May, Poland will be on the itinerary, White House officials said Monday. Obama will meet with Prime Minister Donald Tusk and President Bronislaw Komorowski, whom he welcomed to the Oval Office in December, officials said. The trip, May 23-28, also will feature stops in Ireland, the United Kingdom and France.

— Tribune Newspapers

In reply, Obama said that the United States would "like to cooperate" with requests for information.

"Obviously," Obama said, "the history of relations between the United States and Latin America have at times been extremely rocky and have at times been difficult. I think it's important, though, for us, even as we understand our history and gain clarity about our history, that we're not trapped by our history."

"And the fact of the matter is, is that over the last two decades we've seen extraordinary progress here in Chile and that has not been impeded by the United States but, in fact, has been fully supported by the United States."

4:09pm Guards in the Bubble are sleeping: One is tucked away in the corner. Other one looks like a Bobblehead. This is the 2nd time I caught an officer sleeping on the job. Gonna keep this to myself let them read it in my diary. Wrote it on the door. See if anyone pays attention.

1:45: Quincy just came back from a visit. His sister said she saw the interview

1:15 Finished my ⬤ statement. Put everything on Spring Grove Paper Conflict resolution. See what they do with me when they get this. Not gonna send out any 118's. Gonna wait and see what they gonna do with the ones they have now.

1:50pm Just finished "Letter" to my lawyer. Gave him address to various agencies to see how long I've been doing this and give him a better view of what's really going on.

1:20pm Guard sleeping again. He let 7 keep whole POD up all night long.

5:00am Breakfast. Now 7 wants to go to sleep. Guard trying to act like he's doing his job after he got a good night's sleep. Gonna send my complaint to FBI Balt. Richard McFealy Special agent in Charge. Sup Patrick S Dugan. See if those Irish Eyes will be Smiling on April Fools Day. Mr O'Neill won't answer my 118's or give me a 200 Form so I'll have the FBI get involved. Already sent my lawyer his letter. Gonna see how much they can learn from a "Fool like Shorty" Adam May liked the card I gave him. Lt Dixim told me to do what I wanted

Cell "7" needs to be in an institution that can deal with his mental illness. This is cruel and unusual punishment. He isn't receiving any Medical drugs and is not afforded mental Health. They sent me to Spring Grouse he needs the attention more than anyone at this facility. He is a danger to himself staff and the inmates on 2C. His mood swings affect us directly. And the administration does nothing but house & feed him. They treat him like an animal at the Zoo. and find it very amusing. Put his tray on the floor and close the door. You should see his eyes & face. It invokes fear to anyone on the other side of the door. and I'm not a fearful man. He is a danger to himself and society. Has a Helter Skelter Look. Wouldn't want to go inside his mind. Might not be able to come back to reality. "Real talk Real Thought"

9:18 Got "Letter" from Rob Firs my director. Told me he's working on film of Clint Eastwood in Washington D.C. Told me about a Movie Danny Glover Charles Dutton and Common are going to be Shooting here in Baltimore. Told me to stay clear of Adam Rutter. Says Adam is just trying to Piggy Back off my situation to get his story out. I know that we are just using each other. I didn't give him any more information than is already out there. and the visit is record so he can say or claim nothing.

11:30 11:TV Hill Bernstein Show Stan Stoval. All about the States Attorney Office and the way they serve the Baltimore City Residents. Bernstein is in my video. Mainly at the Martin Luther King Jr Parade. And in front of the Public Defenders office. Everything is on film. So no one can say they didn't know. Barry Simm has a lot of evidence. I Team won't report this Story. Nor will ABC Fox or the Baltimore Sun. Adam May took a chance. Waiting to see what Gigi Bennett does with her "Letter"

11:15 Just Finished a "Letter" to my Friend and Lawyer Richard Reische. Ask him to send me all my paperwork here and the DVD to my lawyer.

4:30 Got locked down. (17) Jumped on (5) for no reason. Picked a fight with the weakest man on Deck. (17) been asking to go to P.C. and if they have a Gay Deck in the facility. We had words yesterday and didn't went no trouble, but was quick to start up with (5). He was quick to point out to P.R that about the came in here because P.R told him to stay out his face & stop running his mouth. All he does is babbles all day long. Like the speed talker from the commercials.

6:00pm Just Finished my "letter" to US Dept of Justice Bureau of Federal Prisons. Gonna See what they do about this situation. Lt Dixon and Ms Greene told me to file it so I did.

0:20pm Must be an uprising. all the Old White Guys are trying to get tough. Funny Shit. Bangin on Doors getting up in peoples face. Must be something in the air tonight. (7) is acting like Norman Bates. Speaking in 2 different voices. Reliving episodes of his life. This is not a place for weak minded people. Don't and I guess that's what make my situation bearable. (52)

They won't let me back into population because of the interview on WJZ-TV. I ask Mr O'Neill to let me have a interview here, but he won't respond to the 118 request. And they won't return any of the ones I sent them since I've been locked up. See how they respond to the "Letter" I sent to US Dept of Justice.

6:40pm Tried to sleep the day away. No good. All the talk me & Frenchy been doing to PR is for not. Really need anger management classes. I did get the address & phone # for Graphic Imaging 107 E 25th Balt Md 410 467-7071.

9:40 Just finished a 118 to Mr O'Neill. Attached a 5 page "Letter" as well. Give him something to think about. POD officer Gave me some tape to make sure they got the "Letter" and the 118. Told them to keep it as evidence. $15,000,000 for my property.

4:49am Just had breakfast. (S) airmark is double dipping. Need to have an audit it this facility. Don't feed you right so you have to buy commissary. Then the prices are inflated. They running game on the inmates & taking advantage of Vulnerable individuals. They are milking the inmates. Public Defenders don't defend their clients with the Due Diligence of the law. And The States Attorney, Judges, lawyers and Dept of Corrections Violate the fundamental Fairness of the "Law". Even the Media & Church play a role in the Racially divided Judicial System. Martin Luther King Jr stood up against Racial Injustice. To simulate picked up where he left off. "We the People in order to form a more perfect Union." Empty Words because we are people too. Not just a name and a number. Not many people would be willing to make this sacrifice of self the way I have. I couldn't have done this or endured these hardships without God's Love! Through him all things are possible. This is only a Testament of my Faith in God. I have walked in the Valley of Death all my life. In the Streets Death was my playmate. In Jail he's my cellmate. And I never feared Death. I imbrase it everyday I am given the blessing to see the Sun Rise in the East. When they put the shackels on my feet it just reminds me of American Slavery. And I am a Freedom Rider. Lord knows this has been a Rough Ride. Not only for me, but also for my Friends and family. Joe Dawk made me a Man. Corrine Davis showed me how to Love and I was Blessed to be given life by those 2 individuals. My Father was a hardworking man. And my mother was the strength of the family. She Kept it all together. When she left my Father it killed him. When my Mother died she endowed me with a inner strength no man can take away or break. I won't forsake my God or my lesson my Mother & Father taught me. Sacrifice of self for family friends and my Community. I am a Blackman. And we as a People have suffered far too long. 400 years is long enough to be treated as Slaves. I'm man enough to say Never more Martin Malcolm K and Marcus Garvey live in me. Thurgood Marshall opened the door. So I'm just gonna go in and finish my Job. (54)

In the Bible "Job" never forsake God. Well neither have I. And I have been to the Mountain Top. I've seen what Martin Luther King Jr Saw. I even saw my own Death. But I fear no Evil. Death fears me. And will continue to be playmates. It's my Bless & my Curse. My Dream are filled with so many things Joy & Pain. Then I wake up to the Reality of This World. It's hard being a Blackman in America. So I'm ready to leave. But first I'm gonna tell the truth and shame all them Devils. "Letters" from a Birmingham Jail. Uncle Tom's Cabin. Well "Letters to Zion" is gonna be an epic. I wish I could see Mr O'Neill's face when he reads my "Letter" today. Better to be pissed off than pissed on. I love (G) pissing contest.

8:00pm We got a real live one on deck. Told (14) that's gonna be him in 30 years. Had a News Story on today. People v Abbott. White man got a signature bond for threatening the Gov. I can't get in front of a Judge and all I did is write a book and make a Movie. BCDC is violating their own policy. They have had (5) in his cell for 25 hours straight. Sent Mr O'Neill another 118. This one is gonna touch a nerve. Margaret won't accept me calls. And I haven't got any mail from her yet. I let (15) read the 118

8:25 Cpl refused to give me any 118's. I already had some. I just put it in the Box. My Name and "Whistle Blower" on the main page. Front and back. See what they do with that. Asked for a Federal Audit.

8:35 Cpl made up some 118's. She knows I wrote her up. Now she went to a 7:50 Asked to talk to a Sgt; about library property and 118's.

8:20 Sgt Sterret & Medical come through. Told them I needed glasses. Medical lady didn't know why or when I came back. That says a lot about the depths they want to keep me a secret. I'm on QC, and this is for Mental inmates. They don't want me in population.

10:00 Sgt came back. Told me to file 118 with Classification to get my money Transferred back here. He said I have library this week so I might be able to get copies made. Sgt made me clean times and dates off door. I have them in my diary anyway. Sgt is 100%. Not everyone here can say that. He does things by the book. And that's how I do what I do. I use their book. O'Neill hasn't answered my request yet. His book is his own rules. And he works with for Shellenberger.

4:20 Been locked up all day long

4:50 Writing a 'Letter' to Clarence Nichols

8:23 Just finished "Letter" to Clarence Nichols & family and "Letter" to the Editor of People Time Life. See what it turns up.

3/31/2011
5:30 Gonna be on lock down all day because of pointers. Question how much are the inmates being paid to upkeep this facility. What is the operation cost and budget. Min wage is 6.75/hr. So what do the inmates get paid to do the grunt work here, Airmark has Food and Commissary. Which is a conflict of interest

Mr Steele and power is in Fox 45 has me.

They Serve you shit for food and charge you 3x the price for the Goods the offer on Commissary. Do the Math. (56)
Same thing with Medical Services. They running a real Smooth Criminal Enterprise here. Doctors & Bond Court Keep Black Hispanics and Poor Whites Locked up. Public Def work for States Attorney to insure the jail are filled up. Prison Industry is a Cash Cow. Look at who contributed to who's political campaign and who was rewarded with a job. See what lawyers contributed to what Judges and see the cases they win or lose in front of those Judges or their friends. I named names in Lake County. But the players are the same here in Maryland.

11/50 Mail "Good News." Heard from My Wife. And O'Neill responded to my "Letter." Forced his hand. I'll send him a 118 to really upset him. The "Letter" to the Federal Prisoner and Review Board should have made it to their desk by now. Guess the Pissing Contest is about to be started. There was a Mis Trial for Mr Abbott.

Saw Adam Lippis on Fox 45 about a Woman Soring a Chick. Well I hope he is as eager to testify at my trial as he was for Fox 45. Karen Parks too. News Paper had a lot of information today.

9:10 Just got back from visit Adam Rutherford. Everyone on lock down. Had to clean out Lowary. Rob don't trust him and he don't Trust Rob. Both of them are using me so they think. Rob could put out more videos, but he won't. Adam hasn't sent me the material I asked for so neither one of them have my best interest ..

9:20 Got another visit.

10:11 Back from Visit. Must be my day. Rob Fiks came to see me. Saw Adam downstair. Neither one likes each other. Adam wants me to go against Rob. Me and Rob made a deal. We shook hands and that's all that I need. The Measure of a Man is determined by his word and actions. I stand behind everything I say and do.

15 <sup>For</sup> Hold in apt complex same thing I tried to turn Lochwood apts in the day I was locked up. Records are on file so are photos

Rob was in Hunt Valley for an interview as a prop master for a Movie with Danny Glover Forrest Whitaker Common. Urban Chronicles. Rob is gonna get me the inside track. Gonna submit my Jailhouse diary to them. also to the Open Society Institute. This was all in all a good day considering my situation. (Charles Dutton)

11:30 Commissary is messing me around. Won't give me the 5 stamps and the 5 envelopes, and then wants to argue me down. No matter. Still gonna do what I do.

1:30 Lawyer Visit.

2:50 Back from Lawyers Visit. We had a long discussion. I disagree about some things, but I'm gonna go with his approach. They offered me a plea deal. Plead guilty to the charges and call it time served. Don't think so. Gonna go to trial. I would rather be convicted by

12 Then buried by 6. Besides I get to bring the "Toilet" into the Courtroom. Gonna try to bring the Headboard too. April 26 is my next Court Date. Then we get a Trial date set. Inmates know I'm back. And they feelin my Toilet. I did this for my People. Racial Injustice is going to be on Trial

Coloring book used to smuggle drugs into jail

Three inmates and two of their loved ones were charged with attempting to smuggle drugs into a Cape May, N.J., jail on the pages of a children's coloring book, authorities said Tuesday.

The drug, Suboxone, normally used to treat heroin addiction but itself classified as a controlled substance, was dissolved into a paste and then painted into the coloring book, said Cape May County Sheriff Gary Schaffer. Pages with "To Daddy" scribbled on top were sent to the prisoners.

Man falsely jailed 20 years dies before claim OK'd

OMAHA — Joseph White didn't live long enough to see most of a $500,000 settlement from Nebraska for serving nearly 20 years in prison for a crime he didn't commit. Released in 2008 after being exonerated by DNA evidence, he returned to his native Alabama.

White, 48, was killed in a workplace accident Sunday while moving coal in Tarrant, Ala. He received $25,000 from Nebraska last year for being wrongfully imprisoned on a life sentence in the 1985 killing of an elderly woman. Legislation to pay him the remaining $475,000 was pending in the Nebraska Legislature.

I get to talk about anything on the "Toilet" Telephone (58)
Television and mail receipts, and the State has no witnesses against me. Just the "Toilet." I feel so good I feel guilty. And I'm gonna Tell the Truth in such a way.

4:00pm They Beat "Lowery ass" He spit on a Guard and the lot I'm have it. Finally moved him off AC. Should have sent him to Spring Grouse or St Elizabeth's Hospital. They been waiting for a reason to tap that head. Been Calling Guards & inmates Nigger all day all night. Feel Sorry for him in a way. He has a lot of Mental issues. Been treating him like an animal in the Zoo.
So he was bound to strike out. They could have avoided this a long time ago. Some of the Guards play a role in this.
They know who they are. My mail to Parole and Prisons should be there by now. Gonna turn over my diary to the right people.

4/2/2011 Guard Sleeping on the Job.

Sgt Came woke Guard up

3:45 (9) is getting on my nerves. Couldn't take no more. Just let him have it.

4:30 Let (9) have it again told the Guards someone is going to Medical and the other one is going to Seq.

4:45 9 is on Lock down

1:00 Woke 9 up

Kirk Fraiser was the Writer Producer and director of without bias. (59)
He is an inspiration to show that anything is possible if you put your mind into it. I have Dreamed about making a movie. And now I have 14 movies 5 books and countless opportunities before me. All I have to do is stay focused on my goal. I am a Blackman, and I am the Keeper of Martin Luther King Jrs Dream. I made the sacrifice and soon I will reap the rewards. Freedom Justice and the Truth to be told.

5:00 ⑨ Aint acting out, aint said nothing crazy to me either. Guards know I'm on the edge. Got a low tolerance for B/S. And I hate bullies. ⑯ Gave me a Card to read. My head is about to explode. The card gave me some mental relief. He's like a Big Brother to me. Kept me from jumpin on ⑨ Twice. Gonna go lay down for awhile.

9:40pm Guard came through told me to file 118 to get my property and money. Done that. Filed 4 more tonight asked for 200 form and 198 form. She told me to contact the media and ask them to contact the Director. Also asked for address to US Attorney Generals Office in Balt City to file a formal complaint against this facility. They won't return any of my 118's since I've been back. The ones they did send me I sent to various media sources. The loose papers they have in my property. And they don't want me to have those addresses and contact information.

2:10 AM ⑨ is acting out. No one can get any sleep. I just want to get 5 minutes with him. Tired of talking and pleading.

3:30 ⑨ Still acting out

4:50 ⑨ Just won't quit. He's a chuck hole warrior. The day he came in all he did is talk about how man people he beat up and this and that. He tries to Bully the weaker inmates. Even taking their medication from them. Caught him twice. But didn't say nothing. He has worked my last nerve. When the doors open I'm gonna make him an offer.

5:30 Made ⑨ an offer. Cowardly dog ain't gonna bust a grape even if it was already peeled. He ain't got no heart which makes him a little more dangerous. Coward will kill you quicker than a "Real Man" This is gonna be a long day. All he can say to me is "It wasn't me"

8:00 Head Count. Told the Sgt. I want a 200 form. Showed him "Letter" from Sen/President Obama and Sen Mikulski office. Told him I want all my 118's so I can submit them to the Dept of Justice and Adam May so I can have an interview here in the BCDC as is my Right as stated in the inmate handbook. Martin Luther King Jr was murdered 43 years ago today. Because he was standing up against Racial Injustice. Well I want his job. Been vacant long enough want to see what the Sgt does about my Verbal request for the 200 Form and the address to Dept of Justice.

Martin Luther King Jr wrote "Letter" from his Birmingham Jail.
Well I'm simply following in his path. And I just the "Keeper of His Dream"

8:30 Looks like we gonna be on "Lockdown" all day. Main door is stuck open. And ⑤ is going off. Came off of his attorney visit last night and he aint been right since. Must have been some upsetting news. Now he's acting out the only way he know how. "Anger & Rage" See how long Staff take his outburst.
Gonna land himself in Sec. Not a good place to be. He already been in the Butt Naked Rm. These young Boys got a lot to learn. But they are to hard headed and angry to teach or teach. Damn. Sounds like me in '1986.' My Malcolm X moments.
I see myself in a lot of these young ones. Hope they see the light before they Crash & Burn. God Loves Thugs too!

1:30 Classification answered my 118. So I sent a 118 to the Records Dept. Told them I want all my 118 and Court Orders sending me to Spring Grove and the 200 Form I requested.

8:20pm Just wrote a 3 pg "Letter" to Chief of Police Balt County.
asking for all police reports and material for my old cases to show how they don't defend Blacks & Minorities. Also a copy of the "Letter" to the FBI. Gonna shake them up. They don't have a case and I'm gonna expose them for the Racist individuals they really are. Also sent "Letter" from my lawyer.

3/5/2011 8:10a Today is the anniversary of the Murder of Dr Martin Luther King Jr. Gonna write the President a "Letter" as a Homage to the Man. He is my mentor. (62) and deserves to be remembered. He is the Civil Rights Movement version of 911. I want his job.

12:20 pm Officer Gentry Notarised my

1:27 Just mailed off my 2nd "Letter" to President Barack Obama.
Don't matter if he answers or not. Like I said this is a Book about Equality in the American Judicial System. By having the Notary Seal helps my case. That make the "Letter" legal in any Court in the World. Just like Martin Luther King Jr wrote "Letters" from a Birmingham Jail I wrote mine here in the Baltimore County Jail as well as Lake County Jail. And President Obama asked for a full investigation in May of 2008. So I did my own Independent investigation and I was the Lab Rat Not many Men would endure jail and humiliation in an attempt to uplift our People and the Community. I lost everything I have to complete my Movie and my Book. and I would do it all over again if it would save one person's life. We need real men in the World Today. I hope this will encourage other men of color to stand up and make that Change.

1/16/2011

8:00 ① Running his mouth. Really tired of his ass. Told him I'm gonna put my foot in his ass keep running his mouth. Threw the News paper away yesterday.

10:15 Gentry Notarised my "Letters" today. O'Malley & Turnbull.

10:30 ① is asking Patients for their medication. Told him when ⑤ gets caught up he's gonna tell on him.

11:00AM ① on lockdown 16 14 and I want to break him off. Guard locked him down for an hour. Tomorrow and to that point.

12:30 Library --

1:30 Back from library. Got copies I needed. And got mail from Adam Rutter. "Loving it" 14 is pickin on 9 "Fool up" - Man gotta do what a man gotta do. Here we go again. Adam wants a Jailhouse interview. Got a Free Sharty Relly going on.

2:20 Mailed off "Letter" to Gigi Barnett & Adam May. See if they answer the mail and do another interview here at Baltimore County Detention Center. I asked Sgt Zahn for all my 118's. Just sat there with the "Dumb" look on his face.

5:00pm Prob officer telling us to clean unit & vent. That's not our job. They trying to make us do their work. Asked for a "200" form to file against the institution. Went 5 so we can file separately and they don't charge me with MOB action.

6:30 We got locked down because somebody broke the mop handle off. Dumb ass inmate. (549) you pick one.

7:30 Out of the cell. This ain't over Sgt. Lt gonna shake this pod down. Gonna file some "200" about everything going on in this institution.

8:30 Put the 118 in the Box. And let everyone know who's in the Game. Got a Book call "Letter of a Nation" and all I did is write "Letters to Elected Officials." And they tried to kill me, but just didn't turn out the way they planned.

9:05 Filed another 118 to Mr O'Neill for permission to have 3 interviews here at BCDC. "Adam Rutter" Rob Fiks" and "Adam May". See what happens with my request. Getting into a Pissing Contest. Tired of being treated like this. Now we gonna Play Politics. Chief of Police in Baltimore County. Got their "Letter" today. So let's see if they respond or not.

11:45 Reading the Mail from Adam, I let the other inmates read it earlier. Now I have time to let it soak in. Didn't know that so many people felt like this about me. Make me feel special. And that all of this was really worth it. Not many Men could hold up to this kind of pressure. I'm Corrine & Joe Davis's son. My parents made me a strong Black Man. I know my history so they can't break me. I've been beaten, lied upon, stolen from, denied my Rights, institutionalised and never have I fallen away from the Truth. I refuse to admit to a crime I did not commit. So a Trial movie and this "Diary" will be my just reward.

10:00AM Got my money from Spring Group $128<sup>00</sup> will last for 3-5 weeks.

10:30 Filed 118 with Social Services for address to Deborah A Jean ACLU.

11:30 Classification officer was a witness to an incident involving ① and myself. ① keeps pushing my buttons and I snapped on him. This ain't the 1st time. ① makes it hard to deal with the situation and causes more stress. They pulled me out and I asked Classification why am I here. Couldn't answer. He's the head of classification. No one wants to answer my 118 or request for 200 forms. Won't give me addresses to Dept of Justice, ACLU or return my legal notes out of my property.

1:00pm ① got locked down. Trying to start a fight. Only did it cause officer was on deck.

3:50 They took ⑩ off the deck. He been laying in the room for 2 days. No food No Medication. Sleeping in soiled linens.

7:00 Sent all ③ 118's 2 to the Public Defender. And one to the Shift Commander. Officer Gamble want to threaten and intimidates inmates will take over the same name. Misery Loves Company.

So lets see how much of me they really want to deal with. They have to respond to the 118's and return the 118's for my personal records. I gave them a fair warning. Now I'm gonna show them how much power is in a pencil and a piece of paper. I have 128 on the Books and 22 days till I go to court. Federal Violations means a Federal Investigation Pressure can bust a pipe. ⑨ is still locked down. They showed me their true colors. And it's yellow. Just like this paper. They won't put me in Population and they won't give me those "DCO" forms. And I can't wait to go to trial. Toilet in the Courtroom. "Poetic Justice"

9:40pm Just finished a 3 pg "Letter" to Ms Jeon of the ACLU via my lawyer Mr Saunders. See if the ACLU gets involved or not. Go a lot of information for them. Just giving them bits and pieces right now. Waiting on response to my 118's too. Clp Gamble is doing her. ⑨ got sent to the Bott naked room. Officer caught him sitting on the "Toilet" with a plastic bag over his head. This place is way out. Classification to the Hospital from the Walmart Store because someone put Super 61 in the "Toilet." It didn't me. I'm locked up. 4/8/2011 ⑨ is not coming back. He got what he wanted. So did we.

12:25 Lt Vogon pulling an inspection Sgt Lewis and 2 officers told them I went all my 118's back and a 200 form gave them a 5 min for lunch. Sgt Lewis said she would address the issues in the morning. We Shall See!

8:00 Sgt Starret personally delivered me a "200" Form. Told me to put all the Complaints on one Form. Not enough room.

8:15 Up looking at the News. Commissary Man just came by.

9:30 Jailhouse Meeting. Bullshit and a waste of time. Ms Greene

9:45 Just finished a 14 point Complaint of the 203 Form that the Sgt gave me this morning. Go back to sleep, wait for Commissary and a response to my "200" Form.

12:50 Gave Sgt Starret my "200" Form. No one wanted to take the Form. Wouldn't let me put it in the Box. No Cpl or Officer wanted to touch it. Got Kitchen workers and floor workers coming by telling other inmates about what I'm about. Gonna address the issue of Public Def/States Attorney relationship. And how they don't defend their client or have their best interest in hand.

1:00pm Can't believe this shit. Q is back on deck. Got him doped up and he ain't running off at the mouth ... yet!! Gonna call it a day stay to myself and sleep this one off.

7:00pm No Laundry. I want to take a Shower.

7:10 (Q) Stole my laundry. Out of all the inmates why me. I just want to.... Cpl Watson and Bd Officer calm me down to a degree. If I had a real charge and was going to DOC He would be in the Hospital. Been stealing from weaker inmates. You can smell the fear when we are next to each other. It's gonna be hard for him until I leave. Gonna get on his nerves. And I know how to push buttons. That "200" Form is gonna do its job by Monday. My Lawyer Should get his by Monday as well. Guess I'll write my wife. Need something to take my anger away.

10:15 Wake up. Made a dip took hot shower but I am still ...

Using copies of my 118's as my diary. Keep everything together. So they can't deny nothing. They put (4) back in here in an attempt to get me into a fight and send me to Seg. Then they can take away a lot of my privileges and remove me totally out of inmates contact. I'm a lot smarter than that. See what their response is to my 118's and "200" form. O'Neill sent me a form "Letter" but it didn't address the issues I put on the paper. (67)

10:00AM Reading "Letters of a Nation." Mainly the "Letter" (68) from Martin Luther King Jr. "Letter from Birmingham Jail" one of the longest "Letters" he ever wrote. Very inspiring piece of "Literary Art" Could have been a book. When I told people I want MLK Jr Job They called me Crazy. But the Underclass and unrepresented people in our Community need someone willing to speak up for them and say enough is enough. Calling me Crazy aint gonna work when we go to trial. When I give my testimony and explain the "Tale" to the jury a Federal investigation will be on the Horizon. Constitution says I get to aide and assist in my defense of my trial.

11:30 Got my Baltimore County Bureau of Corrections Law library Request form reply BCDC # 415. Conspiracy, False Statement, Obstruction of Justice expungement and the United States Constitution. Prepare my "Letter" to Sheriff Fisher & Judge Turnbull. My lawyer told me to stop writing these "Letters" but I use them as part of my movie and my Book.

1:10 Wrote my wife a 5 page "Letter" asked for some money and for her to contact Charlie. I havent gotten a response from my "Lawyer" yet. Or Chief of Police Baltimore County or (Richard) Reische attorney of Law. Now I got to see who is really in my corner or not.

11:30 am Just Got up. Lunch "BS" Armark is making a mint at the expense of the inmates. So is the Maintenance, Commissary, laundry & Kitchen. 1 dollar a day 20 days on 10 days. Slave wages for slave jobs. How much would it cost Armark & this institution if they had to employ real workers. America's cash cow is the Prison Industry. And my stay in the Lake County Jail and the Balt County Jail still exposes the cash cow prison industry. This diary details all aspects of the Judicial system and how they really treat inmates. This is an independent open investigation that both County City State and Federal officials want to keep a secret. I made the ultimate sacrifice of self to open expose and challenge a Racially Oppressive Judicial System.

1:54 Just told the "Painting Crew" about my story. They get $5.00 and a check for $13500.00 a month.

1:10 Writing "Letter" to Sheriff Fisher.

5:13 Finished "Letter" to Sheriff Fisher.

Face when he reads it. Clearly marked evidence, for my lawyer and Dept of Justice Eric Holder

6:49 pm Finished a "Letter" to Kathi Ash Maryland Film Industry. Trying to get an application form and contact information for Charles Dutton Forest Whitaker Danny Glover and Common. They are shooting a Movie called the Urban Chronicles. Rd is working on a Movie about J Edgar Hoover FBI. In DC Next Entree

All I can do is wait for my replies. (70)

11:00pm Lock up. (14) Got some sobering news about some old court case. We got a inmate in (7) butt naked in a paper suit. I didn't get out the gate on nobody the whole weekend. (9) is scared to Death of me. I promised Frenchy I would stop riding him. Focus on getting out of here. Waiting on a response for my 200" and all my 118's to be returned. They Kept me in jail for 163 days in Illinois. I've been locked up since 2/8/2011 I got 61 days already. Speedy Trial is 120. They have no evidence and the burden of proof is on the State. The American Judicial System is gonna be on trial. Black Justice vs White Justice. Truth is Justice is suppose to be blind. Been Clipping the News Paper. Got lot of information. Gonna make some more "Toilets" when I get out. Looking at Mid Jung I got 2 envelopes left. Gonna call my lawyer Monday see if they got the mail. See if ACLU gets involved. "Let the Games begin and player pick their sides"

4/11/2011

12:33 Tried to Sleep the day away. (9) made that impossible. Said I would leave him alone and not ride him but I just want to make him miserable. Ain't nothing wrong with him. He's a "user". Told him he would have made a good house boy. He would do anything for snack candy cookie. And he's a thief. He's wearing someone's stolen shorts. Next time he takes a shower upstairs I'm gonna

1:00pm Talked to a man from Classification. Told him I want all my 118's and loose papers out of my property. Don't want no body unaware of what I plan on doing.

1:25 Called my lawyer. They got my mail. And they got my property from Spring Grove. Call them later on and get some money off my Credit card.

8:20pm Filed another 118. This time I re-wrote an article from the Baltimore Sun Concerning Human Civil & Constitutional Rights violations, from Beijing China. Told America to clean their own house and stop meddling in other Governments Affairs. Makes Sense. Sent the 118 to Lt Vogan & the Shift Commander.

5:00am Just Got 6 118's. Think I'll make a book called 118. Gonna treat them like the Walls of Jericho. Been locked up illegally since 2/18/2011. Denied bail Denied Preliminary hearing. Denied Copy of Grand Jury Minutes, Denied access to the press to tell my side of the story. Denied access to my Medical records. Denied addresses to contact outside help. Denied all the Rights they say I am entitled under the Constitution of these United States of America.

Well Chief of Balt County Police Dept got his mail. Today Sheriff Fisher should be getting his. Misery Love Company and I am not alone. Keen putting them 118's on their docket.

I'm a Political Prisoner inside an America Jail. No different than Nelson Mandella, Steven Biko, Gahndi, Malcolm X or Martin Luther King Jr. These are my mentors. And they call me crazy because I just won't accept their Racial Injustice. This is why I want to give up my citizenship and leave America. I'm tired of being their whipping boy. If you want to stop Racism in America take the Blacks Hispanics Muslims and the Asian out of America. Then who will they hate & persecute? Themselves? How much is enough. And how long should we as a people continue to accept Racial Inequalities? I made my choice and my decision and I stand whole heartedly behind my convictions. "I was born free" and I'll accept nothing less than total freedom.

Gonna write Eric Holder a "letter" later today. President Obama has gotten 2 already. Both were to be shared with Eric Holder. This one is gonna name everyone.

7:05 Guard can't figure out why I am in this section. He does realize that if I am in population that I can enlighten all the inmates to their rights. I could get them together and file a class action lawsuit about ineffectiveness of council, Public Defender and States Attorney work together. I've put in enough 118 to make a Book. I get 15 $8 to proof read my "Letters" <sup>④</sup> and 118's. Don't use their names so they can't sue me. Besides we ain't nothing, but a number anyway. I name the official involved to hold them accountable.

8:00 Medical came through. Same B/S. 3rd time I asked for glasses. And I asked Sgt Sterrett about the flashlight they use at night. It wakes you up from a dead sleep. This institution is using sleep deprivation techniques to keep the inmates off balance. 2 hour naps from 11pm - 5pm so they sleep the day away. I have dark rings under my eyes from lack of sleep. The light they use gives me a headache. Told Medical Staff. Filed another 118 this morning with the promoted Sgt & Mr O'Neill. Told the facility policy doesn't supersede "the condition and I would like responses to my 118 in written form the same way I sent them out.

11:45 I slept through "lunch" fatigue must be setting in. Guards coming through 3-4 times a night doesn't allow you to get proper night time sleep. I don't have the luxury of prescription medication to let me sleep. I hear everything. Doors opening and closing; Keys, footsteps, and loud mouth in (a).

Sgt Sterrett and Officer Gray got me a lunch tray. Officer Gentry Notarised my "Letters" to Eric Holder and English Cummings. I hope he's the POD officer on Friday, I won't need the institution to Notarise my "Letters". But I still want to know the policy on Certified Mail. I'll write my lawyer this weekend since she/they only received one "Letter". I know Sheriff Fisher & Chief of Police got their "Letters" I instructed them to contact my lawyer. I want to review my indictment.

6:45pm Must have touched a Nerve, O'Neill sent me another "Letter." But no copies of all my 118's.

7:30 Just to do something I filed a reply to the "Letter" Mr O'Neill sent me. Told him to Read Martin Luther King's Letter from a Birmingham Jail. And left him was a "God Bless" 74 that 118 with the other ones I filed should touch a nerve.

Told him I am a Prison Advocate. And the 1400 inmates would have more than 1400 complaints to put on his desk. Seems like he has had his way and done whatever he wants to the inmates here. They can't justify why I'm here on AC so as long as I am miserable I'm gonna make administration miserable. Just like "13 ghost." He should have looked at those videos on youtube & Facebook. I'm prepared for the Battle. It ain't mine. It's the "Lords"

7:45 Everyone is feeling the Comm: sary Crunch. Nobody has money on the Books. Now they want to make deals. Gonna Stay to myself. Call my lawyer and tell them to get all my money out of my Bank account. Put it on my Books. If I'm gonna be locked up. I might as well be comfortable.

4/14/2011

4:55am POD officer was a Dick last night. Turned lights out at 11pm then turned them back on at count. Shining the Blue light on inmates and coming in the cell waking us up at 2:00pm. Both Guards went into 16 threatening him. all about some toothpaste on the vent and mirror. That was there long before he got there. It was my cell when I first got here in February. I would love to be a fly on the wall when O'Neill gets my 118.
Gonna load his desk up with them. I hope the Library answers my request. Lt Dixon and Lt Whitehead on my list too. Called Entrapment.
Force them to do their job.

11:26am Lt Whitehead Just came through. Bought the 118 back. I (75) <sup>make</sup> him initial it. Showed him O'Neill's "Letter" too. Waiting on the other 118's. Finishing up my "Letter" to Eric Holder. Whitehead said he's conducting an investigation. Wouldn't tell me the nature, but I showed him mine. Called my lawyer no answer. Called Dick no answer. Oh well. Everything come in time.

12:40 Just mail off "Letter" to Eric Holder. Joe proof read it.

Joseph d Shinger
000070717

12:45 Got a Card from my wife. She put some money on my books too. Good bad or indifferent she has always been there. "True love." Sometimes I don't think I deserve her. I'm blessed.

1:00pm Sent a 118 to the Librarian. Quoted an article from Balt Sun about China Human Rights violations. Ask for address to United Nations and New York Time Newspaper. And I mentioned Mr O'Neill. I love getting on his nerves. Gonna keep riding him till I get out. Just because. And I'm gonna hold O'Malley accountable as well. Gonna write to Cumming Friday.

1:15pm Bored (14) is really immature. He's got a lot of growing up to do. Needs anger management badly. Never owns up to the role he plays in his situation and thinks everyone is suppose to deal with his problems. Ask for advice but won't use the information. Always wants to play until Reality slaps him in the face. He got court papers today. And no commissary on the Books. He's putting a financial strain on his family. And mad cause I won't buy him anything. He's gonna find out about jail. 23 years old and acts like a kid. Don't know when to stop playing or when enough is enough. And don't know a woman's worth.

11/12/2011 5:15am C H Mohurh been sleeping all night in the bubble. Must be ... he's not ready to clean.

1:45 I got mail. 50<sup>00</sup> receipt from My Wife 2 118's from the librarian (76) with all the information I requested except Bantry. They thought I meant Battery. It's when the States attorney knowingly brings false charges against an individual or corporation. Also Perjury - as well as addresses to Md Public Policy Institute 1 Research Ct # 450 Rockville Md 20850-6252 + 240-686-3510 and Franklin Center for Government & Public Integrity, 127 Peyton Street Suite 200 Alexandria Va. 22314.

3:00pm Wrote the Librarian another 118. and a "Note" to go with it. I get Library on Wed. So I'll get the information regardless. O'Neill told me to write the book and he is the Subject. Just like Bull Connors in Birmingham or George Wallace in Georgia. Racism in the American Judicial System is going to be addressed. Got a few more legal tricks up my sleeve and I'm gonna do it in their face.

6:15. Nurse asked me about my "Stop Snitching Video" on YouTube. Made me feel good. A lot of people in this institution know I shouldn't be here. Librarian asked for a copy of my Book. O'Neill is pissed that I keep riding him with these 118's. Staff won't return my 118's or give me an answer on their policy for Certified Mail. All I did is treat The Judicial System the way they treated me. "Like Shit." So since I dealt with it. Now it's their turn. Fair exchange. Aint no stick up without a Gun. Got rules to this Game. There aint None. So don't hate the Player hate the Game. They are all MAD at me because I'm good at what I do. I'll chill today. I sent the 118 to the librarian. Should get a reply Monday Tuesday library on Wednesday.

11:00pm Gamble is abusing her power as a guard. Gonna write me up for not locking up a star she created the conflict. Got inmates that saw the whole incident. She tries to intimidate inmates. I filed a 118 on her 2 weeks ago and this can be considered retaliation. I also filed a 200 complaint against her last week. Not gonna just treat me any kind of way and think I'm gonna accept it. If I was so wrong why didn't the guard with her put me in the cell. I've been in my room all night long. I shouldn't even be in this section. She was listening to the conversation I had with the Nurse. Yes I am gonna stand up for my rights. Harrison came from Medical 2nd Shift and she ain't did nothing to get his property back. Her reply was I don't know anything about it. So we got a floater to look into it.

10:45 Ms Gamble called me down to "talk" she didn't write me up and I didn't get to see a Sgt or Lt. Put in a 118 to Mr O'Neill. Still waiting on the Sgt to come by. She is on a Power Trip. And she made reference to the Nurse so I know she was listening to the conversation. Guards can't even get along with her.

5:04 AM Morning "face up!" Got the guard into a conversation about being a product of your environment. Said he'll come back so we can have a conversation. Said my mother would be disappointed in me because I'm in jail. So I'm gonna convince him something differently.

8:30am Got a 200 complaint form from Sgt 'S'

9:00am Visit.

10:30am Lawyer came to see me. Said I have a Bond Review 4/26/2011. Not gonna hold my breath. Did say he'll call State's Attorney Shellenberger as a witness and get my papers from Judge Piersons Court Case # 24C-10-009191. Told him to get my money out of Bank and trace down my escrow money from the City. He might call Adam May as a witness and play the video. Gonna call Rob Fix too.

He's gonna review the evidence on 4/26/2011. And he's gonna question the date on the Police report. Get a copy of search warrant. And get a "Trial" date Asap. Wish they would of done this in Lake County! I wouldn't be sitting here now. I'll get a list of things to have for my trial by then. Sounds upbeat and told me he spoke to ALCU. Littering is the best the State can get. It's possible the State might drop the charges. I'm betting on a trial. Got some good articles in the Newspaper.

9:30pm Talked to the 'Dread' Guard about the incident last night. they have a double standard about policies at this facility. We had no problems tonight except (4) doing what he does every night. They wont put me in population to save my life. Sunday till write letters. 5-6 this week.

4/17/2011 5:21pm Up and at it again. Gonna write a witness list for my lawyer. and I'm gonna send the "200" for to Ms Mossberg.

got most of the things I plan to do inside my head so I'll put it on paper. Gonna ask for a Furlough if I don't get a Bail / recognisance bond. Gonna tell the Judge I need my time out and my computer to enter parts of my Movie into the Maryland Film Festival. They did it for Snoop off the Wire. So I might as well give it a shot. Go to DC to the Chinese embassy and ask for Sanctuary or Political Assylum. Really put this case on the map.

12:10 Sent in a W to Mr O'Neill about my mail. Not gonna like it and I don't care. Gonna write him everyday. Just like I did Sheriff Curran.

12:35 Finished my "Letter" to Congressman Cummings. He's gonna hate me but respect my integrity.

12:40pm Just mailed Con Cumming "Letter" off. Go some more "Letter" to write, but I'm gonna take a Nap right now.

3:45 Gamble is back on Shift. Nit picking again. Guard checked my armband she wants a recheck.

4:35 Just finished my "Letter" to Ms Martha H Mossburg Franklin Center for Government & Public Integrity. Marked it legal mail to insure delivery no certified services off

4:50 Gamble is on her B/S. Riding people about giving up the food they don't eat to <sup>9</sup>. Won't let us watch the "Game" Yesterday the Guard cut the Game on and let us watch it. She needs help.

5:10 I let (S) Proof read my "Letter" to Ms Mass-<sup>(80)</sup> burg and my 118 to Dr Tobin. Monday Morning is gonna piss off a lot of the administration. Got a Job to do and Martin Luther King Jr set up my Blue Print.

7:05 Sent a 118 to Classification Dept Head. Asked for all my 118's and response to my request. Told them I made a request for a Federal investigation from Eric Holder Dept of Justice.

7:40 Just finished my 200 Form. It's for a Postal Inspector and to turn over my diary to Eric Holder of the Dept of Justice. Federal violations required a Federal investigation. And I made sure all the evidence is in their hands. We gonna see who's smarter than a drop out. Won't be able to deal with this in house much longer. Gonna drop it in the Box tonight. Gonna Terrorise them with the "Truth". See how they respond to this 200 Form. This is my 3rd one. Long as I am here I'm gonna make them just as miserable as I am. And when I have my trial a lot of individuals will be indicted and face Federal Grand Jury. Told them I was making a Stop Snitching Video. So let's see what Monday Brings.

7:50pm 200 Form is in the Box. Dread from 2D put it in because Gamble won't let me near the mail box. But it got in there. Sgt Starrett signed it. Now let the Games begin.

11:45 am I tried to sleep the day away. Getting started on my "Letter" to my Lawyer for my upcoming case. Just like Martin Luther King Jr wrote his "Letter" from a Birmingham Jail. I'm just following his Blue Print from the Book "Letters of a Nation." and this is gonna be a "Letter" for the Books.

8:30 pm Finished my page "Letter." I took a lot of breaks but I did it. Joe out of 8 got released today so I used (15) to proof read for me. Got Library on Wed I'll make Copies.

8:50 Went to the Barber Shop. Man everyone knows about my "Toilet" and they are talking about. The Barber said he is surprised I'm not in Administrative Segregation to keep me busy from talking to the other inmates and teaching them about their rights and getting them to stand up against this Racially Bias Judicial System in Baltimore County and America as a whole. the Prison Industry is a Cash Cow. And someone needs to hold them accountable. So here I am and here I stand.

6:45 AM Just finished my 2 pg "Letter" to Supervising Constable Robt G Hafer, 120 East Chesapeake Ave. and Marked "Whistle Blowers" on the front and Eric Holders address on the back. Let the Games begin. Hell get his "Letter" by Thursday Case # included and instructed to send copy to the Court as well.

1:30 pm Just finished a 3 pg "Letter" to David Irwin. Hope he answers my "Letter" before my Court date.

Put him on point. Told him not to destroy the "Letter" and told him

2:30 Mailed the "Letter" off to David Irwin and a 118 to Mr O'Neill. Love Pissing People Off. It's my favorite pass time. And I know all the different people that read the 118 and 200 Forms. Showed the POD Officer my "Letter" from Sen/President Barack Obama. And Shes gonna tell someone. Word of mouth. And it aint Gossip. Its Knowledge.

2:45 Lock Down get my Rest. Gonna have a Hell of a Book by the time I get out of here. HBO is in town.

4:20 Officer Curtis from property came up and had me sign my 118 I sent Mr O'Neill. They destroyed my notes and addresses to various organizations and Shirl Nelson. They kept the 118, but I asked Officer Curtis to make a copy of the 118 and return it to me a her convience. Officer Cordero witnessed the entire conversation. This institution is responsible for my notes an various contact information.

*Dan Fry Greater Baltimore Committee President.

4/20/2011

4:55 Feed up! B/S Had a peaceful sleep. They cut the A/C down and didn't do the wake you up thing every 1 1/2 hrs. Got library today. Copies & information. Gonna help the inmates get some information.

8:20 Medical Come through asked about my glasses again Prostate status And why I am in this section, asked for Medical records from here and Spring Grove. No one wants to answer me 118 or 200

11:45 Called Dick my lawyer/friend. Told me his office had a fire and burned up all my material. Talk about bad luck. Well things happen for a reason. (83)

12:30 Library Got Copies made for free again. And she did me a big favor.

2:30pm Got mail from my lawyer. 4 envelopes and writing paper for my diary.

3:30 Gamble on duty. Being the "B" she is. Gonna ignore her. Not gonna let her steal my "Joy"

4:00pm Got 3 "Letters" for my lawyer ready for mailing. Clearly marked Tampering with the mail is a Federal Offense. On the back the address to Ms Mossburg Maryland Public Policy Institute. Eric Holder US Attorney Gen. States Attorney Shellenberger, Dept of Human Rights New York United Nations New York all marked Whistle Blower Act. He should get the mail by Monday. I have the original. Going to Send Shellenberger a "Letter" just to piss him off and because I can!

4:35 Cpl Gamble took my 3 "Letters" to be mailed off.

5:00p (2) Went out to stand in a line-up for a robbery.
They paid him a fuck of New for $4.00 a Pepsi and some free phone calls. Now I know a man gotta do what a man gotta do, but lets call a spade a spade. Can't call it Snitching but you can call it selling your brother out. Or even aiding and abetting.

7:50 Saw the Sgt. Asked him how long it takes to respond to my 118's and 200's. Said 10-15 days. Admitted to having knowledge of all of my 118 and one of my 200's. Lt. Whitehead read some of the material I had to be copied at the Library today. Waiting on my papers about Barrtry and some other legal material. Said I'll get it in 2 days. So everything is coming together. Slowly, but surely.

8:35 ② is back from his "Field trip" / line-up. Back telling stories. Makes me wonder if they had him talking on some open cases or people he knows from the streets. Got a pink slip where they put $1,00 on his account. Brother didn't even get minimum wage. Real proud of himself. I want to pull his card but I'm gonna let him ride. Cause I don't need no problems right now. Told ⑯ about my opinion. Just see how things play out. Should be in the paper or on the news. "Things you do in the Dark always come to the Light." He been clowing ⑯ and tried to blow on me today about my legal thing. Well the story he told me about his case and him taking a plea deal don't add up. Only God knows what lies in the heart of that man. 50 years old I'm not taking a plea deal for 40 years. Unless ???

10:20pm Just finished my "Letter" to States Attorney Shellenberger. The final player in the game. ⑯ did my proof reading. And Cpl Gambie saw me mail the "Letter." Now I just wait and let the chips fall where they may. Time to Tell the Truth

4:15 AM Go material from the library. And it's just what I need. Now I can deal with Illinois and Maryland for the same mis carriage of Justice. Think I'll go back to sleep. Got some more legal material Coming Friday.

4:30 Never fails to happen. ② Trying to get out the gates and I'm trying my best to keep my cool. Close to the finish line. Not gonna let him make me lose my focus. I want to pull his card so bad. Nothing in the paper about a robbery. So the story he told really don't add up. They found Phyllis Barnes today. And nothing was on the news about the robbery either. Gonna keep my distance and focus on my situation. See if this so called robbery / line-up case pops up before I leave.

10:20 Slept the night away. Gamble trying to have small talk. She delivered my mail yesterday. She's trying to mend fences. Oh well let things ride. I'm waiting on the 26th. Not putting my hopes on the line. State Attorney should get his mail Friday so should my lawyer. 4 more days to go and let the Court do its job. No news about the so called robbery on the news. See what Friday brings.

10:45 Tried to sleep the day away. Newspaper is full of information 12:30 ④ went in ④ cell and took all the commissary and the guards

ATTORNEY CLIENT PRIVILEGE - At the request of Thomas J. Saunders, Esq.

Saw him. ④ is at a lawyers visit. This is gonna be the drama for the day.

1:20 They came and to ④ to Admin seg. I'm writing my "Letter" to Mr O'Neil. And it's on this paper.

1:45 ④ is back from visit talking crazy. Young boys will never learn. I'm falling back. I got my own things to deal with. I'm getting ready for Tuesday.

2:20pm Finished my "Letter" to Mr O'Neill, and I gave it directly to Sgt Storritt. The "Letter" is 4 pgs long and lays everything out in the open. And told them I want it back by Monday night for my Tuesday Bond hearing. Not much more I can do. So I'll just chill the rest of the day. Stay to myself. Everyone is in ⑭ business. And I'm tired of talking to people who don't listen and know everything. Just leave everyone alone. Came here by myself gonna leave by myself. Can't help those that don't or won't help themselves.

4:50 Blagojevich trial is picking jury. Juror 110 had a comment that say it better than most. "all politicians are corrupt. Let see if the same thing plays out in my case. accountability for elected and public officials. They seem to live outside the rules of law. Ensign is resigning May 2011. Corruption is running wild in Politics perfect time for my Movie to come out.

8:30 Gamble and the Dreas are doing room inspections. Kept her out earlier by sitting on the "Toilet" should have seen her face so this time I was reading Martin Luther King Jr's "Letter from a Birmingham Jail" from "Letters of a Nation" good book as well as a Blueprint. Gov O'Malley said he admired MLK Jr. I wonder how he feels about me. My "Toilets" are pieces of Art and a visual form of Social disobedience. Facebook Tweeter @CJL and my 238 videos on youtube are my followers. Modern day marchers on the Worldwide Web. Shellenberger got my "Letter" today. Sgt delivered my "Letter" today. So all the players in the Game are on the same page. and everyone was instructed to bring the "Letters" to Court on 4/26/2011. I'm not gonna let the elected officials deny the roles they all have played in my current situation. Like Martin Luther King Jr did and said Direct action. Make that change in the Judicial System. and publically shame your oppressors. What better way than using a Toilet and having that Toilet sitting in the middle of the Courtroom and everyone's Name & address on the "Toilet". Then they have to produce the Mail. Entrapment <sup>good</sup> law as well as strategy. David Irwin got his "Letter" so did my lawyer. Easter Weekend.

8:45 Gay boy is back from Admin/Sec. (4) is gonna love this.

11:00pm Just re read MLK Jr "Letter" gonna read it again again and again. It's a modern day Bible Story. It's really just that deep. & "Letter" is a powerful and moving instrument of peace.

ATTORNEY CLIENT PRIVILEGE - At the request of Thomas J. Saunders, Esq.

Today is Good Friday. I say Good Night. for this too shall pass.

Saturday Long day. Trying to sleep it away. Me (2)

(88)

Went at it earlier about the TV. So I fell back. Just ate lunch got to look at the newspaper so I'll do one today. Right a "Letter" later on. Get the critics out of the paper later.

5:15 10 & 16 went at it. 10 is acting tough and let a 60 year old man smash him. Told 10 to stay from upstairs. Came back last night & didn't last 24 hrs. He knows I don't like him. And I told him to back off or lock up. He jumped an old white man last time. But this time around he was not running his mouth. Never should have let him come back here. Now (10) & 16 are both locked up.

8:15 Called (16) wife let her know what's going on. Wish he would have walked away, but 10 knew what he was doing. I been keeping him away from our area, but I was sleeping when this jumped off. Woke me up because it was outside my door.
I wanted to stomp (10) myself, but he just wouldn't cross the line or lock up with me. (16) Been doing good up. (10) came back. They had problems in the past. Shouldn't have brought him back to the Section.

11:00pm Lock Up! The Story of Moses is on. Just for fun I'm gonna write the United Nations and see if they will send a UN investigator in case they did Pfc Manning. Gonna send the article about Gov O'Malley's trip to China with the "Letter" The American Prison system needs to be exposed to the World for what it really is. Cash Con

11:45 Up and at it. Made a call for (16) earlier. Now I'm writing my "Letters"

12:45 Finished my "Letter" to the United Nations. Addressed to the China delegation so they can use my information to refute the claims against them. Gonna hit them with a "Letter" to the Gov.

1:10 (10) Came out exposing himself I told him we don't want to see him exposing himself and then he wanted to start a fight. I wanna bust his head. He was just fronting. I would break him off in such a way. To fight for the fight.

2:45 Finished my "Letter" to Gov O'Malley (15) did my proof reading. Mail it out later.

7:30pm Inmates telling me their stories how the Bond was raised on them and they haven't seen or heard from their Public Defenders. This is a violation of Due Process and violates the fundamental fairness of the "Law." People are permitted to file false police reports and hold people in this facility for as long as they see fit. They are violating human civil and constitutional rights. And they are make dope fiends out of these inmates off the prescription drugs. Shallenberger was on Square Off 2004. and Richard Sherr & him both have certified mail from me pertaining to Racism in the Judicial System. Shallenberger filed false charges against me twice, and even tried to arrest me for they gave ⑯ medication 3 days ago that he wasn't prescribed. ⑯ he took it anyway. Because it gets him high. He went to sleep for 2 1/2 hours. This system needs to be investigated from the Top to the Bottom. It's just as Bad as Lake County if not worse. I really didn't realise what I was getting myself into, but I've stumbled unto a system of total corruption and abuse of power. And no one can deny my findings. Only crime I committed was being born Black in America. Tuesday can't get here fast enough. I'll find out when I get a court date by then.

9:00pm Seems like I'm running a Dear Abby corner. Dealing with so many other peoples problems and still trying to manage my own. Stressfull situation. Dropped a 118 in the Box about ⑯. Want to know what they are gonna do about him. Cause I ain't gonna let him run up on me. He ain't in my class. And I ain't got a problem until he puts his hands on me. Then it's every man for himself. And it is what it is. I don't run from a fight. Don't know how. Too old to run or change. And a coward I'm not. Gonna get more than what he's looking for.

2:15AM They left my ⑯ lights on all night long. Now enough is enough. Can't say I forgot. And I take it very personal. They won't answer my 118's or 200 request. And they can't say I'm a problem on the deck. But I'll just deal with them in Court. Accountability for their actions.

Take advantage of the lights. Read and write. File (4) & 118 in the Morning. Just because "I Can". And it leaves a longer Paper trail.

5:10 Put in the 118. To shift Commander (Mr O'Neill)

6:50 They come to get (10) off the deck. Guess they got the 118 and the guard's report from Sunday morning. Hope they mailed my "Letters"

12:38pm Sleep most of the morning. Gonna take me a hot shower wash my clothes in the sink. And get ready for 4/26/2011. Everyone got their mail today. Shellenberger, Eric Holder, Mr O'Neill, Ms Mossburg, David Irwin, Chief of Police Balt County, and Mr Hager Supervising Constable pertaining to Jake & Jim. So we are all on the same page. United Nations should get theirs by Thursday. Gov O'Malley should get his by Wednesday. I'm ready for a very very Public Trial. And with those "Toilets" in the Courtroom and my witness list, they'll see how crazy I really am. Entrapment, Perjury, Conspiracy, filing false charges, Malicious prosecution, Threats & Intimidation. Sheriff Fisher got his mail last week. Glad I set up my youtube page and facebook. The Speech I made at Garretts Funeral is now completed. I finished what I started. And I kept my word and my promise.

2:45pm Lockdown. Got a new inmate in (10). I took a 1/2 shower washed my things. And I'm ready for court in the morning. Looks 50/50. Might drop the charges and they might keep me for trial. I have over 80 days in so all I have to do is 40 more for speedy trial. I'm in a win win situation. Everyone I mentioned has to produce the "Letters" I wrote. And thus admitting Knowledge of my Documentary/Books

Plus they have to produce the "Toilets" Banners, 911 calls, and my Jailhouse diary. A jury would love this trial. Plus They get to see the Facebook pages as well as YouTube, MySpace Twitter AOL and LinkedIn accounts. Cummings Cardin Mikulski Jackson Durbin Reed and the Washington DC videos would enrage the jury. And Addie's video would be the candle on the cake. I proved my point and showed the Racism that is so deeply rooted in our American Judicial System. Sorry to say Dred Scott still exists. Take a nap. Time ain't moving fast enough.

4:53 Been locked up 25 days and no court date. Lake County held me for 163 days. And my lawyer promised me a trial. I got him on tape saying I will never get a Court date or trial. Seems like the same thing is gonna happen here. Got a Sunny Feeling. My lawyer hasn't come to see me and Mr O'Neill hasn't returned any of the information I requested. Being Black in America is a Capitol Crime.

8:00 Packing up for Court. (16) wants me to take the Plea. I want to go home but I don't want to sacrifice my morals and principles. I want what they owe me and I want my life back. I've been following the path of Righteousness and it ain't been a easy road to travel. It's been a long and lonely journey. Not very many men would endure the trials & tribulations I have. I made the Ultimate sacrifice of self. But I miss my family and friends. I miss my freedom!!!

Martin Malcolm would not buckle under this, but I am really feeling the pain. I live in Exile in my Own Country. And the Judicial System is renowned for Racial injustice. This struggle started 3/3/86. And I have silently been carrying the Cross long enough. The only way to win is through the Courts. City County State and Federal levels. The World Court is the last resort. 400 years of accepting Racial inequalities is far too long. Someone has to make that stand and say enough is enough. Hope I'm strong enough to finish what I started. That's the type of "Man" my Father & Mother raised me to be. This Battle isn't mine. It's the Lord's. I'm just an instrument of his Peace. A simple Soldier in the army of the Lord.

9:55 Officer Curtis is here. And she didn't bring the Copies of the '2005 or the 118's I asked for so I could show the Judge about my treatment at this facility.

Bond Court. Packed and ready to go. Gonna give my Lawyer my book. And I'll leave if they let me go. Prayed on it. And the rest is in his hands.

1:15 Back from Court. Got my bond reduced to $10,000. Still no Court Date. They had me on TV again. Better look than before. Everyone was telling me about the interview. I didn't see it myself. Called William asked about the Book and my USB. Told me he doesn't have it - and him & Paula are fighting over the estate. Getting settled in get a nap. Inmates are feeding this Political statement. Called my lawyer and he's gonna see me Wednesday after 5pm. Gonna see if he can get me some copies of the "Toilets". Have him a list prepared as well. Have him call me wife too. Haven't heard from her. Have him call Shirl as well. Gonna show how Shellenberger created this entire situation. Jake & Jim. Identity Theft Fraud & Forgery.

5:00pm Got to see the T.V. report about my case. Good "Look" I'm a celebrity around here now. Inmates want me to help them file a class action lawsuit against the Facility.

6:35 Wrote ② 118's so O'Neill can't deny me access to the information I am requesting. Gonna send it to WJZ when I see my "Lawyer." gonna request a jailhouse interview as well.

10:15 Changed my mind sent a "letter" to Baltimore Sun instead. Put the 2nd 118 in the Box in the morning after they do the mail. Make sure it gets out. See when mail goes out. Takes 2 days. O'Malley got his today. So did Shellenberger.

5:10m Got a message to my wife last night (14) let me talk to his sister. She saw me on T.V. so I gave her the (15) to call. All the inmates are trying to get together and file a class action law-suit against this Facility. They have a lot of violations that need to be addressed. I'm just a voice for the Voiceless. I only did what I felt needed to be done for the Betterment of "Our" Community. To dismantle the Master's House you have to use the Masters Tools. I used the TV station the way they used me. I used the Newspaper the way they used me. And I'm gonna use the "Law" the way the Law uses me. This is a time and material job. Time for the material to make it to the People. I'm only doing what Martin Luther King Jr or Malcolm X would have done if they were still alive. Fight of Laws and expect the Society to survive. A house divided can never stand. So let's eliminate Racism across this "Land". The Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave. "We the People" are the ones I want to save. Can't keep claiming Democracy and in the same breath deny Our People their Birth Rights. I let (15) do my proof reading. "Letter" is in the Mail. (18) is going into the Box later today. See my lawyer tonight. I'm ready for the Fight.

9:20 Medical came through. I guess my interview shook up the administration. They want to put me in population Now. So I'll get ready for the Move. Told me to wait on my glasses. Put the 118 in the Box. Dr Tobin still hasn't responded to my request to release the evaluation to me. And O'Neill hasn't responded to any of my 200 forms.

2:45 Finished my "Letter" for my lawyer. Made a list for 2D inmates that want to file a class action lawsuit against this facility. I am not alone in my fight against Racial Injustice in Balt County Detention Center.

8:30 Lawyer didn't show up.

10:45 Wrote Lawyer 4 pg "Letter" tried to explain some things to him. Asked him to contact some people so I can hopefully get out of here. Still don't have a Court date, and the States Attorney is lying to the Judge.

4/28/2011 Just got my papers back from "2D" they are planning to file a class action lawsuit against this facility. So the tide of change is comming. He's gonna get me the address is the State Dept later today. I talked to Lt Division last night told her everything that's going on so there is no mistake or misunderstanding about my position on the issues I've placed on Mr O'Neill's desk. Go a lot of inmates that want to get involved with my Movement. We are not a Gang.

5:45 Just sent Mr O'Neill another 118. My 5th request. (47) told him not to destroy any of my request. Lt Dixon Said see is gonna Email the same request. So now I will as for all emails as well to be "superceded" as evidence.
pertaining to my situation. Shouted Lt Whitehead the "Letter" from Sen/President Obama. My Lawyer has it now. Gonna get the address to the State Department later today.

1:00pm (15) is pissing off (14) and I'm stuck in the middle, I got a real smart mouth and 14 is a sensitive Thug. He puts his biz out there like that and he gets treated. Get mad at me cause I go hard and I keep it 100%. Fall back and read the Newspaper. Don't want to get caught up in dumb shit.

2:45 Finished my "Letter" to Maryland Governor's Office of Minority Affairs
Wendell K. Sutton Director of Advocacy 6 Saint Paul St Suite 1502
They have material and videos about my situation so I respectfully requested that they return my videos and written material.
Baltimore County Police won't show me what they took out of my Apt so I have to track track all my information & mail it out.

4:15 Finished my "Letter" to Eric Holder/Mark J Kappeloff. (15) did the proof reading. He said they are gonna kill me. But I always wanta be like Martin Luther King Jr. Not very many people want his job.
I walk the walk and talk the talk. His position has been vacant for too long. My lawyer will get his "Letter" Friday or Saturday.

I still don't have a court date. So tell me what kind of Justice (18) is there in the American Judicial System. Gonna get the address to the State Department. Human Rights Division. And send them a copy of the Report China issued 3 weeks ago.

10:50 A Captain just brought me 2 envelopes from S Verch. They lied about notarizing my "Letters" and the Public Defender won't respond to my 118's. So now they are gonna pass the buck. My lawyer has the diary. Questions will have to be answered. Call it a night. Go over the material in the morning.

3:30pm Sleep the day away. Just made a response to the material I got from Capt. Alford. Gonna send the material directly to Mark J. Kappeloff of the Dept of Justice in Washington DC. Let (15) proof read the material before I send it off. Sent him a "Letter" last night gonna get another one tonight as well. Write Phillip a "Letter" it's his Birthday. He'll be 21. Go read the News Paper see what it has to say.

3:40 Head Count Clp Gamble. She don't bother me no more. Got 2 mattresses and she ain't said a word. Dread was with her he didn't say nothing either. Told me the Captain's name that came to see me. Stay in my cell and avoid her anyway.

8:00pm Just finished a Birthday "Letter" to Phillip. Told him to post something on Facebook too. Try to get my bail money up. And asked his Mother to put something on my Books. Lawyer ain't come to see me yet either. Get the mail Saturday.

ATTORNEY CLIENT PRIVILEGE - At the request of Thomas J. Saunders, Esq.

4/30/2011

10:16pm. Did nothing today. Writing a 118 just to get on their nerves. 2D is on lock down. Been taking everyone to medical all night long. Sgt been here for 3 hrs.

10:50 Made a 118 and a copy. So they can't deny knowledge of the situation. States Attorney and O'Neill need to be held accountable. And those "Letters" 118's and 200 complaint form does a good job.

11:30 Wrote a 118 to Ms Green to re-inburst me for my property at Spring Grove, and touched up the Intr-Department Memo Complaint # COO452. With a extra 118 to go with it.

5:40am Prezenchuk wanted to know why I asked him for his name. Told him I was writing a book. He's a by the numbers type of guy. And I mean by the numbers. Cell check & the whole 9 yard I gave him my youtube page and my facebook page. Female officer acts like she was a hog caller. I had (14) sister call my wife again. I sent the 118 to Ms Green. It will be waiting on her for Monday Morning. I asked for a 10 min phone call. Ain't got an answer yet. Won't hold my breath. Gonna do my Sunday morning writing later.

5:50 2D was on lock down for a fight yesterday. Must have weed on 3rd floor. Could smell it in the vents last night. Can't wait to have my trial or get out. 81 days and no court date.

6:40 Filed a 118 with Chief Public Defender as instructed by S Varch 4/28/2011. Made a copy.

2:00pm Got up started doing some writing. Motion for Dismissal my lawyer is against it. But I've been here 81 days and no one wants to give me a court date, and I filed a speedy trial motion with the Court and they would not respond. 100

5:20 pm Filed a 118, Public Defender, Classification Ms Green.

9:00pm Wrote Rob Fiks a "Letter" gave him the 118's and the complaint form told him to put it on Facebook. Adam Reuter won't answer my phone call.
stapton

5:25 Gonna put together a list. To give to the postal inspector. Send copy to Shellenberger so I can file charges against this facility. Like a double edged sword.

12:30 Wrote 3 118's to get the address & phone number of Barry Glazer to file a class action lawsuit against this facility and the States Attorney Shellenberger

2:20 Lawyer's visit.

4:10 Back from visit. Went over my trial. Got a court date
6/28/2011. Gave him some bail bondsman to call, ask him to call my wife and to have Phillip Rob as witnesses.
Told him Shellenberger had full knowledge of entire situation.
And there are videos to prove it. Get to explain everything in front of jury. Jury of my peers. Said he'll send me paper and envelopes.

9:50 Wrote 118 to Mr Green & Social worker about the Postal inspector to trace my mail from this facility. Gonna hold me here then I'm gonna make the best of it.

5/3/2011

5:45 Guard was sleeping again and left the lights on all night long. Filed a 118 on him.

12:45 Gave Officer Peters my Facebook & youtube page. She asked so I told her. Filed a 118 for Paul Wambatts address.

1:20 Officer Peters brought me back some tooth paste & deodorant.

1:27 Just got mail from my wife. Said she's gonna send me some money Friday.

2:12 Just talked to Ms Green about phone call to my wife. Told me tomorrow 2:45 Just wrote Baltimore Sun Timothy E Ryan & Eileen Ambrose. See if they publish this in their paper or continue to be one sided in the story.
Call it a day. Go to bed. Wait for my lawyer to give me my writing paper and envelopes.

10:10pm Captain Alford came down to investigate part of my 200 complaint about Cpl Graham. Told him we haven't been having any problem in the last 2-3 weeks. Told him about the conversation with the Nurse and the Officers that know about my documentary. Told him about his conversation with the Nurse. So I know they ain't gonna put me in the population. Still have to address the issue about my missing mail and papers from Spring Grove

5/4/2011

Did some thinking last night. Since they are investigating my 200 complaints I'm gonna throw Shellenberger under the bus. They misrepresented the Truth in Bond Court. So I'm gonna hold them accountable. Soon as my lawyer sends me the Attorney Client Privilege Papers I'm gonna put it on them. They still have to address the issue of my missing legal papers and my mail.

ATTORNEY CLIENT PRIVILEGE - At the request of Thomas J. Saunders, Esq.

Got a "New" officer on night shift. Seems pretty fair.

10:30 Newspaper is here. Mexico wants to legalise Drugs to stop the violence.

12:30 No library today. Can't make copies of legal material. So I'll ask social worker & classification.

1:15 Wrote a IIB to Classification and a "Letter" to Adam Mays of WJZ-TV. They ran a story about Alan Gross so lets see if they gonna Free Sharty too.

9:15 Back from visit Adam Reuter. Said he's gonna send me a "Free Sharty" poster gonna get in touch with my lawyer and look over my diary. Feel good about everything.

Happy Birthday Phillip 21 Son. You made it. Officer Taylor Jr is a pretty nice guy. But the 2 guards doing bed checks all night were flashing the red light in your face and didn't turn the lights off in 13 14 15 16 all night long. That sleep deprivation and a form of torture. With the lack of sleep you can't function properly and your not able to fight your case. and you go for any deal the State Offers you just to get out of this facility. Public defenders waive the inmates right to Preliminary Hearings and Speedy trial motions. The the facility can hold inmates as long as they please until they break their spirits. Call it the Stockholm Syndrome.

among Blacks Hispanic Asians and poor whites Ignorance of the law is no excuse of the law. Knowledge of

The Law is Priceless, Malicious prosecution says
 I can be paid for being illegally incarcerated, and these guards in this Facility that demand respect need to give a little respect as well. Antonio & his buddy refused to turn out the lights last night. And when we asked them about not having Sugar with this B/s meal this morning they tried to carry us. I started to write a 118 about it but I'm not gonna continue to fight for people that won't fight for themselves. I got a problem I'm gonna address it. And deal with it on the spot. I know how to contact Captain Alford Lt Whitehead Sgt Streitett Cpl Miller Officer Corbin and Mr O'Neill. The Pen is mightier than the Sword.
 And they hate to see me writing. Or asking them for their names.
 I have the Spirits of Martin & Malcolm in me. And I know my history. I'm not a house Nigger, but I am a Nigger that has been in a lot of peoples houses. And I've kept their secrets long enough. So now I'm gonna share them. Government calls it the Whistle Blower act. Ghetto calls it Snitching. I call it Telling the Truth. I stand up when I pee. Aint nothing punk pussy or Bitch about me!!! And I've raised my kids the same way. Phillip is the one to lead. I'm just paving the road for his dynasty.

9:50 AM Cell search Cpl & Officer took my shield down. Told them I wanted to talk to a Sgt. Been asking for a Sgt since Monday and they haven't sent me one yet. Asked to file a 208 form to address the issue of lights and officers sleeping on the job. They put me on lock down. That issue is already ...

lunch. Let me out of my cell. I really don't care. Asked the POP officer to speak to a Sgt and a 200 Form. I put in countless 118's in the past and the issue still has not been resolved. (104)

2:00pm Made 2 118's concerning my complaints on file at this institution. So they can't just dismiss them. Sending copies outside this facility to get outside pressure to bring an open investigation about the things that are going on in here. Should of just left me alone.

10:00pm Got address that I wanted from the phonebook. Classification Social Services and the library won't respond to my 118's. Gonna force the Government to defend my rights. Rob should have got his "Letter" today. My lawyer hasn't sent me the paper and envelopes yet. Waiting for the photo's of my "Toilets" and the copy of the Mental evaluation and the search warrant.

10:15 Ask the Lt and Cpl. Gamble about the Air Conditioner. That's a form of torture as well. Freeze to death and lights all night it's a subtle form of torture to people who don't understand. Gonna contact the FBI Friday and ask for a Federal Investigation. They have videos legal materials and Storyboards that my lawyer needs as evidence to defend me. (C)

5:20 Guards had a different attitude this morning. No one came in the cell last night. They weren't shining the lights in our face all night. Frenchie went to DOC last night. He left me his bowl and a deck of cards. Gonna miss that man. He was the only person that could calm me down when these guards got out the gate on me. But he should be out by the end of the summer. Maybe Noddles has his information. Don't got a lot to write about. Wait till commissary I'll have 6 "Letters" I can write this week. Still waiting on my lawyer to get me that money and the paper & envelopes. Running out of paper for my diary. (C)

8:30 pm Had a 1 on 1 with Lt Dixon. Let her read a copy of (105) the 118 I sent to Shift Commander & Mr O'Neil. Said shes gonna have the Lt talk to me later.

10:10 Someone took the Newspaper for the day. (14) has been acting out cause I won't play cards with him or give him no Scrabble. Slamming doors, acting like a spoiled child. He owes Frenchie. Ran the batteries out of the radio for (3) and wants me to take care of him. Growing up is a hard thing for him to do. Give him some air. He just takes from people. And don't ever share. He got a lot of issues. And I don't want to be one of them.

5:45 Talking to (14) about his attitude. Doing Confessions, I should really be getting paid for this shit. I'm a man of many hats and everyone seems to think I am this smart guy. I'm just a man that remembers Our American History. I know Black Codes and Jim Crow Justice. I know what lynching is. And I refuse to be a victim of Racial injustice.

6:15 Just had a 15 minute conversation with Officer Vogele. Gave validity to my hypothesis Concerning Racism in the American Judicial System. And agreed to the comments about the Corruption in the system. I let him read the 118 and see the "Letter" from Wendell K Sutton. Also knows about the "Zambezi" study from the 1960 at Sanford University. Talked to Lt Whitehead. Lt Dixon. Sgt Straete. Officer Joseph and a few others have knowledge of what I'm doing and trying to accomplish. Martin Luther King Jr is my mentor, I want his Job. Position has been vacant for too long, and he was taken from us when we needed him most. So put me in coach. I'm ready to play in this game of Racial Injustice. I've been to the Mountain top.

1:00 Running a Chess Club inside Dept of Correct Sec & C

2:00 Sent out a copy of 118 to the visiting Room with Scott (14). Told him to give it to who ever is in the visiting room.

2:25 Got some good articles out the Newspaper. Use them in my mailings. (106)

3:45 The increditable Sleeping guard is in the POD. Gave officer Hines a copy of the 118 I submitted to Mr O'Neill. Secrets will not block Justice. But things you do in the dark always comes out in the light of day. And I got a lot to say.

5:05pm Bored to death. Gave (14) a copy of the 118 to pass to an inmate while he was on his visit. Said he gave it to a Dredd in a Red Jumper, Probably (3D) or C. Gonna get copies all over the institution and force them to deal with the situation. Write the FBI William and Graphic Imaging this weekend. And Barry Glazer.

10:21pm Got "Letter" for FBI ready with 3 118's dated 2/12/2011 Mr O'Neill 2/17/2011 Dr Tabin and 5/5/2011 and Classification Ms Green 3/30/2011. Don't want anyone to say I left them out of the loop.

5:20 asked for a Sgt and a 200 Complaint Form. Walking, 1c up every 2 hours is sleep deprivation and since they don't want to deal with this justly I'm gonna address the policy in a Federal Court. Lt Dixon told me to address this issue on this shift. So I am.

6:15 Been waiting on a Sgt and Lt since 2:30 am. No 200 form was given to me. I wrote a 118 as instructed by Lt Dixon and handed it directly to Officer Preznchuk so nobody can say I didn't follow protocol.

11:35 Let the POD officer read the material I'm sending to the FBI. I don't want anyone to say I did anything behind their backs.

12:45pm Just finished my "Letter" to the FBI. along with the 118's that this institution refuses to address. Barry Glazer too!

1:15 Got the address for Dr Rifkin new owner of North Oaks

Finished my "Letter" to Barry Glazer. Need a Civil lawyer (107) to file a lawsuit.

8:15 Lt Luckett told me he would get me a 200 Form tonight.

I won't hold my breath. But he said I can not be refused.

10:31 I got the 200 Form. And I made the Cpl sign it. Talk about pissed off. Kanno is heated. Put in another 118 just because.

5/18/01

5:20 Just finished making 4 handwritten copies of the 118 Forms. And I have 5 envelopes to mail out this week. 49 days till my trial. So I'll keep myself busy by writing and getting my message out. I haven't decided who I'm gonna mail these 118 out to yet. I think one will go to the Federal Public Defenders Office. And see what that turns up. Gonna fill out the 200 Form and send it outside the Facility and make Mr O'Neill answer it from a defensive stand point. Look for the address to the Chinese Embassy in Washington D.C. (like it an international) Issue like it should be. Human Rights Violations Let the World see what the American Judicial System is Really like. Expose the Cash Cow Prison Industry for who & what they are. Justice for sale pay for it or go to jail. Guards are mad at me. Watching me from the POD wondering who & what I'm writing about. Kanno reminds me of Sampson the Gorilla at the Milwaukee Zoo. He wasn't laughing when I was talking to Lt Luckett or when the Cpl bought me that 200 Form. He needs to lose his job. All he does is sit on the phone and try to piss the inmates off. I love pissing people off. The look on his face is priceless last night. How much for the Gorilla in the window. Mogilla Gorilla for sale.

2:10 Been sleeping the day away. New memo. Only 2 118 per inmates per shift. I do believe I have touch their nerves. The pen is mightier than the sword. And pressure can bust a pipe. I have 14 118's. And I'm gonna get other inmates to get their share. (108)

2:30 Called my lawyer. No response.

9:00 pm Wrote my Brother William. asked for $300.00 told him I'll pay him back $350.00 on his Birthday.

9:20 Gave Officer Reed my youtube & Facebook information. Officer Brandon

10:30 Kanno went out the lights out says wait till 11pm we asked to talk to a Sgt. He refused. He is trying to pay us back 11:40pm Wrote a nice 118 up on Kanno. and gave him a number to call to show them I'm not playing. Doing bad check gonna give it to them. Gave it to Officer Cruz.

5/10/2011

5:00 am Noddles is writing a 118 on Kanno today. Mirix went in last night. Gonna send a "Letter" to the Federal Public Defender office

6:15 Just finished my "Letter" to the Chief Federal Public Defenders office 1005 Charles St Balt Md. Time to go to sleep and see what today brings me.

2:00pm Got up writing. Taking quotes from "Letters of a Nation" Martin Luther Kings Jr "Letter from a Birmingham Jail"

3:55 Kanno aint here today. Got another African to take his place. We spoke to each other and made myself clear. Respect me and I'll respect you. Officer Reed was checking other cells but I am not to be played with. Play with you kids or go play with some toys. Grammar lesson I. don't me. Or simply leave me alone.

earlier the transport officer that took me to Spring Grove came in my cell. He saw my youtube page. He said some of my videos have been taken down.

(10A)

6:45 OKOME is a lot better than Kanning. Today is a lot better than yesterday. Nice and smooth. (1) is going to the Marin Hospital and (2) went home. Probably getting drunk. To each his own. FBI got their "letter" today.

11:40 pm Wrote (13) points from Martin Luther King Jr's "Letter from a Birmingham Jail" I have to return the book "Letters of a Nation" to the Library on Wednesday. Been doing some mentoring to (14) & (15) as well. Took me a hot shower earlier.
No one has responded to my mail or (16). They are really trying to make me give up. I am not giving up. And I want a trial to clear my name. And show everyone
I practice what I preach. Think will will be done.
I made a plan (17) and I am a fan of my words.

11:58 Sgt Afungo just delivered me my response to Complaint form
#CO0452. And he didn't look to happy. And they side stepped a lot of my issues. Especially the missing property and my mail.
They are trying to cover their ass but it's a little late for that.
They won't put me in population. So I'll deal with them from Right here.

5/11/2011
8:36 Mr. Diana openly stated that the food in here makes you sick. Price was sickly this morning. She also said the medical dept should furnish inmates with a print out of the side effects of the medication they are taking. And told me that inmates can request the written information about the medication they are taking side effects and addiction.

9:15am I called 410 324-8938 Public Defender office.

Just to prove that the Public Defender works with the States Attorney to deny due process & equal protection under the laws of the United States Constitution.

1:30 Library break waiting.

2:30 Back from Library. And I got a "Letter" from Mr O'Neill he seems somewhat pissed off. Called the Public Defenders office twice today. They wont answer. Check phone records.

4:00pm Sat is in the Bubble. Immate from 2D is complaining about Cpl Gamble. They aint gonna let me find out the rest of the complaint or conversation.

6:10 Gave a DC cell ⑦ my 118 forms to look over and send to Mr O'Neill.

7:00 Just mailed my "Letter off to Supporters of Shorty at 3 Risas Ct Cockeysville Md. 21030. Should get it by Fri/Sat.

Barry Glazer got his today and the FBI too.

9:45 They pulled cell searches tonight. They took ⑯ off the dock earlier because he filed a complaint against Kanno. They bought him back and pulled a cell search on him. Took his extra mattress. They do little thing to try to set you off. ⑯ has 2 mattresses and they dont say nothing to him. I have 2 mattress and Cpl Miller told me if he ask for would I give it up. I told him yes. They are very petty and use the Rule book when it serves their purpose or defends their suppressive actions.

⑯ Told them I'm prisoner's advocate and inmate know over the facility as well as the staff. And they know I how to handle my Biz-ness. O'Neill wishes he could be

In say but he can't put me there without a reason. He won't put me in population because I encourage inmates to stand up for themselves, and they listen to me. Guards have viewed my Facebook and youtube pages and they know how I get down. I go hard. So O'Neill just has to weather the storm. Got a class action lawsuit coming their way. And I'm gonna do it right in their face. Raw. no trojans man. Taking down addresses for Publishing Companies and gonna ask my Friends at Graphic Imaging to forward copies of my Book Minority report. My lawyer has my Second book Jailhouse diary. So I'm in a good place. 46 more days till my trial. So we'll see who the Coward is. And the video's as well as them Toilets are gonna fill the Courtroom. Gonna find the address to see if we can televise my trial. Court TV. Got a lot of inmates that have Stories to tell. 1400 inmates and they want their voices to be heard.

5:10AM Since Mr O'Neill gave me a "Letter" telling me to address my issues in the Court I'm gonna contact Judge Turnbull. Put everything right in his lap. Tie everyone into the situation that is involved. Tried to Show Officer Taylor my 118's and my "Letter" from Mr O'Neill and he said "He don't want it!" All the guards were reading my 118's in Feb-Mar but when April & May came around it wasn't funny anymore. Told them I was writing a book and it gonna leave a lot of these individuals all the way shook. Gonna be a long "Letter" and I'm gonna use the 200 form I saved from last week to do it.

11:15 Got mail from Gov Office. And it's all good he sent the video to my lawyer. I let the POD officer read the mail from White House & Gov O'Malley.
Go back to sleep.

2:15 Ms Green came by to see me. Gave me a phone call to my wife. Told me Dr Tobin works for the Court, and is going to check into property about my missing "Letters" and contact information. Phillip was in the Hospital. They got my "Letters" and she sent me some money this week and gonna send me some more next week. So I'll be able to keep writing "Letters" and advocating for the inmates. Hope my lawyer comes to see me and brings the Toilet Photos with him. Everything is falling into place. If the FBI returns my information this is gonna be a done deal. I wish I could see O'Neill's face when he read my 118 response. I got a phone number for a lawyer that likes to sue. Gonna contact him later or Friday.

3:00pm Lock down. (14) dismantled (13) cell. Boys will be boys.

5/12/2011

5:16 Up and at it. Gave Officer Taylor my packet from Gov Advocacy Office. Saw "Letters" from Whitehouse.

5:35 Officer Nelson did a room check told me she's gonna take my Mattress if she needs. Told her fine. If she took it I'd get another one.

6:05 Just wrote a 118 to piss O'Neill off. Told you I am a Professional pisser off. Made a handwritten copy so I can send it to other people/inmates.

6:24 Made 2 copies to send to other people. Dont want nobody to call him didn't get it. Off... T... I... don't wanna read it.

11:15 Commissary. They keep messing up my order. And then talk crazy to you because

(113)

12:45 Just called Bail bondsman 410 400-5555. Said he would post my bail. told him to call my lawyer Thomas Saunders and Charlie Stokes or Ms Diane will sign for me.

2:35 Just Put the 118 into the Librarian and Mr O'Neill. Now I'll wait for the response or the return of my information. Today is Friday the 13th. It aint so bad for me. Officer Williams gave me

5/14/2011 5:25 (44) day left. Officer Stateton came in for bed check last night.

Said she's related to NFL football player in Texas. Anyway she agreed with my hypothesis about denying inmates their sleep. Her comment was something like they don't want you to be comfortable. Thus the bedchecks, slamming doors, and clattering doors keep up all night. The Medical Dept. Miss Diane openly stated that the food is garbage during her weekly walk through.

6:15am Not happy unless I'm pissing someone off. So I sent a 118 to Shift Commander & Mr O'Neill. I'm only allowed 2 118 per shift. So I use them all up everyday I'm here. Misery loves company. I'm gonna make them as miserable as I am. Gonna lock them up minus the bars. Gonna get a daily dose of Shorty until I get my freedom.

6:30 Got mail from my lawyer. Go over it later.

11:50 Called Mark Adams Bail bondsman 410 400-5555. Said my lawyer hasn't responded to his call. Told him to call Margaret to give him Diane's phone # and Charlie Stokes phone # if they might sign for me. He told me about the man that took video glasses into the Courthouse. I had it in my diary.

12:30 Writing FBI another "Letter" to release everything to my lawyer and turn my son in as a drug dealer. Told them I'll testify told them where to go and what to do.

1:55 Put the "Letter" in the Box along with the 118's and newspaper clipping. Gonna see if Jake can do some time and if he is gonna take his friends to jail with him. I want Darlene and him to go to jail. Federal Jail 10-15 years. He wanted to be Shorty. Let's see if he can walk in my shoes. Write my lawyer later.

2:05 Got a "Letter" from Phillip. Good to hear from him.

5:00pm Call Bails Bondsmen. A D inmate told me that Charlie is gonna sign for me.

7:00pm A D inmate told me to call Bails Bondsmen at 9:00pm Sunday.
Not gonna hold my breath.

10:30 Re Read Phillips "Letter"

11:45 Lights Out Finished Reading the Chapter of the Chicago Campaign We need to reinstitute Operation Bread Basket. Empower our people and the communities we are living in.

5/15/2011

5:20 All above change. 43 days till Judgment Day.

Did my daily cut outs of the newspaper clipping. Had to get rid of this jailhouse food. The "Letter" from my lawyer didn't mention anything about the 335 hours of film I had in the Box in my living room.
Destroying Evidence, obstruction of Justice, is against the law and the officers in my house need to be held accountable. Everyone saw the video tapes on youtube. I see that Gov O'Malley put his brother in Charge of Chief of Staff for the Mayor.
O'Malley is the same as DC Stevenson. And his politics are a mirror image.

Fighting against the Machine is not an easy task when so many people are in his pockets. Baltimore Sun won't run no stories about me or print my side of the story. And my lawyer wants me to stay clear of the Media. They used the Media to paint this picture of a Crazy Black man. So why can't I use the Media to tell the "Truth" Me. My lawyer agree on something and disagree on others but this is my case my trial my life. So we're gonna do it my way. Constitution says that I have a Right to legal council to aids and assist in my defense. I'm facing jail time not him. He's had material to clear me for awhile now. And won't get the material

From the FBI Judge Pierson Carl Snowden Judge Turnbull Shellenberger or Gov O'Malley. Put them out there and see what happens then. A lot of material is being excluded from my case. And me and my lawyer need to have a sit down. Rob has footage and videos since all mine just vanished. Now I have to back track and get all the videos I put out on the Streets. Barber Shop Café and regular people. My External Hard drive is missing too. So there are a lot more questions than answers. But the Truth always comes to the light. Gonna go laydown. Get up at 9:00 and write my "Letter" to my lawyer.

ATTORNEY CLIENT PRIVILEGE - At the request of Thomas J. Saunders, Esq.

6:30 Made a 118 up for Mr O'Neill is I get out on bail. 2 copies

8:25 Cpl came to give me papers to sign. I'm getting out. (116)
Wain't be any fan fair. Or crowds of people cheering my release.
Only the rain falling down on me. Washing the ills of a racial Judicial System from soul. And cleansing my spirit. Taking the Stench of slavery from my Body. I read parts of Spike Lee "That's my Story and I'm sticking to it" Muhammad Ali Through the Eyes of the World. And I read the Chapter of the Chicago Campaign of The Autobiography of Martin Luther King Jr.
Edited by Clayborne Carson. These book were my tools to endure the countless and sometimes endless days of loneliness & despair.
But Book I most enjoyed was "Letters of a Nation" Edited by Andrew Carroll Forward by Marian Wright Edelman. I read pages 208 to 206 countless times. Those pages gave me what I need to shape my future and give Validity to the Social Struggle of Legalized Slavery in America. Our Judicial System. So now it's time to Finish what I started. Whistle Blowers Act. And the names are gonna shake up the Political Scene this year. Baltimore Re-Wired. The Man The Money The Myth. O'Malley and his Political Machine. We gonna see how this all plays out. But today I'm gonna do "Shorty"

9:40 Just dropped off my last "118" to this institution. asking for my "10 Letters" back from the Library.

ATTORNEY CLIENT PRIVILEGE - At the request of Thomas J. Saunders, Esq.

We can never forget that anything Hitler did in Germany was "legal" and everything the Hungarian freedom fighters did in Hungary was "illegal." to aid and comfort a Tito in Hitler's Germany I have almost reached the regrettable conclusion that the Negro's great stumbling block in the stride toward freedom is not the White Citizen's Council or the Ku Klux Klan, but the white moderate who is more devoted to "order" than justice, who prefers a negative peace which is the absence of tension to a positive peace which is the presence of justice, who constantly says "I agree with you in the goal you seek, but I can't agree with your method of direct action."

I had hoped that the white majority would understand that law and order exist for the purpose of establishing justice, and that when the fail to do so they become dangerously structured dams that block the slow of social progress.

Actually, we who engage in non-violent direct action are not the creators of tension. we march into the surface pre-kidden tension that is already there, bring it out in the open where it can be seen and dealt with. Like a boil that can never be cured as long as it is covered up, but must be opened with all its flowing ugliness to the natural medicines of air and light. Injustice must likewise be exposed, with all the tension it is exposing creates, to the light of human conscience and the air of rational opinion before it can be cured.

218) Now is the time to make real the promise of Democracy and transform our pending national dilemma into a creative psalm of brotherhood. Now is the time to lift our national policy from the quicksand of racial injustice to the solid rock of human dignity

Oppressed people cannot remain oppressed forever. The urge for freedom will eventually come

This is what happens to the American Negro. Something within has reminded him of his Birthright of Freedom; something within has reminded him that he can gain it. Consciously and unconsciously, he has been swept in by what the Germans call Zeitgeist, and with his black brothers of Africa, and his Brown and yellow brothers of South America and the Caribbean, he is moving with a sense of cosmic urgency toward the promised land of racial justice. Recognizing this vital urge that has anguished the Negro Community, one should understand public demonstration. The Negro has many pent-up resentments and latent frustrations. He understands why he must have sit-ins and freedom rides. If his repressed emotions do not come out it is a fact of history. So I have not said to my people "Get rid of your discontent". This is not a threat. Non violent direct action. Now this approach is being dismissed as extremist. I was initially disappointed in being so categorized.

If I have said anything in this letter that is an overstatement of the truth and indicative of an unreasonable impatience, I beg you to forgive me. Is there anything in this letter that is an understatement of the truth and is an indicator of my having a patience that makes me patient with anything less than Brotherhood? I beg God to forgive me.

I hope this letter finds you strong in the faith. Let us hope that the dark clouds of racial prejudice will soon pass away and the deep fog of misunderstanding will be lifted from our fear-drenched communities and in somenot to distant tomorrow the dawn will

I have been considered an extremist. Was not Jesus a extremist for love - "Love your enemies, bless them curse you, pray for them. That despitfully use you. Was not Jesus an extremist for justice 'Let Justice roll like waters and righteousness like a mighty stream. Was not Paul an extremist for the gospel of Jesus Christ? Was not John Bunyan an extremist "I will stay in jail to the end of my days before I be self-evident that all men are created equal. So the question is not whether we will be an extremist for the cause of justice or not. Will we be the extremist for the preservation of injustice?

So here we are moving toward the end of the twentieth century with a religious community largely adjusted to the status quo, standing as a tall-light behind other community agencies rather than

Ques. One day the South will know that when these disinherited children of God sat down at lunch counters they were in reality standing up for the best in the American Dream and the most sacred values in our Judeo-Christian heritage, and thusly, carrying our whole nation back to those great wells of Democracy which were dug deep by the Founding Fathers in the formulation of the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence.

not remain oppressed forever. The urge for calling individual freedom

But the judgement of God is upon the Church as never before. If the Church of today recapture the sacrificial spirit of the early church it will lose its authentic ring, for so loyalty of millions and be dismissed as an irrelevant social club with no meaning for the twentieth century. I am meeting young people everyday whose disappointment with the church has risen to outright disgust.
